NO. 155. STATE PAPER. MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 1, 1833. VOL. VI.

(By authority.)

AN ACT

To incorporate two Rail Road Companies in the Parish of Rapides.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, in General Assembly convened, That there shall be established a Company with a capital of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into two thousand five hundred shares, of one hundred dollars each, for the purpose of establishing a Rail Road from Red River, in the town of Alexandria, to Chenyville, on the Bayou Bœuf, to be called "the Alexandria and Chenyville Rail Road Company," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with all the rights and powers now given by law to private corporations, on the condition and agreement, that the said company shall construct, make, and keep up said Rail Road, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, &c. That subscriptions for the capital stock of said Company, shall be opened on the third Monday of April next, and be kept open every day, Sundays excepted, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two o'clock in the afternoon, for the space of ten days, at the following places, to wit: in the city of New Orleans, under the superintendance of John Linton and Thomas Barrett; in Alexandria, under the superintendance of James Normant, John B. Scott, John Taylor, Wm. R. Leckey, Thomas Culbertson and Richard Winn; and in Chenyville, under the superintendance of William F. Cheney, John Compton and Isham Talbot; and immediately at the expiration of the said ten days, the subscription taken at New Orleans, and at Chenyville, shall be transmitted to the aforesaid superintendants at Alexandria, who shall immediately proceed to take an account of the subscriptions made at the places designated; and if more than the amount of two thousand five hundred shares shall have been subscribed, the said superintendants shall deduct such excess from the largest subscriptions, in such manner as that no subscription shall be reduced in amount while any one remains larger; and in case of such deduction, the said superintendants shall cause lists of such apportioned subscriptions to be made out, that the subscribers may thereby ascertain the number of shares respectively apportioned to them; but in case a less number of shares than two thousand five hundred shall have been subscribed, the books shall remain open until two thousand five hundred shares shall be subscribed, and shall then be closed; and shall be again opened under the superintendance of such persons as may be appointed by the first Board of Directors immediately after their election, at the places designated in the first section, and shall remain open for subscription for such length of time (not less then five days) as the directors may order; and if, at such second opening of the books for subscription, the whole number of shares shall not be taken, the Directors of said Company shall have power to open said books, from time to time, under the superintendance of such persons as they may think proper to appoint, and at such places, and for such length of time, as they may indicate by advertisement, in a public paper printed in Alexandria, if there be one, and if not, in New Orleans, until the whole number of shares shall be subscribed.

SECT. 3. Be it further enacted, &c. That there shall be paid, at the time of subscribing, five dollars on each share subscribed, and the residue thereof shall be paid in such instalments, not exceeding twenty-five dollars on each share, and at such times as may be required by the President and Directors of said Company: provided, that thirty days' notice of such requisition be given, by advertisement in at least one of the papers published in New Orleans, and one published in Alexandria, if there be one; and if any subscriber shall fail or neglect to pay any instalment thus required to be paid, for the period of thirty days next after the same shall be due and payable, the stock on which it is demanded, and the instalments paid thereon, shall be forfeited to the Company, and a new subscription shall be opened to supply such deficient shares.

SECT. 4. Be it further enact d, &c. That there shall be seven directors resident in the senatorial district of Rapides, to conduct the affairs of said Company, each of whom shall be owner of at least ten shares of the stock of said Company, a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business; and the said directors shall elect annually, a President from among themselves, and as often as any vacancy shall occur; and shall fill any vacancy that may take place in their own number.

SECT. 5. Be it further enacted, &c. That so soon as the subscription shall be closed the first time, an election for the first Board shall take place, after twenty days' notice by advertisement as previously directed; that said election shall be held by the superintendants, or a majority of them, named for Alexandria and Chenyville, at Alexandria, where it shall be the duty of said Company to keep an office; and that afterwards, an election shall be held annually, at said office, under the superintendance of such commissioners as the Board may name, for the election of a new Board of Directors.

SECT. 6. Be it further enacted, &c. That in the election of Directors, the stockholders shall be entitled to one vote for each share; provided, that the vote of no stockholder shall exceed one hundred, and which may be given by proxy.

