BY AUTHORITY.
AN ACT,
To incorporate the Springfield and Liberty Rail Road Company.

Section 1st. Be it enacted by the senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in general assembly convened, That Thomas Green Davidson, Thomas Kennedy, Sylvester G. Parsons, Burlin Childress, Wm. L. Breedy, Geo. Richardson, David H. Gillespie, Abel Bartlett, James H. Harvey, John Kolloch, Reibury Kemp, Micajah Harris, Presley Stephenson, or any one or more of them, and such persons as may be joined or associated with them, their successors and assigns shall constitute a body corporate, and are hereby incorporated under the name of "The Springfield and Liberty Rail Road Company," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall have the power and rights now given by laws to private corporations on condition that said company shall construct said road in the manner herein after described.

Sec. 2d. Be it further enacted, etc: That the capital stock of said company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and if that amount should be deemed insufficient for the purposes of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors of said company to increase the said capital stock by the addition of as many shares as may be necessary, provided that the whole amount of the capital stock shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars, which shares shall be of the amount of one hundred dollars each, and shall be subscribed for in such manner as their shall prescribe, or the President and Directors of said company may sell the same for the benefit of said company at any price not under their par value.

Sec. 3d. Be it further enacted, etc: That the capital stock of said company shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and it shall be the duty of the President and Directors of said company, to open books and receive subscriptions therefor after having given fifteen days notice of the time and place of opening the same, and said books shall be kept open for at least ten consecutive days, (Sundays excepted) and in such places and under the direction of such Commissioners as the President and Directors of the said company for the time being may designate, and at the expiration of the said period the amount of the said capital stock shall not have been subscribed for, the President and Directors of said company may cause the books to be opened for subscriptions at such other time and places as they may deem proper, and if more than the amount of the capital stock of said company shall have been subscribed for, the said President and Directors shall reduce such subscriptions in a manner that none shall be reduced while any remains larger in amount.

Sec. 4th, Be it further enacted, etc: That there shall be paid at the time of subscribing five dollars on each and every share subscribed for, and the residue shall be paid in such instalments and at such times as may be required by the President and Directors of said company. Provided that not more than five dollars on the share shall be called for at any one time, and provided that thirty days notice shall be given in at least two newspapers, one in the country and one in the city of New Orleans of each requisition, and if any subscriber shall fail or neglect to pay any instalment thus required to be paid for the period of sixty days next after the same shall be due and payable, the stock on which it is demanded and the instalment paid thereon shall be forfeited to the company and a new subscription may be opened for the same, to make up such deficient shares.

Sec. 5th. Be it further enacted, etc: That the President and Directors of said company shall have power to borrow money, for the objects of this act, by the pledge of stock or other security, and to issue certificates or other evidence of such loan.

Sec. 6th. Be it further enacted, etc: That there shall be five directors of said company, each of whom must be owner of at least five shares of the stock of said company, and a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, and the said directors shall elect a President annually out of their number, and as any vacancy shall occur, and shall fill all vacancies that may occur in their own number. That until the second Monday in January, eighteen hundred and thirty seven, Thomas Green Davidson, Thomas Kennedy, Berlin Childress, Sylvester G. Parsons, and James H. Harvey shall compose the board of directors of said company. Till from and after that period the directors of said company shall be annually elected on the second Monday of January in each year, under the commissioners appointed by the director. That the stockholders shall be respectively entitled to one vote or each share owned by them, and may vote by proxy, provided however that no stockholder shall be entitled to more than one hundred votes. The said company shall keep their office in Springfield, and on the first Monday in December, every year, a meeting of the stockholders shall take place therein, at which meeting it shall be the duty of the President and Directors to exhibit a statement of the affairs of said company, and it shall be the duty of the President and the Directors of said company at any time upon the requisition of any number of stockholders owning together one hundred shares, and stating the object and purpose thereof, to call a general meeting of the stockholders of said company and that at any such meeting of the stockholders, a majority in amount of the whole stock may remove from office any President or Directors of said company, and may appoint others in their place, and that fifteen days notice shall be given of the time of calling any such meeting, and all elections made by this act shall be held on some particular day, and if not made on such designated day may be made on any day within the thirty days thereafter, and the President and Directors for the time being shall hold their office until such election shall have been made.

