EXHIBITION OF THE

ART OF FANCY GLASS BLOWING & SPINNING.

EXHIBITION room, corner of Conti street. Entrance 32 Chartres street. Mr. Finn respectfully informs the public, that he will exhibit for a short time, his curious and interesting ART; and can assure those who are disposed to encourage the fine arts, that the process of modelling is found worthy of their attention. The process of modelling figures of animals, &c. from glass, in a state of fusion, is so wonderfully curious, as to fill the beholder with astonishment, and must be witnessed, in order to decide on its merit, as no description can afford an adequate idea of the pleasure it affords. The various productions of the artist, which are rare and exquisite in their construction, are for sale, and well adapted as presents for relatives or a fair friend. Admission 50 cents—children half price. Season tickets, [not transferable,] $1. Open from 10 A M till 5 P M and from 7 to 9 at night. mp2

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Grandpré, in Mr. Lanier's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street.

Terms—Boarders, for ten months, $300, day boarders, do. $100, per quarter, $30, piano, do. $21, singing, do. $21, drawing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a solid and ornamental teaching of the French and English languages, literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, knitting, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay $5. Each pupil is to bring 2 pair of sheets, 1 woollen blanket, 1 white counterpane, 1 silver spoon, fork and knife, a dessert knife, a tablespoon and 6 towels. Select books will be furnished at moderate rates, and a quarterly advance is required in all cases. Payments are to be made quarterly, and in advance, in order to avoid the trouble of keeping accounts. No deduction to be made except in cases of sickness, and then only when the pupil is taken out of the establishment. The pupils are to be furnished with the medicine at the usual cost. The children are treated with the kindness so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Madame Grandpré carefully avoids sending their young minds to real or imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The increasing number of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to enter into further particulars. ap 18
