hers of the legislature. The opposing candidas wa of high talent and gifted with the attributes the contest for governor, no reasonable doubt car fact, has been, in a great measure, neutral zed by his factious course during his executive term. His oppofactions conrecturing his executive term. It is oppo-nent, Mr. Juses, is a gentl-man of much worth, of equal ability, a practised debater, who enters the arena fearlessly with the redoubted champion-himself, and fine whig party, and will pull every vote they have

were this a mere ordinary party strugges, with no therior object, it would require little comment. But upon the legislature to be chosen in August depends he election of two United States senators. Hence it oware of it, that their enorts are concemirated upon carrying the tegeslature. The governor's election is mercis a nominal contest. The intrigue, the under is no game, the caosining, are an integration of are in the choice of members of the legislature, and are employed with untiring z-al by the opposition. In the outstful counties they will fight the battle with uper unpled vigor and ferocity. In these sounties the have sought by every inaginable species of trick an to beneat them, if already existing. Nothing can ex-tend the dexterity with which these practised political gladiators have attempted to play off the whig- against each other.
