SATURDAY MORNING JULY 6, 1844.

NOTICE.

By applying to the District, Parish and Commercial Courts, persons who have received Certificates of Naturalization from Judge Elliott may renew their application to be duly enlized and if entitled thereto by law will receive naturalization and a certificate thereof without charge.

THE PROGRESS OF PATRIOTISM.—We are charged by the Herald with counselling and advising violence with inflaming the passions of the people in a dangerous manner, and exciting them to turbulence and outbreak. And what, in the name of all that is marvelous in this age of wonders, is the ground of this most rash and ill-considered accusation?

Because we chose to say in solemn seriousness, and with a full knowledge of the fact before us, that the people, the good and lawful voters of this city, will rather not again submit in quiet and tame resignation, to be disfranchised or hold their rights upon the condition of aiding and abetting the corruption and inequity of an infamous and bribed Judge, are we counselling violence? Or is it exciting dangerous passions to declare that the young and vigorous portion of the people should act stand by and witness with indifference and apathy, the fathers of the city turned away in their old age, with impunity from the polls? Is it going too far, to warn the conspirators in the intrigue against the rights and peace of the citizens, that they cannot again with safety send hired ruffians to the polls to claim the privilege of voting upon a fraudulent certificate, and keep out the legal voters by insisting through the whole day upon a franchise they do not possess—whether they be or be not, in collision with the judges. The inference from Monday's proceedings would be that, at several of the polls, picked men were selected to claim a right that was known to be disputed, and engaged to spend the day in wrangling, with the connivance of one of the judges, for the privilege of voting to the exclusion of every legal voter of the District. Is it stimulating evil passions to say that those who engage themselves in such an enterprise will do so at their peril—and no small peril at that? If to warn evil-doers that they have gone as far as the patience of the public will tolerate, be exciting turbulence, we plead guilty to the charge and will reader ourselves, in all likelihood, amenable to it quite often in future.

But is it not amusing to see the Herald assume the functions of public monitor?—a journal in which the law-abiding and native citizen has been threatened with duty pins and shillalahs if they dared to gainsay the right of foreigners, but a day in the country, to vote upon a certificate notoriously fraudulent, and bearing upon its face the evidences of corruption, perjury and conspiracy! Is it not abominable that the organ of a party, that have within the year, passed public resolutions, breathing defiance to all who might seek to have the laws enforced, and stirring up the ignorant and deluded emigrant to illegal and dangerous demonstrations, should affect meekness of spirit after the partial success of their plans, and chide those who endured wrong until further forbearance would argue an indifference to the liberties of the people?

When these outrageous schemes were first set on foot, when these threats were promulgated in the Herald, the gentleman was not content with that journal as a quiet organ of party condemnation and fulmine, and fierce. But that done not excuse the party of which it is the organ. The lawless and violent purposes declared, have been in a measure accomplished; the miserable and flagrant frauds sustained by their public speakers and upheld by their presses, have been used to disfranchise the honest and upright, and now that tyranny and oppression have assumed such sovereignty over constitutional rights, and displayed such disgusting and cruel excesses as humility itself might rebel against, the authors (or their organs) of those degrading transactions, assume the censorship, and propose counsel to strains of deprecatory benevolence upon all remedies but to the repetition of outrage, as leading to disturbances of breaches of the peace. So long as the public cannot to be threatened and rode over rough shod by combinations of foreigners and Jacobins, all things progress as merrily as a marriage bell. Dray pins, blood and thunder, shillalahs and bloodgeons, furnish good themes of declamation, party resolutions and editorial menace; but the moment the law-abiding and orderly citizens take upon themselves to complain of oppression, the instant the whig press throws out a warning that the citizens will not submit any longer to be trampled upon, the criminal party rebukes the anticipation of violence with the serene complacency of an offended saint. This is the romance and poetry of effrontery—the ideal Jesuitism of sin—the sublimation of brass.

During the whole of the exciting scenes of last Monday, we rejoice to know that there was not a single legal vote refused by a whig judge. Those votes to which he objected, were based upon the issue of fraudulent certificate by a judicial functionary who has been hurled from office for the infamous prostitution of the ermine. And yet, by some strange, mysterious and inexplicable process of political retribution, an attempt is made to justify the refusal of voters whose rights were recognised, unquestioned and unimpeached, because forsooth, spurious pretenders to right of suffrage, were declared incompetent to the exercise of the franchise. The good legal voter was cast away, because the holder of an Elliott certificate was considered not truly and justly entitled to the privilege. Marvellous corollary and still more marvellous premises!

