SALES AT AUCTION.

BY ISAAC L. M'COY.
ON Saturday the 21st January next, at 12 o'clock at the Exchange Coffee House, will be sold, if not previously disposed of at private sale, a VALUABLE PLANTATION, together with all the Buildings and improvements, Stock, Farming Utensils, & Slaves thereon. Said plantation is situated at the English Turn about six leagues below New Orleans, on the same side of the river, and bounded on one side by the plantation of Mr. Morgan, and on the other, by that of Mr. A. Sautage, and measures 24 arpents front on the Mississippi by 10 arpents in depth, narrowing in the rear to 6 arpents, containing in all 465 superficial arpents, 350 of which are first rate sugar land, and 100 arpent under cultivation, the residue is composed of good woodland except about 15 arpents of high prairie.
This plantation is surrounded on three sides by a canal and has another through the center, and such is the elevation of the ground that it escaped inundation during the severe gales of August last. There is enough of plant cane saved, it is believed to plant 100 arpents. The improvements consist of a good comfortable Dwelling House, a sugar house of 55 feet square, a good Cattle Mill, a set of Kettles in good order, a brick Distillery, of a most improved construction, capable of distilling 70,000 gallons of Rum annually; there also are 20 Prime acclimated Slaves
18 American Horses
6 Yoke of Creole Oxen
7 Cows and a number of young Cattle and Sheep, farming utensils &c. The land is well drained, and with an addition of 15 more hands the plantation would it be believed, readily yield 200 hhd of sugar the next season, the levee in front is small, and its situation renders it less liable to be affected by frost than most other places. Persons wishing to purchase at private sale will please apply to N. Morse Esq. or to the above named Auctioneer, who will give every information necessary as to prices, terms, &c.
