

The Daily Bee

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, 1916

THE DAILY BEE, PUBLISHED BY G. F. WILSON & CO. Office: 115 N. Poydras St. Telephone: 115. Entered as second-class matter, July 23, 1879. Post office at New Orleans, La., under No. 115. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on June 17, 1916. Paid in Advance: $1.00. Single Copies: 5 Cents.

THE DAILY BEE

Friday Morning, June 17, 1916.
Published by G. F. Wilson & Co., 115 N. Poydras St., New Orleans, La.
Subscription rates: $1.00 per month in advance. Single copies, 5 cents.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD

The construction of a National Pacific Railroad has been the subject of much discussion in the past few years. It is now being revived with renewed vigor. The proposed route would connect the Atlantic coast with the Pacific coast, passing through the heart of the continent. It would be a great boon to the country, and it is to be hoped that it will be completed in the near future.

RECEIVED OF THE ARMY

Three days later from Europe. The news of the armistice has been received here with much interest. It is a relief to all who have been suffering from the war. The news is a great blessing to the world.

COMMERCIAL

Market news and commercial reports. The market is generally quiet today. There is a slight improvement in the price of cotton. The price of wheat is also up. The market for sugar is steady.

BY MACHINE TO THE GRAVE

Particulars of the case. A man was killed by a machine. The case is being tried in court today. The man was working in a factory when the accident occurred. He was killed by a moving part of the machine.

PUBLIC NOTICES

Various public notices and advertisements. There are several notices regarding the sale of property. There are also notices regarding the appointment of trustees and other legal matters.

CANDIDATES

Lists of candidates for various offices. There are several candidates for the office of mayor. There are also candidates for the office of sheriff and other positions.

AMUSEMENTS

Theater listings and entertainment news. There are several new plays being produced. There are also listings for the circus and other entertainment events.

SUNDRIES

Small advertisements and notices. There are several small advertisements for various services and products. There are also notices regarding lost items and other matters.

THE DAILY BEE

Friday Morning, June 17, 1916.
Published by G. F. Wilson & Co., 115 N. Poydras St., New Orleans, La.
Subscription rates: $1.00 per month in advance. Single copies, 5 cents.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD

The construction of a National Pacific Railroad has been the subject of much discussion in the past few years. It is now being revived with renewed vigor. The proposed route would connect the Atlantic coast with the Pacific coast, passing through the heart of the continent. It would be a great boon to the country, and it is to be hoped that it will be completed in the near future.

RECEIVED OF THE ARMY

Three days later from Europe. The news of the armistice has been received here with much interest. It is a relief to all who have been suffering from the war. The news is a great blessing to the world.

COMMERCIAL

Market news and commercial reports. The market is generally quiet today. There is a slight improvement in the price of cotton. The price of wheat is also up. The market for sugar is steady.

BY MACHINE TO THE GRAVE

Particulars of the case. A man was killed by a machine. The case is being tried in court today. The man was working in a factory when the accident occurred. He was killed by a moving part of the machine.

PUBLIC NOTICES

Various public notices and advertisements. There are several notices regarding the sale of property. There are also notices regarding the appointment of trustees and other legal matters.

CANDIDATES

Lists of candidates for various offices. There are several candidates for the office of mayor. There are also candidates for the office of sheriff and other positions.

AMUSEMENTS

Theater listings and entertainment news. There are several new plays being produced. There are also listings for the circus and other entertainment events.

SUNDRIES

Small advertisements and notices. There are several small advertisements for various services and products. There are also notices regarding lost items and other matters.