☞ The indignation meeting of the "Elliott" voters and their advocates, held last evening at the St. Louis Ball Room, was decidedly one of the richest farce we have ever witnessed. After the meeting had been called to order, by John Mullins, Esq, and the appointing of a President and some half a dozen Vice Presidents—all we understand who could possibly be prevailed upon to serve. The meeting was addressed by Leonce Jacob Barker, P. Soulé, Seth Barton and Col Campbell. A long string of resolutions full of patriotism, &c., were presented by L. A. Besançon, which were unanimously adopted. The whig party were of course held up to the scorn and indignation of the civilized world, for the outrageous course pursued by them in disfranchising all of the legal voters of the second ward, Second Municipality, and some 2,000 other legal votes in the other wards of the city. We are at a loss to guess at the precise number of the Indignation members of the meeting who were enabled to comprehend the eloquent remarks of Mr. Soulé, delivered as they were in the French language.

GENERAL WAUDT THOMPSON.—This gentleman's speech delivered at Albany, has been grossly perverted and misrepresented by the locofoco press. The Albany Evening Journal notices the disingenuousness of its contemporaries, and corrects their misstatements. In respect to the Annexation of Texas, Gen. THOMPSON declared himself irreconcilably opposed to the measure. He opposed it as a southern man, because it would injure, instead of benefiting the south; and as a citizen of the United States, because it would weaken the bonds of the Union.

SENTENCE OF THOMAS W. DORR.—The Supreme Court of Rhode Island, sitting at Newport, has sentenced Thomas W. Dorr to imprisonment for life in the State Prison, for treason against the Sovereign power of the Commonwealth. This is the punishment specifically provided for the offence, and the Court had no discretionary power to make it less, even if it had the disposition to do so. The pardoning power is vested in the Legislature, and it is thought, will be applied to the prisoner.

☞ Joseph Carter was convicted on Monday, 29th ult., at Belvidere, New Jersey, of the murder of the Cortelyou family. The jury were out about six hours.—Humpher, the hired man of Carter, has had a true bill found against him as a participator, and several others have been arrested as presumed accomplices. There is a very general conviction in the community that the finding in the case of Carter is just, and that a dreadful conspiracy to murder will now be unravelled.

☞ Of all the good jokes which the nomination of the unknown POLK has given rise to, the best is the following conversation which actually occurred in New York between two locofocos:

"What is the news from the Baltimore Convention?"
"James K. Polk is nominated for the Presidency," was the answer.
"Good!" exclaimed the other, "first rate! the best and strangest man we've got! What did you say his name was?"

PRESIDENT TYLER was married, on the evening of the 26th ult., in New York, to Miss GARDINER, daughter of the late Colonel GARDINER, who lost his life by the explosion occasioned on board the Princeton.

THE ELECTION.

We have the satisfaction of announcing to the whigs of Louisiana and the Union the political regeneration of the Second Congressional district. HARRY G. THIBODAUX (whig) has beaten ALCEE LABRANCHE nearly SIX HUNDRED votes, showing a whig gain in one district of SEVEN HUNDRED. This result is an unerring indication of the sentiments of the State, clears away every lingering doubt of the true whig faith of Louisiana. Her Electoral vote will be cast for HENRY CLAY as surely as November comes. But for the manner in which one half of the whigs of the Second Municipality were defrauded of their suffrage, Mr THIBODAUX's majority would have been larger by two hundred. Despite, however, of every obstacle, and Texas to boot, we have achieved a great and glorious victory.

The following returns are nearly correct:

SECOND DISTRICT.

	Thibodaux.	Labranche.
Second Municipality.....	170 est.	90
Algiers.....	8 0	60
Jefferson.....	(about a tie)
St Charles.....	17	60
St John.....	40 rep.	60
St James.....	48	60
Assumption.....	60	50
Assumption.....	90	9
Lafourche Interior.....	253	0
Terrebonne.....	121	0
	993
	114

Thibodaux's majority 879

With respect to the State at large, it is yet difficult to forstall the result. Thus far the returns are exceedingly favorable. Except in the city, where outrage and wrong were tolerated, the whigs have scarcely lost anything. On the contrary, they have gained both in the popular vote and in the Legislature. We entertain strong hopes of having carried both our candidates for Congress, a majority in the Convention and a majority in the Legislature.

The following are the returns received since our last publication:

Jefferson.—Returns incomplete. Preston (l f) elected as the senatorial representative to the Convention, and Bonnabel (w) as the Representative to that body. Lobdell (l f) probably elected to the State Senate, and Latzer (w) certainly chosen to the House.

St Charles.—Thibodaux's majority 17. Messrs St Amant and Brou (whigs) elected to the Convention and House. Garcia (w) re-elected to the Senate.

St John.—Boudjaquie (w) re elected to the House and chosen to the Convention. Thibodaux's majority reported at 35 or 40.

