When will that be? I cannot say. Perhaps not in a month, perhaps in a fortnight. Produce.—We notice a general upward tendency in all articles of indepensable necessity, caused partly by a lack of transportation facilities, and partly by the hesitation of producest to send supplies to market, through fear of impresement. The bill which lately passed Coegree, tosering just compensation for all articles impressed, has been signed by the President, and is now a law—in addition to which the Adjutant General has issued an order forbidding the impressment of supplies on their way to market, for sale on arrival. Surely the people of the interior need have no further hesitation in performing their real duty of relieving the distress essentioned in the cines by a carriety of provisions. We quote applies at $30 to $60 per hearts, according to quality. Bacon, hog-round, $1.50 to $1.70 per pound. White beans, $11 to $12 per bestels.

Graceries.—Coffee, $4.37 to perpound. Brown segar, $1.25, with an apward tendency. Mplasses, $10.50 per gallon. Salt, 40c, par peund. Elee, 90c, per pound.

Wm. Deno and B. Duffy were up on the charge of admislatering a severe lamming to Mr. Lubat, a coffse bonce keeper at the corner of Basin and Costomhouse streats. Deno could make no denial shot was sent to prison for threty days; the other buffer (Duffy) was sent for twenty days. This used to be Deno's native element, and wepresume he had got rusty, and was "piling for a fight".

The case of Mrs. Marphy, charged with robling Mr. Walker of $1000, was continued to Sunday.

Mrs. Bragg, who is lying dangerously ill at Wainchester with lyone expressed on all hands that the army will pass under the immediate command of Gen. Johnston; and in any event that the next engagement may be directed by him. Let me, in the connection, sketch briefly the main features of objection to Gen. Bragg fromors of which have reached Richmond. In the first place, Gen. Bragg does not understand the personnel of our army. He is what may be called a "flagetty" person, fall of wilm, and, occasionally, of caprice; often unreasonable, and sometimes not altogether dignified. I do not regard him as a cruel man, sithough the prejudice of the solders one estimate his dealing in cases of life and death. The third objection to him proceeds out to general belief in his capacity to achieve. No one doubt his industry, his energy, his perfect knowledge of the minuties of his office. Nor does any one of an unbiased disposition question his loyalty and corrage. But, as some one said after the battle of Mufreesborn, there "is a superstition spaint him." He is invested with the idea of "failure." Hence the army, officers and privates, lose no opportunity of speaking ill ohis "lock," as they deexant freely of his unreliability. On the other "hand, Gen. Johnston is invested with just so much éclat, beyond his own fame, as is saken from Gen. Bragg. Gen. Johnston is a fall man. he has a large, manly, round-bearted soil of his own, and the men love him. They respect him, and are impatient for a battle before he gets away.

He should not be absent on the expected day! When will that be I cannot say. Perhapot in a month, perhaps in a fortuight.
