

STEP INTO THE SPOTLIGHT

As a member of the IMC, you receive a number of perks, including but not limited to: networking and promotional opportunities, international exposure, access to restricted content, the ability to earn and spend points, and a reserved spot on IMC-TV and IMC Radio.* Utilize our social network to mingle with other musicians and even prospective clients. And for our members, we have a weekly newsletter which details important updates. It also provides a review of emerging artists within the IMC community.

* Some restrictions apply.

CLAIMING THE AIRWAVES

This service is for independent musicians. All ages and all genres are welcome. We broadcast online 24/7. Use this tool to enhance your fan base and to gain international exposure. Frustrated with hearing the same songs day in and day out? We make it a point to rotate music throughout the week and to introduce new artists regularly. Tune in anytime, day or night, and discover amazingly talented musicians from across the globe. This is your mic. Are you ready to be heard?

BROADCASTING INDIE TALENT

Finally a media outlet for the superstars of independent music. Along with music videos, we air specialized and featured programming. All ages and genres are welcome. IMC-TV is of the indie people and for the indie people. There is no competing with mainstream artists. Broadcasting online 24/7, we make it possible for select artists to achieve widespread exposure and to develop a significantly larger following. Contact us with your show ideas. This is your stage. Are you ready to be seen?

MISSION STATEMENT

It is the goal of the International Music Coalition to promote and support the efforts of independent musicians around the globe. Through a series of multimedia outlets, we provide unique opportunities for exposure to our members. We are a group of musicians, music lovers, and music educators from all walks of life. We strive to acknowledge, accept, and appreciate human diversity.
