

NEW-ORLEANS BEE

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE

BY BULLITT, MAGNE & CO.

NEW-ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 9, 1941.

TO OUR COUNTRY SUBSCRIBERS.

We have this day commenced the execution of a new policy...

We have, therefore, come to the determination to continue the publication of this paper...

Postmasters are authorized to register our name for second-class mailing through the mails...

The following table shows the names of the banks in New Orleans...

LIEN HERMAN, SPECIAL AGENT

Table listing names of banks in New Orleans, organized into columns: BANKS, CAPITAL, RESERVES, and ASSETS.

Table listing names of banks in New Orleans, organized into columns: BANKS, CAPITAL, RESERVES, and ASSETS.

AMUSEMENTS: ST. CHARLES THEATRE, AMERICAN THEATRE, THE SITUATION OF THE BANKS IN NEW ORLEANS ON THE 4TH OF NOVEMBER, 1941. Includes various notices and advertisements.

Commercial section containing various business notices and advertisements.

TRADE AND COMMERCE section with reports on market conditions and trade activities.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE section providing information on shipping schedules and maritime news.

Continuation of the 'TO OUR COUNTRY SUBSCRIBERS' article, discussing the challenges of maintaining a newspaper during these times.