Sec. 7th, Be it further enacted, etc: That the said corporation is hereby invested with all the powers and rights necessary for the construction and repair of a Rail Road from Springfield in the Parish of Livingston through the Parish of St. Helena in the direction from Springfield to Liberty, to the line of the State of Mississippi. Said rail road to terminate at the said line until he consent of the Legislature of the State of Mississippi shall have been obtained when the company shall have the right to continue the said Rail Road to the town of Liberty in the county of Amite in the State of Mississippi. The said Rail Road not to exceed one hundred feet in width, with as many sets of tracts as the company may deem proper, and they or their agents may enter upon, use or excavate any land which may be wanted for said road or for the erection of any building necessary or useful to the same. And it is stipulated and agreed that for and during the period of thirty years from the passage of this act, said corporation shall have the exclusive right and privilege of constructing and using a Rail Road between Springfield and Liberty or the line of demarkation between state of Louisiana and Mississippi in the direction of Springfield to Liberty provided the Legislature of the State of Mississippi should refuse the said Rail Road company the right of running said Rail Road to the town of Liberty, and provided that the said Rail Road be so constructed and made as not to prevent or obstruct the use of any public road unless the same be done with the consent and approbation of the Police Jury of the Parish in which the same be situated. And if the said road shall not be commenced within three years from and after the passage of this act, than this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 8th Be it further enacted, etc: That the said company may agree with the owner or owners of any land which may be wanted for the construction or repair of any rail road, or any of the works or edifices connected therewith for the purchase or use of the same, and if they cannot agree, or if the owner or owners of any such land be under any disability to contract, or be absent or unknown, it may be lawful for said company to apply by petition to the Parish Judge of the Parish, in which the land is situated, describing the same in their opinion necessary for the purposes required, with the names of the several owners and occupants if any, and shall annex a map or survey which shall distinguish the land of each of the several owners or occupants if any, required as aforesaid; and the quality thereof and the improvements thereon. And the said Parish Judge shall thereupon summon a jury of five disinterested free holders or house holders, three fourths of whom may decide whose duty it shall be to examine the land so required after ten days notice to said owners or occupants of the time of making said examination and to ascertain the damages that may be sustained by the said owners or occupants by the appropriation of the said land to the use of the said company, and certify the same to be a true list and impartial valuation and assessment, to the best of their knowledge and belief, and the said jury shall reduce their valuation to writing, therein describing the land condemned and shall sign the same which shall be filed in the office of the Parish Judge; and said valuation or assessment shall after ten days public notice be confirmed by said court, if no sufficient cause to the contrary be shown and if set aside they may order a new assessment to be taken in the manner before prescribed. And such valuation or assessment when paid or deposited in court for the owner or owners of said land or his or their legal representatives, shall entitle the company to the right, title, interest and estate in the same as fully as if it had been conveyed by the owner or owners of the same and the amount of damages assessed if not accepted when deposited as aforesaid may at any time thereafter be claimed from said company, the same if not accepted within twenty days after being deposited in court, may be withdrawn by said company subject to be required of them by the said owner or owners at any time within the year, and in case the owner or owners of any land wanted as aforesaid may be unknown the court shall appoint a curator and hear and try, represent and defend their interest. And the said company shall be bound for any damages awarded to any person absent or unknown if applied for at any time within five years, and if not applied for within that time, the salary of all and every owner of land so taken for the purposes aforesaid shall be prescribed against that of a minor against whom prescription shall not take effect until twenty years shall have elapsed.

Sec. 9 Be it further enacted, etc: That the said company shall have power to place on said road and use all such wagons, steam and other carriages for the purposes of transportation, which they may deem necessary or useful, and shall have the power of charging for the transportation of passengers, goods, parcels, merchandize and property of any kind whatsoever, such rates as the said company shall establish; provided, however, that said rates when established, shall not be charged during the year in which they are established, and shall be published in one newspaper in the state.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, etc: That the shares of the capital stock of said company shall be free from taxation for and during the term of twenty years.

