CONVICTED AT LAST.—At the third trial of the Italian Cancemi, for the murder of ANDERSON, the policeman, the jury, after being locked up for one night, came into Court with a verdict of guilty. There is a prospect, therefore, that this miscreant will receive his deserts.

MOUNT VESUVIUS.—The last European accounts bring news of the eruption of Mount Vesuvius to the 26th ult. It was then more threatening than ever. Liquid fire (it is stated) was pouring from several craters at once, and the entire valley at the foot of the mountain was a mass of flames. The village lagora were dying in all directions. The destruction of the town of Portici was apprehended.

FRENCH FRIGATES.—In the reports of the foreign news by the steamer Vanderbilt, we find the following very significant paragraph:

The Times' Paris correspondent states that the commercial and financial condition of France continues very unsatisfactory. The improvement in the provinces is not a complete-ly subsided, and in almost all the markets produce has declined.

A serious degree of alarm is felt in Paris at the proportions now assumed by the quarrel between the military and civilians. At the military entertainments of Hyeres and his second, the toast, "to the total annihilation of journalism and journalists throughout Europe," was drunk.

Several hundred students have sent a round robin to Figaro and other newspapers conveying a challenge to the subaltern officers of the army. The authorities have interfered. The Figaro has been sold for £4000.

The Herald's Paris correspondent says: "A kind of modified uneasiness and feverish agitation prevails throughout the country. A war with Austria is talked of as imminent, and in popularity it would be second only to a war with England."

It is singular enough what unexpected channels important intelligence frequently-ooses out into the public stock of information. There was a meeting of Mexican bondholders in London, some three weeks ago, at which resolutions were unanimously passed, condemning the conduct of the Mexican authorities, and calling upon the English government to interfere in behalf of the creditors to whom no payment had been made for two years and a half, though the arrears of interest are $5,000,000. At the same meeting, (says the Times) "a resolution in favor of General Houston's motion in the United States Senate for a committee to report on the expediency of a protectorate over Mexico, met with general approval, and a bondholder present stated that it had been told by the American President, Mr. Buchanan, himself, that Mexico must inevitably belong to the Union." The name of this communicative bondholder is not given.—Philadelphia Press.

[From the London Times, (City Article) June 8.]

Although the intelligence from New York by the Persia was not calculated to cause any increased disquiet regarding the prospects of the Union, there was the tone of the most respectable journals being conciliatory, and the American public having already discovered that many of the alleged outrages were simply the fabrications of speculators, the English funds fell one-eighth, but rallied again.

[From the London Times (editorial) of June 8.]

The treaties both with France and America have expired, and it is madness for us to go on asserting pretensions to which no strong and independent power is likely to submit. The good done by the searches of foreign vessels is as nothing, compared with the bad blood they cause, and though the so called "outrages" of the British cruisers have been, no doubt, exaggerated by political and commercial speculators, enough is known to prove that the practice of searching vessels under the American flag ought to be brought at once to an end.

This is manly and independent talk. When the London Times uses such language we may be sure that the British government will concede much, rather than provoke a collision.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS.—The De Soto (La.) Columbian has the following:

The weather during the past week has been extremely nonsuitish.—Sometimes cold mornings and warm evenings, sometimes cold evenings and warm mornings, sometimes both, sometimes neither, and the last day or two have been warm and showery. Crops are doing moderately well, and grass seems particularly flourishing, corn is tasseling and silking, and cotton generally beginning to blossom.

PROFESSOR AGASSIZ.—It seems from a statement in the Athenæum that "after all, and in spite of his many former refusals, Professor Agassiz, of Boston, will be won over for the directorship of the Museum of Natural History of the Jardin des Plantes, at Paris. It appears to be a favorite wish of the Emperor Napoleon to draw that celebrated naturalist, whose personal acquaintance he made in Switzerland, to Paris. Agassiz has been offered a salary of 32,000 francs, and the Imperial Senatorship, which brings another 30,000 by succession, and at last he has consented to go over to Paris for a verbal and personal negotiation."—N. Y. Com. Adv.

