The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE ..... NEW-ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 8, 1851.

No 1660 Vol. X.—NEW-SERIES.
Vol XXX—Whole No 6709.

OFFICE, CHARTRES STREET.

Terms of the Bee.

DAILY PAPER (one year in advance) $10 00
COUNTY PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance) 5 00

will only be discontinued when the subscriber must give one week's notice in writing before he can be allowed to discontinue.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One Dollar per every TEN lines for each language, on the first insertion, and half that price for each subsequent one. No advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each language.

Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each language for each insertion.

The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to advertisements strictly within the line of their business, and in extent to one square every other day.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee.

Official Journal of the State—General Council, First Municipality, and Board of Liquidators.

Monday Morning, Dec. 8, 1851.

THE NORTHERN MAIL came through, yesterday, with the latest dates.

THE PRESIDENCY.—NORTHERN VIEWS.

The various journals throughout the country—whig and quasi-whig,—begin to speak out in reference to the Presidency. The N Y Tribune—a journal of extensive influence, very able, strongly whig, but deeply imbued with abolition, has an article on the subject, in which it proposes a somewhat novel method of ascertaining the whig sentiment of the country. The Tribune admits the difficulties which must attend the assembling of a National Convention, and is of opinion that the diversity of opinion upon sectional questions will greatly embarrass the action of such a body. But a President must be elected, and it is proper that some plan should be adopted for presenting candidates and calling forth the energies of the whigs. Now the Tribune proposes as a means of accomplishing this object, that no National Convention should be held, but that in the several States some one whig candidate deemed worthy, should be voted for by the people, with a common whig electoral ticket in each State, and all pledged to cast their votes for the same number of whigs throughout the Union shall direct. The Tribune illustrates its proposition as follows

"Then each person in his State casting the Whig Electoral ticket, headed 'For President, Henry Clay or Daniel Webster or Winfield Scott, or Millard Fillmore or Thomas Corwin or whomsoever he shall personally prefer,' the endorsements to be counted the same as the ballots, of not by the regular Conventions then by Whigs previously chosen for the purpose and the number of votes to be cast in each Whig County and so that in the State General Committee. This manner the vote of each State was taken, and the whole be summed up to the New York Central or the West Virginia Committee, and the State Whig Committee of the State, and the Whig Committee of the State, and the Whig Committee of the State, and the