Mr. Howard on the Revenue Doctrine.

The Revenue doctrine is a subject which has of late years attracted much of the public attention. It has become a leading topic of conversation in the halls of Congress and in the newspapers of the country. The revenue doctrine is the doctrine of the Treasury Department, which holds that the revenue laws are to be construed in favor of the Government, and that the burden of proof is on the taxpayer to show that he is entitled to a refund of his taxes.
