SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 27, 1844

MORE RENUNCIATIONS—STILL THEY COME

It is but a few days since we published a formidable list of names of persons from every section of the country, who had abjured the false doctrines of pseudo-democracy, and had determined hereafter to do battle under the banner of CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN. No numerous, however, are the renunciations rapidly do they swell our unrolling ranks, that we are compelled to begin a fresh account and chronicle the new comers at once, that we may have room for those who are doubtless preparing to follow an excellent an example. If locofocoism goes on much longer at this rate, losing its ablest and warmest supporters every day, we really do not know what will become of the "rank and file" of the party by November. They will nearly all have evaporated, leaving behind a mere corporeal guard—a bottom logic, to tell of the mighty host which once careered it proudly through the land. But to our new list:—

OHIO.

That spirited whig paper the Greenville Messenger, brings us two more renunciations of locofocoism in Drake county, Ohio. The way things are going on there, says the Cincinnati Atlas, we should not be surprised if little Drake gave next fall 100 majority for CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN.

GREENVILLE Township, July 19th, 1844

Mr Taylor—I will be under great obligations to you if you will let me say through the columns of your paper that I will no longer act or vote with the so called Democratic party. I have voted and acted with the Democratic party, and zealously, and on all who know me can testify, but I can do so no longer. As the coming election, I intend to vote for Henry Clay and the whole whig ticket.

Yours &c,
HENRY HALL.

VAN BUREN Township, Drake co., Ohio, July 10 1844

Mr Taylor—Sir: I will ask leave through the columns of your paper to say to my fellow citizens, that I am now no more a democrat, and have voted the Democratic ticket ever since I have been entitled to vote, but that I cannot vote for Polk and Dallas, and support the same principles that I did in voting for Jefferson, Monroe and Jackson, and I am now of the opinion that I am acting in accordance with the principles of the Democratic principles by voting for Henry Clay and the whole whig ticket at the coming election.

Yours &c,
ELIAS SCHATTI

There was a Polk meeting at Cincinnati a few evenings since. The following incident occurred, as we learn from the Atlas: "The meeting was very harmonious, with the exception of a little disturbance raised by a gentleman who has heretofore been one of their speakers, declaring in a loud voice, and without the fear of the Enquirer before his eyes, that he would not support Polk and Dallas."

The Union State Journal of the 27th inst says:—"The Statesman of last evening has some of the best things, and most ridiculous statements, editorial and from correspondents, that we ever put forth. The Locofocos are getting from the highest degree of confidence and security, to the fears that they are losing. The Cincinnati asserted that the ravages against Van Buren, and the Democracy, in the Western States, which they affect to treat very lightly, are [illegible] but we can produce the names of fourteen men (not three) of settled Locofoco principles, in Ohio, and in the region round about us, who could give the names of three hundred men, and have all recently left the party in Madison county. In Clark county, the Locofocos began in earnest for Van Buren, and we could give the names of fifteen. Take the changes for Polk and Dallas. We challenge a correct list of reputable Locofocos who will pretend even to endorse the Texas and Polk ticket for the Enquirer and Polk."

ADAM SONDAY and EDMUND LYONS, Sen., announce in the Greenville Patriot (Darke Co., O.) that they have hitherto acted with and voted with the locofoco party, but they can do so no longer. They are convinced that the good of the country calls on them to cast their suffrages for HENRY CLAY and the whole Whig ticket, and they are determined to consult the country before party. The Patriot says there are many others who will shortly come out publicly.

Mr. WILLIAM LEE, of Chillicothe, Ohio, in the Scioto Gazette of the 11th instant, publishes a card to his old political associates, in which he states that he can no longer co-operate with them in a political way, and gives a summary of the reasons which have induced him to abandon their party.

The Dayton Journal publishes the renunciation of locofocoism by both of the working men and farmers of Montgomery county. They state that they voted for Mr. VAN BUREN in 1840, but they have become convinced that "progressive democracy" means nothing more nor less than rank Toryism. They go for a Tariff, a National Bank, and Distribution. These are correct principles working out their triumph in Ohio. The paper from which we extract add:—"The utter downfall and overthrow of locofocoism in Ohio next fall will become as evident in a few weeks, that no man of common sense will risk his character for discretion by calling it in question."

What think our locofoco friends of Ohio?

MARYLAND.

The Baltimore correspondent of the Philadelphia United States Gazette, mentions as a convert to whig principles no less a personage than John Hill, formerly editor and proprietor of the Baltimore Republican, now the Republican & Argus, the only locofoco paper in Baltimore, and the recognized organ of the party in the State. Mr. BUNN was engaged with it during the Harrison campaign of 1840, supported Mr. Van Buren, and was a leading man of the party. He was what they call a democrat up to the nomination of POLK and DALLAS, but since then has declared himself a whig. This, adds the writer, is a real change, and I defy contradiction.

