

Mike Accomando is a former American Professional Baseball Player. Born in Chicago, Illinois, he was signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2002. Mostly a career minor leaguer, he featured a 92-93 MPH fastball, a hard breaking ball and deceptive changeup. He pitched for the Dodgers, White Sox and Yankees at the Major League level. The grandson of a former Major Leaguer, between him and his Grandpa, they share seven World Series Rings (1956, 1958, 1961, 1962, 1963, 2005 and 2009).