SECT. 7. Be it further enacted, &c. That on the first Monday of May of every second year, a meeting of the stockholders shall be held at the office of the Company in Alexandria, at which meeting, it shall be the duty of the President and Directors of said Company, to exhibit a statement of the affairs of said Company; and it shall be the duty of said President, upon the requisition of five or more stockholders, owning together fifty shares, and stating the object thereof, to call a general meeting of the stockholders of said Company, by public advertisement as heretofore directed, giving at least thirty days' notice of the time of holding the same. And that at any general meeting of the stockholders, a majority in number and amount, may remove from office any President or Director, and may appoint other Directors in their stead; provided, that stockholders may cause themselves to be represented by proxy.

SECT. 8. Be it further enacted, &c. That all elections which, by this act or by the bye-laws of said Company, are fixed on a given day, if not made on such day, may be made at any time that may be fixed by the President and Directors within sixty days thereafter; and that on failure to elect the Directors of said Company on the day fixed, the old Directors shall continue to exercise their functions until an election shall take place.

SECT. 9. Be it further enacted, &c. That the said corporation is hereby vested with all the rights and powers necessary for the construction and repair of a Rail Road from Red River, at Alexandria, to Chenyville, not exceeding eighty feet in width, with as many tracks as said Company may deem necessary; and they, or their agents, may enter upon, use, and excavate, any land which may be wanted for the scite of said Road, or for any purpose necessarily connected therewith, or its making, use or repair; and it is stipulated and agreed, that for and during the term of fifty years from and after the passing of this act, said corporation shall have the exclusive right and privilege of constructing and using a Rail Road leading from Alexandria to Chenyville, or any part of the distance between those places, or from any point on the Bayou Bœuf, north of Chenyville, to the Red River. And if the said Rail Road shall not be commenced in one year from the passage of this act, and finished in five years from the passage of the same, the privilege herein accorded shall be null and void.

SECT. 10. Be it further enacted, &c. That the said corporation shall have and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and powers, and shall be subject to all the restrictions, duties and penalties, or so much thereof as may be applicable in the present case and not contrary to, or inconsistent with this act, that are set forth and stipulated in the seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, and eleventh, sections of the act entitled "an Act to incorporate the Ponchartrain Rail Road Company," approved the twentieth January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, substituting the Judge of the District and Parish Court in and for the Parish of Rapides, for the Judge of the First District and Parish Court for the City and Parish of New Orleans, and the attorney of the Sixth District for the attorney-general, in the seventh section of the before recited act.

SECT. 11. Be it further enacted, &c. That said Company shall be entitled to charge and receive such rates for transportation on said Rail Road, as may be fixed by the President and Directors of said Company; provided, that the same shall not exceed one dollar for each passenger for the whole length of the Road, and at the same rate, proportioned to the distance, for any distance short of the whole length of said Road, until the passage be reduced to twenty five cents, for less than which sum said Company shall not be required to charge for any distance; seventy-five cents for each bale of cotton the whole length of said Rail Road, and at that rate for any shorter distance, until the same shall be reduced to twenty-five cents, below which said Company shall not be required to reduce its charges; one dollar and fifty cents for each hogshead of sugar, graduated by the scale in relation to passage and cotton; fifty cents for each barrel, graduated by said scale—and for all freight not specifically enumerated, the charge on the transportation to Chenyville and intermediate places, shall be graduated by the freight on the barrel, and to Alexandria and intermediate places, by the freight on the bale of cotton.

SECT. 12. Be it further enacted, &c. That it shall be the duty of the civil engineer of the State, if required by the Company, to survey and lay out the said Rail Road, and give such superintendance in regard to the work, as may not be incompatible with his duties as a public officer.

SECT. 13. Be it further enacted, &c. That in case the said Rail Road shall take up, or run upon, the whole or any part of a public road, the said Company shall be bound to lay out and construct such a new public road as may be judged by the police jury to be equally as good and convenient as the road so taken up and run upon; and that if said Road should, in its route, cross any public road, it shall be the duty of said Company to provide the necessary means of enabling the citizens to enjoy the free use of such public road, under the direction of the police jury.