The Cecil (Md.) Whig of the 22d June says:—"In the whig county Convention, held in this town on Tuesday last, there were two members who up to the last election were opposed to the whig party, but will now give it their support."

NEW YORK.

We mentioned a day or two since the renunciation of locofocoism by Mr. SPENCER, of Albany, a leading Van Buren man of 1840. Now for a few more.

A correspondent of the New York Courier, writing from Rochester, says:—"J. D. Husbands, Esq., a lawyer of the city, and a man of standing and great personal respectability, has renounced locofocoism and all its works. His renunciation will be made public in a few days. He has been a prominent and active member of the locofoco party, and in 1840, distinguished himself on the stump. He is opposed to the annexation of Texas, and will not support a candidate present on that ground. His renunciation causes a great fluttering in the camps of locofocoism, as it is known that many others will not go for Polk and Texas who would have supported Van Buren."

One other fact about the progress of the good cause in Steuben county. A meeting held at Urbana some few days since, was addressed with great effect by Mr. Samuel H. Hammond, a distinguished lawyer of Albany. In 1840 Mr. Hammond addressed a meeting in the same place, and on each occasion the same gentlemen presided. There was a difference however. In 1840 it was a Van Buren meeting, and both the chairman and the speaker were Van Buren men although in the whig meeting both the speaker and the chairman were renounced; and other advocates of "Clay and the Tariff."

CHEERING WAKING UP!—There are good indications even from Chenango, where locofocoism has so long been in the ascendant. The Elmira Republican, in giving an account of a very numerous whig meeting, which was addressed by the Honorable A. B. Dickinson, Judge Dunn, E. S. Sweet, Esq., and C. L. Ward, Esq., says—

Judge Herrick followed next, and RENOUNCED THE LOCOFOCO PARTY, to which he had been attached for 30 years, and gave clear and satisfactory reasons for so doing. He said he had gone with the locofoco party until he was convinced there was no twinge of democracy left in it, and he said he was satisfied that the whig party was the true democratic party, and he should, at the coming election, vote with it for the first time, and support CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN.—Albany Evening Journal.

PENNSYLVANIA.

General Thomas C. Miller, recently a locofoco State Senator from Adams county, Pennsylvania, who a few years since was escorted to the Capitol by his locofoco friends with a great flourish and parade, has written a long letter in reply to one from the Hon. John Reed, Chairman of the Whig Central Committee, in which the General states that he is in favor of the whig tariff of 1842, and whig measures generally. He concludes his letter by saying that his course in the present contest will be to support measures instead of men, and indicates clearly that he has repudiated Polk and Dallas, and will give his earnest support for CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN.

VIRGINIA.

The Alexandria Gazette says: "We have the most gratifying accounts of the progress of correct political principles, and the change in favor of Clay and Frelinghuysen, the people are coming, in the neighborhood of this city, but just [illegible] the locofocos are [illegible] and publicly [illegible]

We to publish the changes that we have heard of in Fairfax and Loudon alone in favor of Clay, it would make a string as long as the locofoco papers are publishing of changes in their favor in half a dozen States."

GEORGIA.

At the recent organization of the Clay Club of Athens, Ga., we perceive that J. W. HARRIS renounced democracy. We extract the following from the proceedings of the meeting:

"During the retirement of the committee, James W. Harris, Esq. being called upon, addressed the meeting. He stated that it was well known that he had hitherto fought under the democratic flag, but in the last Presidential contest, where the battle raged the hottest, and the conflict was most furious, there was his arm raised and his voice heard, defending the democracy and their candidates, "ad tempora mutantur nos mutamur." To quote of such men as Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Van Buren, had been selected by the democracy, James K. Polk. It was an insult to the country, and he considered it the duty of every patriot to support the nomination of Mr. Clay. We have merely given an item of his speech. He was listened to with great attention, and welcomed with the heartiest applause."

Another.—We perceive that Judge Tracy, of Macon, has been elected an honorary member of the Clay club of that city. Judge Tracy was an influential democrat in 1840, and was elected a Judge of the Superior Court by the locofoco Legislature of 1841. He had previously been a leading democratic member of the house of Representatives and Senate of the State.

It will be perceived that in most of the examples we have cited above, we have been particular in giving the names of the seceders, so that there may be no cavilling about scores. The fact is that independently of these public renunciations, there is a quiet, unseen undercurrent running among the great masses, the influence of which will be favorably felt in the silent ballot in November. We know personally of sundry instances even in society, of men who have voted and acted with the locofoco party for years, who say but little, and who decline publicity, but are determined to renounce progressive democracy and its new and false lights.

The Bee is hard to please. We can discover not the slightest impropriety in the democrats asking large odds on the Presidential election, when the whigs say that they can, by no possibility, get less than three fifths of the electoral votes.

