The Academy of Music.—Monk Wrecks in his new Act.—When this intrepid gymnast was performing at the Royal Alhambra in London, the Illustrated London News described minutely and with admiration his neck pitching and drum-beating feat, which no one else has yet dared to imitate, and added: "When Leotard arrived in Paris with his new performance on the trapeze, Verfeuil, after having seen it once or twice, began to take some exercise, which for him was not difficult, and left the Circus at Paris to appear in the same performance in Leotard in all the principal towns of France, Spain, &c., where he appeared so vered with the laurels of success." It is to this net, so easily mastered, though so complicated and daring, and which it was thought Leotard alone was capable of performing, that Mons. Verrecke will address himself to-night at the Academy. We understand that he has added to the original performance of his own some before exhibited in connection with the trapeze. Mons. Verrecke is by birth a Belgian, the son of an old officer under the First Napoleon; and, like all those who have trickled the world with wonders of grace and agility, with the pretty of physical strength and skill, he possesses the inestimable gift of youth, being yet only twenty-seven years of age.

News by the Evening Star.

ADDITIONAL ABOUT THE KILPATRICK EXPEDITION.

Official Reports of its Excellence and Success.

LATE AND INTERESTING FROM MEXICO.

Gold 163⅞—Cotton 98c.

By the arrival of the Evening Star we have files of New York papers to that evening of the 5th inst., and of Havana to the 9th. We spread the following from our New York Associated Press Dispatches.

Official Report of the Kilpatrick Expedition.

[From the New York Evening Post, 5th.]

Washington, March 5.—The Republican publishes the following:

"We are permitted this morning to publish the following dispatch, received this morning by the President from Major-General Sedgwick, covering another dispatch from General Kilpatrick:

Headquarters, Fortress Monroe, March 4—To the President: I forwarded the annexed telegram from Gen. Kilpatrick:

Yorktown, March 4.—General: Colonel Dahlgren was directed to make a crossing with fifteen hundred men on the James river. He effected a crossing at 4 P. M. on Tuesday, and drove up on Richmond.

"He struck having failed, Col. Dahlgren was attempted to rejoin me near the Chickahominy.

"The road Colonel Cook were with the advance guard.

"Since May men become separated from his main force, some which nothing has been heard from them.

"The main force reached me until late night last.

"I have hopes that he may yet come in.

"J. Kilpatrick,

"Brig.-General Commanding Expedition."

Maddison, a rebel deserter, informs one of my aides that a one legged colonel and about one hundred men were taken prisoners.

I shall hear by flag of truce on Sunday night, and will telegraph again.

(Signed) JOHN F. BUTLER,
Major-General Commanding.

The Disposition of the New York Regiment.

THE KILPATRICK EXPEDITION.

Washington, March 4.—The Kilpatrick expedition has failed. General Kilpatrick, who is a gallant, resolute officer, succeeded the 15th of February in crossing the Rapidan and arrived at Richmond. He attacked the enemy on that day.

Richmond was at first disprovided of the enemy when Kilpatrick came on it Washington. Then, when General of the President and other officials, military and political, and at once commenced in his command, and General Meade finally ordered, as contained disapproval on his part of what have been useless.

The result of the expedition is—loss of prestige, loss of men, and no doubt the loss of much material—as many arms were taken by the preliminary force, in place in the hands of the prisoners when released.

Newbern Threatened with Attack.

Newbern, N. C., February 29.—The firemen together with all citizens from eighteen to fifty, are under orders to be ready in a moment's notice to meet the enemy, who is said to be massing a large force for a final attempt to recapture Newbern, Plymouth and Washington. The attack, which will be of a most formidable character, may take place at any moment.

The report that a large fleet of gunboats are on their way here, accompanied with reinforcements for our army, has encouraged all with the belief that with this aid, we can resist successfully any force the enemy may make to capture these important points.

The Alexandra Case.

A London letter of February 23th, says:

"You will already have discussed the latest phase of that most lamentable Comedy of Errors, the Alexandra case, which is now before the Exchequer Chamber, by the time this reaches you. Heads, if the 'Lords' affirm that the Exchequer Chamber has really no jurisdiction on appeal, the case will go against our Government and the Alexandra get off. The general opinion here is that such a decision will be arrived at. If the Lords declare their right to hear appeals to-and back the case for trial, the badness must begin again de novo. This I have on good legal authority."