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, etc: That the residue of the net profits arising from the receipts of said company, after the semi-annually declared and made by the President and directors.

BY AUTHORITY.
AN ACT,
To incorporate the Springfield and Liberty Rail Road Company.

Section 1st. Be it enacted by the senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in general assembly convened, That Thomas Green Davidson, Thomas Kennedy, Sylvester G. Sec. 2d. Be it further enacted, etc: That the capital stock of said company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and if that amount should be deemed insufficient for the purposes of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors of said company to increase the said capital stock by the addition of as many shares as may be necessary, provided that the whole amount of the capital stock shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars, which shares shall be of the amount of one hundred dollars each, and shall be subscribed for in such manner as their shall prescribe, or the President and Directors of said company may sell the same for the benefit of said company at any price not under their par value.

Sec. 3d. Be it further enacted, etc: That the capital stock of said company shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and it shall be the duty of the President and Directors of said company, to open books and receive subscriptions therefor after having given fifteen days notice of the time and place of opening the same, and said books shall be kept open for at least ten consecutive days, (Sundays excepted) and in such places and under the direction of such Commissioners as the President and Directors of the said company for the time being may designate, and at the expiration of the said period the amount of the said capital stock shall not have been subscribed for, the President and Directors of said company may cause the books to be opened for subscriptions at such other time and places as they may deem proper, and if more than the amount of the capital stock of said company shall have been subscribed for, the said President and Directors shall reduce such subscriptions in a manner that none shall be reduced while any remains larger in amount.

Sec. 4th, Be it further enacted, etc: That there shall be paid at the time of subscribing five dollars on each and every share subscribed for, and the residue shall be paid in such instalments and at such times as may be required by the President and Directors of said company. Provided that not more than five dollars on the share shall be called for at any one time, and provided that thirty days notice shall be given in at least two newspapers, one in the country and one in the city of New Orleans of each requisition, and if any subscriber shall fail or neglect to pay any instalment thus required to be paid for the period of sixty days next after the same shall be due and payable, the stock on which it is demanded and the instalment paid thereon shall be forfeited to the company and a new subscription may be opened for the same, to make up such deficient shares.

Sec. 5th, Be it further enacted, etc: That the President and Directors of said company shall have power to borrow money, for the objects of this act, by the pledge of stock or other security, and to issue certificates or other evidence of such loan.

Sec. 6th, Be it further enacted, etc: That there shall be five directors of said company, each of whom must be owner of at least five shares of the stock of said company, and a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, and the said directors shall elect a President annually out of their number, and as any vacancy shall occur, and shall fill all vacancies that may occur in their own number. That until the second Monday in January, eighteen hundred and thirty seven, Thomas Green Davidson, Thomas Kennedy, Berlin Childress, Sylvester G. Parsons, and James H. Harvey shall compose the board of directors of said company. Till from and after that period the directors of said company shall be annually elected on the second Monday of January in each year, under the commissioners appointed by the director. That the stockholders shall be respectively entitled to one vote or each share owned by them, and may vote by proxy, provided however that no stockholder shall be entitled to more than one hundred votes. The said company shall keep their office in Springfield, and on the first Monday in December, every year, a meeting of the stockholders shall take place therein, at which meeting it shall be the duty of the President and Directors to exhibit a statement of the affairs of said company, and it shall be the duty of the President and the Directors of said company at any time upon the requisition of any number of stockholders owning together one hundred shares, and stating the object and purpose thereof, to call a general meeting of the stockholders of said company and that at any such meeting of the stockholders, a majority in amount of the whole stock may remove from office any President or Directors of said company, and may appoint others in their place, and that fifteen days notice shall be given of the time of calling any such meeting, and all elections made by this act shall be held on some particular day, and if not made on such designated day may be made on any day within the thirty days thereafter, and the President and Directors for the time being shall hold their office until such election shall have been made.

