THE BILL
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1828.

STATE LEGISLATURE, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. (Sitting on Monday, December 1, 1828.)
Mr. Maurian, a member just arrived was sworn in and took his seat in the house.

A member from East Baton-Rouge, made a report in the name of the committee named to examine the regulations of the house : he requested that said report might be laid on the table till to-morrow, which request was accorded.

The committee to whom had been referred that part of the Governor's message as relates to the boundary line between Louisiana and the Territory of Arkansas, made its report. The committee recommended that, as the proper mode of procedure, the Governor should name a commissioner to act conjointly with one to be named by the General Government, whose duty it should be to proceed to the place and determine the matter to the best interests of the parties concerned : second reading for to-morrow.

A member from East Baton-Rouge, introduced a bill authorising the trustees of the Catholic church of St. Joseph (in said parish of East Baton-Rouge,) to obtain a certain sum of money by means of a Lottery : second reading for to-morrow.

A member from St. Landry, introduced two bills, the first proposing the creation of a new Electoral District in the parish which he represents : second reading for to-morrow.

The second, a bill relating to the forming of a separate militia battalion in the same parish.

The Committee on Election reported as duly elected Mr. V. Patis of East Baton Rouge, and Mr. Edwards of St. Tamary : this report was adopted.

Mr. Johnson having obtained leave to withdraw his resolution concerning the election of Mr. Lalonde, the report of the committee on said subject was laid before the House, but at a request of Mr. Waggaman its discussion was deferred until to-morrow.

The bill concerning the introduction of Slaves into this State was, after some discussion between Messrs. Waggaman, Johnson and Maurian, referred to a special committee composed of Messrs. E. Ducros, Johnson & Maurian.

A message from the Senate introduced the House of their concurrence in the act to dispense J. Nathaniel Evans with the time prescribed by law to obtain the age of majority.

An act for the aid of H. S. How (formerly sheriff of St. Landry,) and his securities was after a long discussion adopted with some amendments.

Sitting of Tuesday, Dec. 2, 1828.
A member from East Baton-Rouge, presented a petition to dispense a minor from the time prescribed by law for obtaining the age of majority : referred to a committee of Messrs. Lawrence, L. B. Thibodeau and Strickland.

A member from St. Landry, presented a petition of the same nature for J. C. V. land, referred to a committee composed of Messrs. Wikoff, Hebert and Greene.

A member from St. Helena, gave notice that he will shortly introduce a bill concerning the elections in said parish.

Mr. Maurian presented a petition from Eugene Prseau, widow of Joseph Savary, praying that the annuity accorded by the State to her husband, be continued in her favour : referred to a committee composed of Messrs. Maurian, Alexander and Binveno.

The act concerning the boundary line between Louisiana and Arkansas (the report was read for the second time) was read for to-morrow.

The act granting to the trustees of the Catholic church of St. Joseph permission to obtain a certain sum of money for the use of said church, was read for the 3d time—3d reading to-morrow.

The act concerning the establishment of a new electoral district in the parish of St. Landry was read for the 2d time—2d reading to-morrow.

that he was detained several days in the Channel, by severe gales, and having a number of stowage passengers on board he put into Cork for provisions. He left that port on the evening of the 12th of October, and brings Cork papers of the 17th, and has politely favored us with a Cork Reporter of that date. At the time he sailed, the feelings of the people were very highly excited, and the Catholics generally ripe for insurrection.—He also states, that discontent was much increased by the arrest of Admiral Codrington to answer for the Navarino engagement. Two thousand troops were ordered to march from Waterford to Cork. Mr. O'Connell enjoys the highest degree of popularity. The crops were reported to be good, but beef and pork had risen one third in price.

The Reporter contains the proceedings of the public dinner given to Mr. Peel at Manchester, on the 6th. The article is headed, "Defection of Mr. Peel from the ascendancy party."

A very crowded assembly of Members of the Catholic Association took place in Dublin on the 10th of October. The annual letter from Mr. O'Connell was read, and Mr. Lawless and several other gentlemen addressed the meeting with much warmth.

The following letter from Daniel O'Connell, Esq. M. P. to N. P. O'Gorman, Esq. was read, and ordered to be inserted on the minutes :—

DARRIFANE ABBEY, Oct. 1, 1828.
My Dear O'Gorman—I had the pleasure of receiving your letter, by the last post, containing the resolution of the Catholic Association of Ireland, expressive of the wish of that body, that I should draw up an address to the people of the County of Tipperary, in order to induce them to desist from holding large meetings.