We only according their own assertions, and if they really do not believe what they proclaim to be true, they do not believe what they preach!

Is not that the English of it?—Herald.

We grant, neighbor, as one you one. But tell us how it happens that the locofocos who vaunt most noisily their Polk & Dallas ticket, and declare that Mr. Clay will be the worst beaten candidate that ever ran for the Presidency, decline any thing like an even bet? Now seems to us, that if both parties are so very confident, they should be no difficulty in obtaining wagers on public terms. But tout au contraire—the whigs who think Mr. CLAY will be elected by a large majority, are willing to back their opinions—the locofocos, who say that Mr. CLAY is not thus out of sight, won't bet. Is it with them the latter case they are unsure enough to bet only their think they can win. If the locofocos are so certain of carrying POLK, they should not decline such a chance as this for their candidate.

Come on the Log, sir of it!

The Courier has suddenly discovered that the Bee has one for some time very recklessly conducted, and thereupon grows dignified, and will enter into no further controversy with the paper. The dignity of the Courier is perfectly excruciating. It paralyzes us—and confounds our reasoning faculties.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Whom is requested to publish the following card:

Disadvantaged having been informed that a report was generally circulated, tending to wound immediate feelings and reputation of the undersigned, that the circumstances of unexpected and unexplained pecuniary resources have been made for either party. We would further state, under our individual and collective responsibility, that we have not been, nor are we now, in any way controlled either by influence of considerations of the most ordinary nature, but were prompted by the most honest gratuity, fully satisfactory to the feelings of the parties.

C. CLAVELLIER, WM CHRISTY,
FELIX GARCIA, N. A. VIENNE.
New Orleans, July 24, 1844.

The small failed yesterday from beyond Charleston.

COLONEL HARRETT'S NEW EDICT.—We were informed by a gentleman of respectability, that a merchant of the city who a few days since had made an entry of a lot of segars, yesterday presented himself at the counter of the Customhouse, for the purpose of paying the duties upon them and having them removed to his store. On his tendering the money in payment for the duties, he was informed by the Clerk, that he had received orders from the Collector to transmit business with no one else but his agent upon his head; the merchant not being willing to comply with the order of the collector, left the Customhouse for the purpose of procuring his agent, and immediately returned and again tendered the money in payment for the duties upon his goods, which on a second time refused. The merchant has not entered protest, and as he had contracted for the delivery of the segars to another house, has also entered a loss.

The Patrick Henry, leaves the lake end of the New Canal, upon the arrival of the 6 o'clock P. M. passenger barge, unique Railroad upon the arrival of the 6 o'clock cars.

The Creole, leaves the Railroad upon the arrival of the 5 o'clock cars. Both of the latter boats run as far as Pascagoula, touching at all of the watering places, and will be in readiness to take the half past 5 o'clock cars, for the city on Monday morning.

The Bourbon leaves the Railroad this afternoon, upon the arrival of the 6 o'clock, and to-morrow morning upon the arrive of the half-past 9 o'clock cars, for Mandeville, Louisburg and Madisonville.

CRIMINAL COURT.—P. Eicherette, charged with arceny, was yesterday put upon trial and found guilty. The test many was to prove that the accused, on the 2nd inst, broke open two trunks and the drawer of a chest in the house of Jean Segassie, at Algiers, and stole from thence $40 in money, a gold watch, a breast pin and a pistol. Her companionship this robbery, he stole a horse from he stable of Segassie and left for Baton Rouge, where he was arrested and brought back to this city for trial.

The following persons, against whom true bills were found by the Grand Jury on Thursday last, were yesterday arraigned and plead severally not guilty, viz:

Joseph Scott, for stabbing with intent to kill Richard O'Hea.

John Bernard Fage for stabbing with intent to kill Francis Ecrot.

George Lane, for breking, in the day time, into the shop of Messrs. Winthrop and Henshaw, with intent to steal.

The Grand Jury found a true bill against John Greenwood, for horse stealing. Greenwood was convicted for a similar offence some years since and is at present a fugitive from justice.

The Grand Jury ignored the bills against Charles Scott, for breaking into stores in the night time, and Jose Martines, for stabbing with intent to kill.

The attention of the court, until the hour of adjournment, was occupied in hearing the argument of J. G. Seyer, Esq. on the motion for a new trial in the case of D. T. Adams, found guilty of manslaughter, and the replication of the Attorney General on the part of the State. His Honor Judge Canonge will deliver his written opinion on the incise during the ensuing week.

The trial of Francois Isse, indicted for keeping a gaming house, was postponed in consequence of the illness of his counsel, P. Soule, Esq.

DISCHARGED.—Charles the slave of Dr. Slade, who was arrested for having in his possession a stolen box of