Sec. 7th, Be it further enacted, etc: That the said corporation is hereby invested with all the powers and rights necessary for the construction and repair of a Rail Road from Springfield in the Parish of Livingston through the Parish of St. Helena in the direction from Springfield to Liberty, to the line of the State of Mississippi. Said rail road to terminate at the said line until he consent of the Legislature of the State of Mississippi shall have been obtained when the company shall have the right to continue the said Rail Road to the town of Liberty in the county of Amite in the State of Mississippi. The said Rail Road not to exceed one hundred feet in width, with as many sets of tracts as the company may deem proper, and they or their agents may enter upon, use or excavate any land which may be wanted for said road or for the erection of any building necessary or useful to the same. And it is stipulated and agreed that for and during the period of thirty years from the passage of this act, said corporation shall have the exclusive right and privilege of constructing and using a Rail Road between Springfield and Liberty or the line of demarkation between state of Louisiana and Mississippi in the direction of Springfield to Liberty provided the Legislature of the State of Mississippi should refuse the said Rail Road company the right of running said Rail Road to the town of Liberty, and provided that the said Rail Road be so constructed and made as not to prevent or obstruct the use of any public road unless the same be done with the consent and approbation of the Police Jury of the Parish in which the same be situated. And if the said road shall not be commenced within three years from and after the passage of this act, than this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 8th Be it further enacted, etc: That the said company may agree with the owner or owners of any land which may be wanted for the construction or repair of any rail road, or any of the works or edifices connected therewith for the purchase or use of the same, and if they cannot agree, or if the owner or owners of any such land be under any disability to contract, or be absent or unknown, it may be lawful for said company to apply by petition to the Parish Judge of the Parish, in which the land is situated, describing the same in their opinion necessary for the purposes required, with the names of the several owners and occupants if any, and shall annex a map or survey which shall distinguish the land of each of the several owners or occupants if any, required as aforesaid; and the quality thereof and the improvements thereon. And the said Parish Judge shall thereupon summon a jury of five disinterested free holders or house holders, three fourths of whom may decide whose duty it shall be to examine the land so required after ten days notice to said owners or occupants of the time of making said examination and to ascertain the damages that may be sustained by the said owners or occupants by the appropriation of the said land to the use of the said company, and certify the same to be a true list and impartial valuation and assessment, to the best of their knowledge and belief, and the said jury shall reduce their valuation to writing, therein describing the land condemned and shall sign the same which shall be filed in the office of the Parish Judge; and said valuation or assessment shall after ten days public notice be confirmed by said court, if no sufficient cause to the contrary be shown and if set aside they may order a new assessment to be taken in the manner before prescribed. And such valuation or assessment when paid or deposited in court for the owner or owners of said land or his or their legal representatives, shall entitle the company to the right, title, interest and estate in the same as fully as if it had been conveyed by the owner or owners of the same and the amount of damages assessed if not accepted when deposited as aforesaid may at any time thereafter be claimed from said company, the same if not accepted within twenty days after being deposited in court, may be withdrawn by said company subject to be required of them by the said owner or owners at any time within the year, and in case the owner or owners of any land wanted as aforesaid may be unknown the court shall appoint a curator and hear and try, represent and defend their interest. And the said company shall be bound for any damages awarded to any person absent or unknown if applied for at any time within five years, and if not applied for within that time, the salary of all and every owner of land so taken for the purposes aforesaid shall be prescribed against that of a minor against whom prescription shall not take effect until twenty years shall have elapsed.

Sec. 9 Be it further enacted, etc: That the said company shall have power to place on said road and use all such wagons, steam and other carriages for the purposes of transportation, which they may deem necessary or useful, and shall have the power of charging for the transportation of passengers, goods, parcels, merchandize and property of any kind whatsoever, such rates as the said company shall establish; provided, however, that said rates when established, shall not be charged during the year in which they are established, and shall be published in one newspaper in the state.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, etc: That the shares of the capital stock of said company shall be free from taxation for and during the term of twenty years.

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, etc: That the residue of the net profits arising from the receipts of said company, after the semi-annually declared and made by the President and directors.
