

Prateek Arora

VILLAGE No. 1104

VILLAGE No. 1104

Prateek Arora

About the Book

The book revolves around a professor- Abhimanyu and 4 students- Sid, Priya, Rishabh and Murari who face different kinds of pressure in their lives. This pressure deviates them from the path they had always dreamt of. Circumstances alter their path of life and they find themselves in Village 1104 where they realize what they were born for. The book demonstrates the difference between following YOUR dream and following SOMEONE ELSE'S. It shows the difference between the road YOU wanted to go on and the road that was SHOWN TO YOU.

About the Author

Prateek Arora is an 11th grade student studying in DPS RK Puram. He is amongst the youngest authors in India. His desire to voice the mindset of the children at his stage and to bring about a change in the society have been the reasons for him writing this book. He has also been associated with NGOs working for street children and has now founded his own NGO SPIRIT. Apart from his contribution to the society and academic excellence, Prateek is also a C++ programmer and a trained Western Vocal singer.

aroraprteek.blogspot.com