GOLD—SOMEW.—We had an interesting conversation with Major Steele, from Fort Belknap, during his few days' stay in this city. He informs us that he was present at the addition of the State of Sonora, Mexico, and was advised there of the amount of precious metals mined there during the past year. He expresses the opinion that Sonora is the most prolific of gold and silver than California, and, if a territory of the United States, would yield $10,000,000 annually. He says he has seen single lumps of gold taken from the mines there worth $1,000 to $5000. He likewise informed us that he had seen a specimen of silver in bars, and all mined without machinery.—Santa Fe Gazette.

Capt. Marcy lost ten mules and a large number of sheep in a terrible snow storm on the 12th of April, between the Arkansas and Platte rivers.

Six of Col. Loring's men were frozen to death in the severe snow storm of the 29th of April.

McNally's and Alexander's command lost many of their cattle and sheep; the latter was obliged to abandon his wagons on the road, the great depth of the snow rendering it impossible to get them through.

NEW MEXICAN MINING COMPANY.

The New Mexican Mining Company is now fully organized and ready to commence operations.

The St. Louis Republican has received dates from Camp Scott to the 5th instant, by the Salt Lake mail.

The mail party encountered a severe snow storm, which continued for three days. They met Colonel Hoffman about twenty miles from Camp Scott, and Captain Marcy fifty miles from the camp.

General Johnston intended to proceed to Salt Lake City as soon as Captain Marcy and Colonel Hoffman arrived.

Southern Pacific Railroad.

The Marshall (Texas) Republican, of the 18th, has a long article on the affairs of the unfortunate company, from which we extract the following:

On Sunday last, Messrs. J. Fowlkes, G. S. Todd, Thomas R. Lincoln, D. C. Wilder, Thos. H. Wiley, Wm. H. Street, &c., President, Directors and officers, lately elected in New Orleans by the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Railroad, arrived in this place, with the books and papers, and have opened an office here in compliance with the law of the last Legislature. We learn from these gentlemen that over two-thirds of the stock was represented at the meeting in New Orleans, and that the greatest unanimity of sentiment and feeling prevailed. Resolutions were passed denouncing the late sale under the deed of trust as fraudulent and void, an abandonment of money was promptly raised to vindicate their rights, and a firm determination expressed to prosecute the matter to its consummation.

Such is the statement we have received, not only from these gentlemen, but from other sources of respectability. We are not at all surprised at it. It was not to be expected that the thousands of bona fide stockholders scattered over the Union, who had invested their money in this enterprise in good faith, would quietly submit to have their interests sold out in this summary manner, without a struggle.

We have the extraordinary spectacle presented of two hostile railroad companies, fully organized, asserting their claims to the franchise, privileges and property of this corporation with the strongest bodies there and the public who have been looking with some degree of hope to the accomplishment of this great work, of a long, dreary, and ruinous law suit. Its effects if is not difficult to foresee. Both companies will be crushed in the struggle; the prospect of a railroad to the Pacific through Texas will be abandoned, and we will be left hopelessly without commercial facilities, for no other company can be chartered while the present Southern Pacific charter holds the right of way.

It is worse than idle to say that the public have no interest in this matter. It was their money and their land, munificently bestowed by their government and their agents, that by which they hoped to construct their public work, and the mention of mere personal speculation and cupidity should be permitted to defeat their just expectations.

A duel was fought in Mississippi last week by Mr. T. Knot and Mr. A. W. Shott. The result was that Knot was shot, and Shott was not.—Charleston Mercury.

OPEN INTELLIGENCE.

THE WEATHER.—Smiles and tears have alternated upon the face of nature every day regularly for a week past. In spite of the showers, however, the week has been delightfully hot and oppressive. So persistent does the clerk of the weather seem to be in this arrangement of the weather, that one ago is wise enough to predict when he will change his programme and give us dealer cities and a luxurious-headed atmosphere.