I beg you will be so good as to communicate to the Association, that I feel greatly honoured by that patriotic and illustrious body making any demand on my time of exertions. I consider their request as a command, and am willing to devote the best energies of my frame, and all the faculties of my mind, to the performance of any duty with which they may honor me.

I have, accordingly, prepared the draft of an address to the people of Tipperary, and transmit it along with this letter. I have been anxious to fulfil the intentions of the Association: if I shall succeed, the merits of my attempt will rest with that body; if I fail, the fault will be solely mine—nor will the Association be involved in the guilt of any expressions of mine. I am solely responsible for the sentiments contained in my address. I am quite convinced, however, that the people of Tipperary will desist from holding large meetings the moment they learn that such meetings do not any longer obtain the approbation of the Catholic Association.

The people of Tipperary must be too well acquainted with the patriotism and intelligence of the Catholic Association of Ireland, not to place the most explicit confidence in that body; they certainly will comply with our request. We will thus protest and preserve the people from going further than they would themselves wish and from uselessly risking the public peace, and putting in danger the approaching success and triumph of the Catholic cause. I am, I repeat, quite convinced that there will be no more of these meetings; but if there should, we must then denounce to all honest men, and to the condemnation of the patriotic and intelligent portion of the Irish people, the guilt and folly of despising our advice and rejecting our counsel—but no, it will be quite unnecessary, and these meetings, which we now condemn, will certainly cease.

I have the honour to be, my dear O'Gorman,
Your very faithful and sincere friend,
DANIEL O'CONNELL.
N. P. O'Gorman, Esq. Secretary to the Catholics of Ireland.

Troops for the North.—We understand that two steam-packets were detained in Liverpool, on Monday, to convey troops to Belfast—a point not, as we should suppose, exactly in the direct route from Liverpool to Tipperary.—Dublin Register, Oct. 10.

La Plata.—The condition of the Provinces of La Plata at the present moment, compared with that of their sister republics in South America, is advantageous indeed, particularly when we recollect their relative prospects as they appeared a short time ago. After the Spanish power had been finally crushed in Peru and Chili, and the west, as well as the north had submitted to the patriots, it was hoped that the three states would pursue a firm, united and rapid march for the acquisition of political and intellectual improvement and power. Without recapitulating the events which have since transpired, but which are at once interesting and monitory to those states and all other republics, it is only necessary to glance at the state of discord and opposition which unhappily prevails between Colombia, Peru and Bolivia. Those extensive and fertile regions, which but lately seemed ready to set their enemies at defiance, and which would probably have presented a powerful front if an invasion had been attempted before internal dissensions had time to spring up, are now threatening to employ their forces against each other; while La Plata, after a long and powerful struggle against a foreign enemy, is seen emerging from her trials with untarnished honour, confirmed credit, and prepared to enter the career of commercial enterprise and internal improvement, with every probability of success.—N. Y. Daily Adv.

[From the N. Y. Statesman, Nov. 6.]
The Carraboo.—The facts connected with the capture of the CARRABOO, and the execution at St. Kitts of twenty-eight of the crew of the piratical vessel, must be fresh in the recollection of our readers. It was the general opinion that the crew and passengers of the Carraboo, together with those of a French brig, captured by the same privateer, which were put into an open boat at sea, had all been drowned. It gives us much pleasure to say, that these forebodings have not been realized, as will be seen by the following extract from the Liverpool Mercury of the 29th of August. After mentioning the capture of the Carraboo, the editor says :—

"The captain and crew, consisting of 14 persons, in which were included Mr. Tyleur and Mr. Pearson, passengers, were hurried on board the schooner, and locked in the hold, the captain and the two passengers being, however, allowed to come on the deck a few hours daily. They were confined in this way until the 23d, when, at about six or seven miles from the Island of Lanzarote, they were all put hastily in the jolly-boat of the Carraboo, with six others, who formed part of the crew of a French vessel, which had been previously taken by the privateer. They were seen from the town of Lanzarote, and two boats put off to tow them into port, whence they took passage to Santa Cruz, with the exception of Mr. Tyleur, who has since arrived in Liverpool. It was said that the Carraboo was scized because she was bound for a Brazilian port, and that she was sent to San Blas, a Buenos Ayres port on the Coast of Patagonia; but there is every reason to believe that the schooner was a pirate. She was of about ninety tons burthen, with a crew of about thirty men, the full compliment being stated sixty. The captain informed Mr. Tyleur that there were six or seven of the same kind of vessels cruising about. The Carraboo, we are informed, was insured for about 30,000l. about 15,000l. to 16,000l. being effected in Liverpool.
