LECTURE—Mr. Schoenacker respectfully informs the citizens of New Orleans, that he will commence a course of lectures on the Art of Penmanship, practical and ornamental, at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, on Monday the 7th January next, at 7 o'clock P. M. and will continue every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening, at the same hour, for the term of one month. Terms $10 for the course. Gentlemen who wish to attend the lectures, will please leave their names at the Academy, or at the residence of Mr. Schoenacker, No. 5 Bienville street, between Bourbon and Dauphine streets.

PENMANSHIP, PRACTICAL & ORNAMENTAL, taught at Dalbon's writing academy, at the corner of Canal street and Exchange place. The extensive patronage which their method of teaching writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instruction in the art as well as the practice of writing, has induced them to establish permanent academies in New York, New Orleans and Mobile; and it is their intention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of penmanship, than are afforded by any other institutions in the country. Persons entering one of them, have the privilege of attending either of the others, without extra charge. The ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement given by pupils from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this city, may be seen at any hour of the day.

Gentlemen are taught a free and easy business hand writing, calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to deciphering the hieroglyphical scrawl of most men of business, and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant.

The hours of attendance are so arranged as to suit the convenience of each pupil, and for the accommodation of those whose business does not admit of their taking lessons during the day, there is a night class, commencing at half past 7.

The number of lessons is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain until he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This is the interest of both teacher and pupil.

A liberal deduction in charge is made to families and to classes formed in any part of the city.

Ladies who prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

Diplomas filled and cards and complimentary notes executed in the most tasteful manner.

☞ Dalbeau's "Science of Penmanship," particularly adapted to counters and schools, and calculated for persons of all ages, imparting both ease and freedom not attained by any other method, for sale here. n21

METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 20 LESSONS.—MR. VANNIER, surveyor, former engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished abridged method to teach reading French in 20 lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either by private lessons, or in the public course which takes place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 156 Chartres street, or at 64 St Ann.

The professor will apply the same abreviated method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping, and accounts of all kinds.

DANCING ACADEMY.

NEW METHOD.

J. DEVOTI, for the last two years Professor in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Jefferson and Eaton Free High Colleges, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans that he has opened his course of lessons at madam Lefoy's, no. 80 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville.

He will teach a sequence of gait, the most modern steps, waltzing, the figures of the newest quadrilles, &c. &c.

Three lessons will be given per week—at 4 o'clock P.M. for the ladies, and at 7 o'clock in the evening for gentlemen.

The price will be $8 per month, payable in advance.

Private lessons will be given at the rate of $12 for twelve lessons.

He hopes that all who appreciate the branch of a finished education will continue him their patronage.

Every month, in order to ascertain the progress of the young ladies, a ball will be given in presence of their friends, at the academy.