St James.—For Congress, Thibodaux 209; Labranche 237. For Senate, Kenner (w) 271, Welham (l f) 98—elected. For Representatives, Winchester (w) 280, Landet (w) 279; Farrell (l f) 249, Bourgeois 231. For the Convention, Mr Kenner as chosen as the Senatorial district, and Messrs Roman and Winchester as delegates—all whigs.

Ascension.—For Congress, Thibodaux 209, Labranche 235. For the Senate, Kenner (w) 269, Welham 169—Kenner's majority in the district 88—a splendid triumph.—For the Legislature, Landry (w) 234, Blanc (l f) 209.—For the Convention Kenner is chosen to represent the Senatorial district and Trist (l f) as delegate.

Assumption.—For Congress, Thibodaux 213, Labranche 222. For the Senate, Allen (w) 227, Nicolas (l f) 195. For the House, LeBlanc (w) 230, Tourville (l f) 221. R Martin (l f) 202. Messrs LeBlanc and Tourville elected. For the Convention, Pugh (w) is chosen as the Senatorial delegate, and Bourg & Taylor (w) as the delegates for the Parish.

Lafourche Interior.—For Congress, Thibodaux (w) 353, Labranche (l f) 120. For the Senate, Allen (w) 333, Nicolas (l f) 131. For the House, Messrs Bush, Cole and LeBlanc—all Labranche—elected. For the Convention, Pugh is chosen to represent the Senatorial district, and Messrs Beatty, Aubert and Green as delegates—all whigs.

Terrebonne.—For Congress, Thibodaux 251, Labranche 62. For the Senate, Allen 255, Nicolas 72.—For the House, Caruthers (l f) without opposition.—For the Convention, Messrs Pugh and Winder (w) are elected.

Allen's majority for the Senate in the Lafourche district is 384, and Pugh's 350.

Pointe Coupee.—For Congress, Dawson (no opp.) 149. For the Convention, Poitevent (l f) 26, Lemoin (l f) 166, Lauraine (w) 57, Pendras (w) 97. For the Legislature, J. C. Van Winkle (w) 143, Cruze (l f) 117—a whig gain.

Iberville.—J W Chinn (w) is probably elected to the Convention, to represent the district composed of Iberville and West Baton Rouge—Iberville gives Mahler (l f) 55 majority, but West Baton Rouge will give Chinn 70 or 80 majority. Labranche (w) is elected Parish delegate by one majority, and Welch (ind) beats Hubert (w) 21 votes.

St Tammany.—Gen Dan'l Edwards (w) takes the place of that radical locofoco T G Davidson in the Senate, beating him, to our unspeakable satisfaction, by ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY votes, and that in a district which gave Reuben 583 majority. Were will wonders cease! M G Penn (l f) elected to the Convention from the district by only 17 votes over Thompson (w), showing a heavy whig gain. Strother (l f) elected to the House by 16 majority—a whig loss—and Carrier (l f) elected as Parish delegate to the Convention.

Livingston.—The stronghold of locofocoism elects Watterson (w) to the House—a whig gain. Washington and St Helena locofoco as usual.

East Feliciana.—For the Convention, Judge Saunders (w) and Mr Darnell (w) are elected. For the Legislature, Mr Fluker (l f) and Dr Perkins (w) are chosen We rejoice at Dr Perkins' success. He is a high minded and able whig.

Thus far the whigs have three Representatives in the city and gain a Senator from Florida and a Representative in Pointe Coupée. They gain one Representative in Lafourche, and lose one in Terrebonne by letting a locofoco walk over the course in a Parish that never fat gave a locofoco majority. When will the whigs learn wisdom!

THE LOCOFOCO PRESS speak of the Elliott certificate holders as if these individuals had no earthly remedy but were by the refusal of the whig inspectors necessarily and forever excluded from the right of suffrage.—This is downright humbug. Judge CARRIGAN of the City Court of Lafayette—ELLIOTT's successor—has offered to revise all these certificates for the merest pittance. Sixty-seven Elliott voters did apply for this purpose and thirty-seven were found to be legally disqualified and were sent away. If of the 1746 names on the perpetual roll, 1709 are now legal and valid papers, the inference is strong that they are so all and that they do not possess the proper qualifications for becoming American citizens.

☞ It is out of the question to chronicle all the whig meetings that take place in Pennsylvania. Our late exchanges bring us accounts of half a dozen more in opposite parts of the State, all numerous and brimful of enthusiasm. The people are thoroughly aroused and mean to do their whole duty in October and November.

GREAT FIRE IN BOSTON.—A most disastrous fire was raging in Boston on the evening of the 25th ult., and more than thirty buildings had been destroyed before the departure of the mail. The following particulars are taken from the Boston Mercantile Journal:—

The fire broke out at South End at half-past twelve o'clock, which was not subdued when our paper went to press. It commenced in the large steam saw-mill and planing establishment, on the corner of
