The New-Orleans Bee.

No. 913 VOL. IX.—NEW SERIES.
No. XXII.—WHOLE No. 3075.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF GENERAL COUNCIL. .....NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1849.

WAGNE & WEISSE, Proprietors.
No. 92 CHARTRES STREET.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

The Daily Picayune Semi-weekly (one year $10
Courier Daily Paper Semi-weekly (one year .....
Bee Daily Paper Semi-weekly (one year .....$ 00
Each subscription must be paid in advance before he can be allowed to discontinue.

Advertisements—One dollar for every TEN lines for the first insertion, and FIFTY cents for each subsequent one. No Advertisement of less than one dollar in each instance.

Advertisements not specified as to time will be published until ordered, and charged accordingly.

Liberal terms made to Advertisers by the year.

Advertisements must be handed in before 12 o'clock, M., to insure insertion.

☞ The Proprietors of Annual Advertisers is limited to such advertisements strictly within the line of their business, and in extent to one square every other day.

Notice.

No person is authorized to receive for the proprietors of the Bee, but Mr. E. Dufour, our book-keeper, and Messrs. E. Morton Quirk and Belanden, our collectors. MAGNE & WEISSE.

New Orleans 30 April, 1849.

FOR GOVERNOR,
ALEXANDER DECLOUET.

FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR,
DUNCIN F. KENNER.

For Auditor of Public Accounts,
LOUIS BORDELON.

For Congress,
FIRST DISTRICT,
O. P. JACKSON.
SECOND DISTRICT,
CHARLES M. CONRAD.

For the New-Orleans Daily Bee

Friday Morning, June 22, 1849.

Whig Meeting at Lafayette.

We have received the first two numbers of Messrs. Hunt & Sargent's new paper—the Republic. It would be a gratuitous observation to call on our readers that the numbers before us afford indisputable evidence of decided talent in the senior editor, as our sometime townsman and associate, established for himself a reputation which is universally recognized. Mr. Sargent, as one of the editors of the New-Orleans paper, has been favorably known for the spirit, elegance and vigor of his style. Whatsoever, then, may be the principles advocated by the new journal, the public may confidently expect to find them upheld with ability, power, eloquence and ingenuity. We know no principles are we shall best explain when we come to the political exposition which is to form the first number of the Republic.

The editors assume the Hon. Adlson letter of Mr. Taylor as the basis of their political creed. They say:

"Our country has evolved in that important crisis in the administration of Congress [illegible] power. Democratic, conservative, [illegible] the Executive. Whether [illegible] the Constitution of democratic power, and [illegible] to the exercise of power in accordance with the principles and [illegible] the Constitution, and [illegible] the will of the people, as [illegible] the Executive,