A CHEERFUL TREE.—"Mine host" Krost and his lager-beer saloon, on Conti street, are both very good institutions," as a party of members of the "fourth estate" had the pleasure of proving, to their abundant satisfaction, on Saturday evening last—agreeably to his invitation. His hospitality was not, however, limited to "lager"—but extended to sundry and several bottles of "both sides" and Limbrancesmidh, all of which seemed literally for a couple of hours, and seemed to be as sorry for the time all thoughts of them were obliterated. Command us to Krost and his "lager" recollections, and at the same time we commend others to an acquaintance with him and his institution.

THE GOOD SAMARITANS.—This association held a meeting at its Council Chambers last evening, and elected officers for the ensuing year, as follows: John Kelland, Esq., President; W. C. Bries, Esq., Vice-President; Treasurer, the Honorable Gerard Stith, Mayor; Medical Advisers, Doctors Stone, Cartwright, McFarland, Fenner, Riddell, Barton, Ritchie, Bertrand, Mortier, Wedderstrand, Leonard, David, Lalestat and Wetherall.

Doctor James Sinclair was unanimously elected Corresponding Secretary, and Hon. Hardesh as Matron Nurse of "the Samaritan Sisters."

Gilles, 140 Magazine street, opposite the Carrollton railroad depot, at Dr. Sinclair's dispensary, where all applications for nurses, in or out of the city, must be made.

MEXICO.—Wm. Deshon, clerk on vapeshoreman in O'Brien's produce store on Tchoupitoulas street, was killed yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, at the corner of Julia street, by the proprietor of the Shoreman's Coffee House, at that corner. From Lieutenant Dryden we learn the following particulars of the affair:

Deshon, in company with a young man named Gaskris and another, went into a house, near Duffy's, when the latter began to chaff Gaskris, stepped into Duffy's and asked him, with a polite bow, if he chose to replied by knocking Gaskris down. Deshon, at that moment, stepped into the street and Felicity road, by Michael Duffy, the proprietor of the Shoreman's Coffee House, at that moment, and struck him a blow with a club on the back of the head and felled him to the floor. As he recovered himself, he drew a knife and threw it in the direction the blow came from, striking Mrs. Duffy on the head. Seeing it was a woman he had struck, Deshon made for the door, but was followed by Duffy, who overtook him on the banquette and stabbed him three times in the breast and neck. Deshon attempted then to walk across the street, but dropped dead before he got more than half way. Duffy, after the affair, was bound over by some of Duffy's friends, but he died in a short time a number of the police were on the spot. Duffy was not to be seen, until, after thoroughly searching the house in the vicinity, he was found concealed in a bed in the upper story, and arrested by officer Unes and two other persons. He was brought to the upper lock-up, with his bar-keeper and many others who were arrested as witnesses. They will be brought before Recorder Summers to-day.

A BOY DARKMOUGHLY SHOT.—A boy named John Segree was shot yesterday in the mouth by another named Thomas Long. The affair occurred near the Jackson railroad depot, and so close were the two together that the ball went entirely through Segree's head, and the blood spattered Long's shirt bosom. We could not learn that the quarrel was any thing more than a boyish one; and it is to be hoped that the two thoughtless boys of New Orleans are becoming so much used to shooting, as ready to use knife and pistol as men. The wounded youth was conveyed to the Charity Hospital in a dying condition, and Long was arrested by officer Thorpe.

SERIOUS AFFAIR.—Joseph D. Gibson was sent to prison by Recorder Adams on Saturday, to await examination on the charge of having severely wounded Louis Gimbell, by cutting him in the head with a knife, while behind the Navarre market, on Friday night. We learn from a resident in the vicinity that Gibson found Gimbell and another upon the fire stand, which was attended at the time by a small girl in the market, and after demolishing the stand by fire, he undertook the same task at Gimbell's cookshop. Gimbell objected and cut him with a knife several times in the neck.