SECT. 14. Be it further enacted, &c. That there shall be established a Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into shares of fifty dollars each, for the purpose of constructing a Rail Road from the Red River, at the mouth of the Bayou Rapides, and on the south side of said Bayou, to the bend in the same near the centre of Franklin port and Land; which Company shall be denominated "The Rapides Rail Road Company," and shall have and exercise all the powers and privileges, which have been accorded to the Alexandria and Chenyville Rail Road Company, within the territory over which it is contemplated for said Road to run; and shall be subject to all the obligations imposed on the said Alexandria and Chenyville Rail Road Company, subject to the exceptions hereinafter made.

SECT. 15. Be it further enacted, &c. That the commissioners named for Alexandria in the Alexandria and Chenyville Rail Road Company, shall open books for subscription to the Rapides Rail Road stock, at the same time and place as contemplated for the Alexandria and Chenyville Company, and that in all things save that this Company shall be governed by five instead of seven Directors, and may charge and receive the following rates of toll:—for passage, twenty-five cents; bale of cotton, twenty-five cents; hogshead of sugar, thirty-seven and a half cents; barrel, twelve and a half cents; and for all unenumerated articles, a toll to be graduated by a scale taking a barrel measure as the basis—excepting as relates to the provisions contained in the twelfth section—the principles of the charter of said Alexandria and Chenyville Rail Road Company, shall be applicable to this.

SECT. 16. And be it further enacted, &c. That said Company shall also have the right to make, and put in complete order, a road to run parallel with said Rail Road, and not more than fifty feet therefrom, for the use of private carriages and single horsemen, and that said Company shall have a right to charge and receive the following rates of toll for passage on said road: for a four wheel carriage, twenty-five cents; a two wheel carriage, twelve and a half cents; and a man and horse, six and a quarter cents.

(Signed) ALCEE LABRANCHE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(Signed) C. DERBIGNY,
President of the Senate.

Approved March 16, 1833.

NOTICE

WHEREAS Louis Bugnieres, sheriff of the parish of St Bernard, has applied to me for the cancelling of a bond of eight thousand two hundred and four dollars and seventy cents, subscribed by him on the 13th day of February 1829, as sheriff and collector of the taxes for the year 1828, jointly with Antoine Bienvenu and Pierre Lacoste, his securities; also, for the cancelling of the four following mortgages, to wit: The first of six thousand four hundred and sixteen dollars thirty-three cents, given by him as sheriff and collector of taxes for the year 1828, on the 5th day of May, 1830, before Louis J. Caire, Notary Public, on a lot of ground, situated three miles above New Orleans, in the parish of St Bernard, bounded below and in the rear, by the plantation of Mrs Langville Freres, and above, by the property of A L Bonnare, measuring two hundred feet front to the river, on one thousand in depth, and on the four following slaves, named Milly, Andrew, Lucrece, and Jerry. The second of six thousand five hundred and sixty two dollars forty-one cents, given by him as sheriff and collector of the 12th day of January 1831, as sheriff and collector of taxes for the year 1830, on the same lot of ground and slaves aforesaid. The third of five thousand four hundred and ten dollars and ninety-six cents, given by him on the 5th day of January, 1832, as sheriff and collector of taxes for the year 1831, on the said lot of ground and slaves aforesaid; and the fourth of five thousand ninety seven dollars and ninety cents, given by him on the 10th day of January 1833, as sheriff and collector of taxes for the year 1832, on the same lot of ground and slaves aforesaid.

These are to give notice to all persons interested to show cause in writing at the office of the recorder of mortgages in this city, within ninety days after the last publication of this notice, why the said bond and special mortgages should not be cancelled, raised, and annulled.

Given under my hand and the seal of the state, at New Orleans, on this 28th day of March 1833, and in the [L. S.] year of the Independence of the United States, the fifty-seventh.

A B ROMAN.

By the governor,
GEORGE EUSTIS, Sec. of State.

GREATEST LUCK EVER KNOWN IN NEW ORLEANS!

3—9—56, Capital of $12,000, and
3—9—57, Capital of $1,000, were both sold at my office, in the Public Road Lottery, class G2, and have been cashed; for the fact of which I refer to the manager. This is a proof of two things: first, that AYERS is the lucky man, and second, that he cashes prizes on presentation. There will be lotteries drawn every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, during the season. Capital prizes will be $20,000, $16,000, $12,000; $1,000, &c. Tickets $4, halves $2, quarters $1; shares No. 40, Old Levee, near the Blue Stores. Don't forget the No. 40. m 16
