DR. J. EVANS'
OLD GALEN'S HEAD DISPENSARY,
No. 12 Peck Slip, New York.

Next door above Water street, on the right hand side going down to the dock.

DR. JOSEPH EVANS' improved and successful mode of practice for the cure and prevention of all delicate diseases, viz:—Syphilis, gonorrhœa, gleet, strictures, mercurial affections and those arising from impurity of the blood, is continued with success (confidentially,) at his dispensary, No. 12 Peck slip, New-York, which has been established upwards of 30 years. Persons laboring under these or any other diseases of a private nature may depend on being cured, if they apply at this dispensary; and that by a course of medicine and treatment at once agreeable, expeditious and efficacious. Those persons who are laboring under the most complicated and virulent form of the disease, should not despair when a cure is within their reach.

☞ Strangers wishing to find this office, must not be led astray by ingenious puffing advertisements, and astonishing lists of cures, (we publish none.) A similarity of names may lead strangers to the wrong place; but a little observation will prevent any mistake. Remember the name is Dr. Joseph Evans, Old Galen's Head Dispensary, No. 12 Peck slip, New-York.

☞ Persons at a distance can have medicines forwarded to them, by describing their case, and enclosing a fee.

No letters taken in unless post paid.

N. B.—Dr. J. E.'s affairs are arranged so as that consultations may be conducted with the utmost privacy

A preventive may be obtained at this office.

No connection with any other office in or out of the city. JOSEPH EVANS, M. D.

Old Galens Head Dispensary, No. 12 Peck slip New-York.

Dr. J. Evans particularly calls the attention of captains of vessels, southern planters and others, to his celebrated MINERVAN BOX, which contains a complete plan of medicine for the interval in all its stages and ingenuating forms. In the box is a book, in which the symptoms and treatment are pointed out with such brevity and accuracy, that any person may become his own physician! No seamen or planter should ever be without one of these boxes.

Price, large box $15; small box $10.

They will be forwarded to any part of the Union. Address, (post of medicine) JOSEPH EVANS, M. D. Old Galen's Head Dispensary, No. 12 Peck slip, New-York. June 11-ly

TO DR. MAGNIN, inventor of the 'Lucina cordial, or Elixir of Love'

"Respected and honored sir.—We have all, in a variety of cases, tested the remarkable effect of your great discovery, and have concluded for the purpose of bearing evidence to the facts, and tendering you the honor which is your due. The "Lucina cordial" is in our opinion, an infallible remedy for the prostration of the procreant functions, and artificial barrenness; and therefore most prove a blessing to the human race. We can also bear evidence that there is nothing in it of a mercurial or deleterious nature; and, in short, that it is one of the noblest medicinal discoveries of any age.

"With feelings of admiration and respect, we remain, dear sir, your obedient servants,

"LE CORDIAL DE LUCINE," or, in English 'the Lucina cordial,' is a general invigorator of the sinews that are employed in the act of love, and debilitation, it is an unfailing remedy; as it is equally its province to impart cheerfulness and decision to the mind, as health and vigor to the body. It is the great secret by which fertility is bestowed, is the fecility and certainty with which it restores the virile powers, when they have been destroyed by diseases, time, recklessness, or any of the numerous causes which terminate in the prostration of those functions.

In common with the generality of really good medicines, this cordial contains nothing of a mercurial or deleterious nature, among the many ingredients which compose it; but it, at the same time, so simple, yet so efficacious, that while it can renovate the prostrated energies of a giant, an infant may use it, not only with impunity, but with advantage.

The usages of society are unfortunately such, that, notwithstanding the benefits which would be sure to result from it, we cannot enter into an analysis of this inestimable cordial here, or publish many of the documents which we have received as vouchers of the blessings it has conferred on numbers of despairing individuals. But this we cannot forbear remarking—that it has been demonstrated that there is scarcely ever, if ever such thing at all, as natural barrenness, or as natural imbecility of the procreant functions, in either sex; and therefore, that those evils are the effects of artificial causes, and may be speedily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucine."

The Lucina cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the flour albus, obstructed, difficult, or painful menstruation; also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of chronic eruptions of the skin, and in the dropsical affections of the aged.

COUNTERFEIT.—The public is respectfully informed that one of the basest and most dangerous counterfeits ever attempted has lately been brought to light in the city of New York; we mean an imitation of that most deservedly popular medicine known "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," for fever and ague.

We had but just put down an imitation called "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," by L. B. Comstock & Co., when a new one, still more dangerous, in the appearance from the store of "Seaman & Brothers," No. 105 Water street, N. Y., in which the fac similes of the proprietor has been counterfeited—his copy rights infringed upon—his certificates copied—and the whole imitated in such a manner, that from its outward appearance, it can scarcely be detected. We would also say, that we have commenced a suit, in the United States court, for the recovery of the above infringed rights, and request dealers to be very careful of whom they purchase the article, unless its source can be directly traced to the proprietor, or some one of his general agents, whom he has appointed for the sale of the article in the several states, and in respect and confidence of the communities in which they reside, and who, we trust, would blush to offer any other than the true and original "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," for the paltry gain of a trivial bonus, thereby endangering the lives of their fellow citizens.

N. B. It is the intention of the proprietor to enforce his legal rights against those who counterfeit this valuable medicine, and spuriously putting forth the proprietor's certificates and labels. jl 3m

HUMAN HAIR.—It is certainly true, although not generally understood, that the roots of the hair always remain in the most abundant profusion, and that there not only grow more roots in the skin of very individual than hairs growing from them, but in the worst cases of baldness, that they neither perish nor are destroyed, and unless by accident or disease, are always found in a healthy state, or destruction as the parts which nourish and sustain them, we maintain that they (the roots) continue vigorous, and are not destroyed, or even injured, when the hair has fallen, from the effects of age, or from premature decay, or in the old or young."—[Extract from S. I. Beals & co's treatise accompanying Beals' hair restorative.

MESSRS. S. I. BEALS & Co. in using those who are told (on any person who may have lost their hair,) to come to their office, 164 Broadway, up stairs, and save their Hair Restorative, applied without charge until the hair is restored.

They further offer to enter into a contract with any party to restore the hair under the penalty of a forfeit of from two to five hundred dollars, said party being found in a like state, to be paid when the hair shall have been restored.

The original certificates of gentlemen of the highest standing in the city, may be seen at the office 164 Broadway, up stairs, opening from the front door. Operations are this evening and will restore the human hair, and if these are not sufficient to satisfy the incredulous of whom there are a great many, on account of the numerous big bugs that have imposed upon the community) ocular demonstrations will be given to those who may call there.

The ladies are respectfully recommended to the use of Beals' Hair Restorative, as it is certainly infallible in producing a luxuriance of new hair where it has ceased from, and in preserving and beautifying that which remains.

Beals' Hair Restorative will keep it in excellent condition, and preserve a full head of hair in health and beauty to the latest period of life. Price $3 per jar. A liberal discount to those who buy to sell.