Since then we learn that the complainant was also fined and bound over, to make the correction to do justice to all concerned.

Daniel Block and wife were on Saturday held to answer on charge of having stolen $100 worth of furniture apparel from the room of Martha Ann Green, f. w. c., at the corner of Bienville and Burgundy, by the warrant, it was alleged, sewed a portion of the clothing on the premises of the accused.

RECORDER LOEB'S COURT.—Anthony Hauser, charged with having severely beat Mary Wagner, and with cutting her in the arm with a knife; Jean Baptiste Miller, f. m. c., charged with assaulting Jean Belair, f. m. c., with a knife, and also threatening to kill him; and Patrick Donnelly, charged with furiously assaulting and beating Wm. Ferry, were all held to answer. Agnes Davis gave bail to answer the charge of having stolen some lumber from Thomas Hines, on Magazine street.

RECORDER ADAMS'S COURT.—Mr. Patrick was fined $10 for contempt of Court on Saturday. John Dougherty was bound over to keep the peace, and fined $10 besides, for having assaulted and beat Mr. Patrick Duffy on the head. Seeing it was a woman he had struck, Deshon made for the door, but was followed by Duffy, who overtook him on the banquette and stabbed him three times in the breast and neck. Deshon attempted then to walk across the street, but dropped dead before he got more than half way. Duffy, after the affair, was bound over by some of Duffy's friends, but he died in a short time a number of the police were on the spot. Duffy was not to be seen, until, after thoroughly searching the house in the vicinity, he was found concealed in a bed in the upper story, and arrested by officer Unes and two other persons. He was brought to the upper lock-up, with his bar-keeper and many others who were arrested as witnesses. They will be brought before Recorder Summers to-day.

MURDER TRIAL AT CASSOLATON.—The case of J. G. Wilson, S. Holcombe, John McIntyre and Cornelius McGregor, charged with the murder of S. Simmons, on the evening preceding the late election at Carrollton, came up before Judge Barthe on Saturday. Wilson and Holcombe were acquitted, and the Court set aside the proceedings as to McIntyre and McGregor—ordering the District Attorney to bring in new indictments against them.

HABEAS CORPUS CASE.—Recorder Long, of the Third District, was on Saturday directed by the Sixth District Court to show cause for having committed Gleason to prison, for refusing to pay $5 and costs imposed for contempt of court. The cause then his refusal to go to see the Recorder. His refusal was because he had been badly beaten by the third mate, who is a negro, and because he fears that his life will be taken on board. He represents that most of the crew are negroes.

ARREST.—On Saturday evening arrests were made of the following parties:

Frank Francois, for having in his possession some revolvers, table spoons, &c., supposed to be stolen from a box of goods shipped to Sylvie & Goudeau per the Calhoun; Wm. Wesen, C. A. Hoffmeyer and John Mahaun were also arrested as participe criminis in the robbery.

John Longbeene and Pierre Rodrigues were arrested for having stolen horses in their possession.

John Nash, for assaulting with an axe an officer who was trying to arrest him, was locked up; also Estelle Larette, charged with larceny.

Several negroes, suspected of being runaways, were taken up by special officer ——.

ASSAULTS WITH PISTOLS.—Thos. Whalen was assaulting John Schroeder with a pistol with intent to kill, on Bourbon street, and upon Schroeder's father, a citizen coming towards the fracas, Whalen presented the pistol at him. Hickey, on Frederic street, were arrested at a late hour on Saturday night.

CONSOLIDATED AND HAINSWORTH & RENAWAY.—Wm. O'Neal and Jas. Hainsworth were arrested, on Saturday evening, by officer Hickey, on Bourbon street, charged with stealing a gold watch, the property of Mr. Hickey, on Frederic street, were arrested at a late hour on Saturday night.
