For the information of persons in other parts of the United States who might feel inclined to take advantage of this opportunity of securing the services of this splendid establishment it is thought proper to give the following particulars.

The Hotel forms part of the handsome block of buildings known as the City Exchange and St. Louis Hotel. Previous to its destruction by fire in February, 1840, the whole was styled the Pelzer or the Merrs. and by its recent establishment it has rather been improved in style and convenience.

There is an entrance in St. Louis street, near the vestibule of the Exchange and Rotunda, and the main entrance is in Royal street through a handsome vestibule with a large circling stair way leading to the upper part of the building.

The second floor is comprised of one large dining room or ordinary 85 feet in length, 36 feet wide and 16 feet high, 40 feet by 36connected by large sliding doors 32 feet wide; two small rooms 18 feet by 16 feet in length, 16 feet wide, and one 16 feet square, all communicating with the dining room, and also with the ladies rooms above described on the corner of St. Louis street, also the spendid ball room over the entire range, but which does not form part of the premises to be leased.

The third floor comprises 4 rooms fronting on Royal street, 21 by 21 feet each; 4 suits of rooms, each 19 feet by 16 and 16 by 12, connect d by doors, 4 do do ditto each 12 by 16, and 16 by 12, and two rooms 30 by 13, all intended for families.

The fourth floor besides a front of 100 feet and upwards in Royal street, extends on St. Louis from Royal to Chartres streets, 320 feet, and comprises 64 rooms, 16 4 by 16 feet.

Besides the above, there are in rear of the 3d and 4th floor, one room fronting the yard 28 by 16 feet.

The kitchens and cellars are, in the first floor 84 feet by 30, and over them on the half floor 3 apartments 12 by 10 feet each, with a back stairs leading to all the floors

Besides other conveniences, there is an supply of water and 10 feet each, with a back stairs leading to all the floors handsome fixtures for gas light for the whole, and two large reservoirs in the 4th floor containing one 4 and the other one gallons of water.

The Philadelphia National Gazette, New York Courier and Enquirer, and Boston Courier, will please insert the above for 2 weeks, and forward their accounts to this office for collection.

SALT HOUSE.

Cincinnati, corner Main and Sixth streets.

THE location of this house being central, built way between the river and canal, and open on the high level together with the late additions and improvements makes it now the most desirable hotel in the city for merchants and travellers in general. Fare not surpassed by any hotel in the city, made to suit the times, suitable to the times. Passing Boarders are thankfully received, and no attention to the comfort of those who may call to merit a continuance of public favor shall be wanting on the part of

M. B.—A brick stable is attached to the house, and good hostlers in attendance.

Baggage sent to and from the river and canal free of charge when called for.

WM. F. MARSH, Proprietor.

GUILD'S PATENT COOKING STOVES CALLED "QUEEN OF THE WEST."

THE undersigned, agent for the sale of this article, for the first time introduced to the notice of the New Orleans public, begs leave respectfully to solicit public attention thereto.

He refers to the subjoined flattering testimony as to its economy, neatness and general utility.

We, the subscribers, having used for some time Guild's Patent Cooking Stove, called the Queen of the West, find no hesitation in giving our qualified testimony in its favor. For neatness, convenience, economy and despatch in cooking, we think it surpasses any other cooking apparatus that we have seen in use. We have no hesitation in saying that one great desideratum not heretofore attained—as to convenience, and at the same time heated and ready and equally as every purpose, and the fire being placed over the oven brings the heat immediately to the bottom
