TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Rocking and Ventillating Bedstead, or crib with a fan-tester.

The subscriber having obtained a patent for this beautiful and useful article of domestic comfort, begs leave to call the attention of the public to it, confident that it only remains to be seen to be patronized and generally used. It combines the unusual advantages of a common stationary or rocking bedstead or crib for children, and of ventilation by means of a fan-tester.

The advantages to be gained by efficacious ventilation, combined with a healthy action to the recumbent, needs no comment. They have long been recommended by physicians of great eminence—and combine economy, elegance and comfort.

J. R. PUTNAM, DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Ker, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visiters, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his services, should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some by presenting his accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected, that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills. may 29

PARISH COURT,—N. Orleans, May 26th 1834. Present the Hon Charles Maurian, judge.—No. 7465.—Mary Ann High wife of John J Bordier vs. J A Bordier her husband. This cause was this day submitted to the Court on the Record.

G Schmidt Esq for plaintiff
P. Soulé Esq for defendant.

After examination the Court delivered the following opinions, viz:

In this case plaintiff alleges, that immediately after the marriage with J. A. Bordier, the said J A Bordier left her, and went to a house situated in Toulouse street, between Burgundy and Rempart streets, where he committed adultary, and publicly lived with a colored woman, whom he kept as his Concubine, and he left the City of New-Orleans.

The Allegations are supported by the most stradictory testimony of Miss J A Brossard, Samil Hermann and Charlaron, and the plaintiff asks to be separated High her father and Curator ad hoc, prayed that a divorce be granted her in compliance with provisions of the Law passed March 12th 1827.

The Court after carefully having considered the cause and being satisfied with the correctness and truth of the allegations contained in the plaintiffs petition, considering that by the first section of the act above
