STOCK ON HAND.

[illegible]

SUGAR—The purchases in our market for export since our last, and the sales for consumption, have been of such extent as to cause a material reduction in the stock of this article, and the demand continues active, with a steady tendency to advance. We are not informed of any sales of plantation sugars since our last.

Planters sugars are in limited request, at [illegible] cts., and [illegible] cts. for [illegible] and [illegible] cts. for white.

MOLASSES—The same good demand noticed in our last prices continues. So far the supply is so much reduced, that the sales have not amounted to any large extent. We quote [illegible] to [illegible] cts. per gallon, barrels. No transactions in plantation have transpired since our last.

FLOUR—The market has been active for the demands of consumers, so much so, that the business has been very limited. For shipment, continues small, but prices have slightly receded, and we now place our quotations [illegible] at $5 50 a $5 62½ at $5 62½.

WESTERN PRODUCE—The business in Provisions, [illegible] active, and we are unable to [illegible] in consequence of the demand. Holders however, [illegible] the market is exceedingly affected by the [illegible] Cincinnati, and were it not for the [illegible] of Western [illegible] prices would be much lower than our quotations. The sales [illegible] Mess Pork, $8 75 a $9 00. Bulk Pork, $[illegible] a [illegible]. Prime [illegible] Mess Beef, [illegible] barrels, $6 75 a $7 00. Bulk Beef, $4 50 a [illegible].