No Rome from General Sherman.

Washington, March 5.—The government had, up to noon to-day, received no recent official information in relation to General Sherman.

New York Markets.

[From the Evening Star.]

New York, March 5.—Gold has advanced to 161⅞, and Exchange is dull at 174.

The loan market is easy at 6 per cent., and more mercantile paper is offering.

Sterling, Bonds, Stocks, Bullion, &c.—The market for Western and State flour is fairly active, and firmer, all grades are about 5c. per bbl. higher.

Cotton.—The market is dull and prices are still very heavy at 78½c. for middlings.

Provisions.—The Pork market is rather weak for lots on the spot, but for future delivery prices are very firm. We quote a sale of 500 bbls. two year old mess buyers option, March, at $32 25.

Lard is in fair moderate demand, and rather easier. Sales of 850 bbls. and tierces at 13¼c to 13¾c for old, and 13¼c to 13⅜c for new, and 200 packages grease at 11½.

Molasses.—The market is moderately active and firm. Sales of 170 hhds. Porto Rico at 70c to 73c for new crop, and 800 bbls. New Orleans at 68 to 73c for new crop.

Sugar.—Raw sugars are fairly firm at 12¾c to 13¾c for fair to good refining.

Whisky.—The market is still nauseated, and prices are decidedly better.

Latest from Mexico and St. Domingo.

By the arrival of the Evening Star, last evening, we received Havana papers to the 10th inst. The Diario of the 8th contains news from the city of Mexico to the 20th ult., and from Vera Cruz to the 1st inst. The dates from St. Domingo are to the 19th inst.

Mexico.—Zacatecas has been occupied by the imperial forces; military operations were actively carried on near the place, and mainly directed against the troops of Gonzalez Ortega, who was threatening Guadalajara, and whereas a state of siege has been declared.

Tabasco was closely besieged by Jaristas—partisans of Juarez—and, according to the latest detail, the garrison, which is said to be very small, would be compelled to surrender unless properly reinforced. The papers in the capital admit the fact.

Vidaurri had openly "pronounced" against Juarez and already taken up arms against him. The Cronista says that reliable persons who arrived in the City of Mexico on the 21 ult., state that Vizgoso had gone over to the Regency.

A letter from Guanajuato, dated February 9th says that the balance of the Jaristas forces routed in the Santiago Valley, had again been defeated and dispersed in Tecilla. It was reported that Elizardo, who leads a column of 600 dissidents under Pacchia, is endeavoring to come to terms with the interventionists.

In a letter dated February 14, Vidaurri declares that he will step and to uphold the dignity of the State, and free it from the evils which threaten it, "come whence they may." He calls on the people to sustain him.

Zacatecas was occupied, on the 7th ultimo, at 6 o'clock, P. M., by 2000 men of the forces under Generals Donat and Castagny. Ortega had fled and General Donat intended to pursue him. The liberals were received with joy and gratitude by the people.

It is reported that 1,200 French soldiers had left Morelia for Guadalajara.

Doblado, according to a letter, was still at Salullo. He had passed through Celaya with 2000 men.

Ortega, after his precipitate retreat from Zacatecas, had taken the Jutapa road, doubtless to join the forces of Arteaga and Uraga, and then march on Guadalajara, but General Donat was said to be on his heels.

News had been received from the State of Guerrero. Tixtla was seriously threatened by French forces, and that Alvarez troops were falling back as far as Acapulco, which was threatened or occupied by the French.

The campaign in Oajaca would soon be opened. It was stated, modest Gen. Brincorn, Gen. Porfirio Diaz, the Jaristas chief, had 5000 or 6000 men in Oajaca.

St. Domingo.—The transport steamship San Quentin, with Gen. La Gandara, several officers and 318 soldiers on board, had arrived in Havana, bringing the latest news from St. Domingo.

The greatest tranquility prevailed in Banica—a fact that the Spaniards are invariably successful in their attacks against the rebels is having an excellent effect among the latter."

Additional and Later from the North via the River.

By the steamer Albert Pearce, from St. Louis, we have dates from the North via the West, to the 5th, from which we compile the following:

MILITARY AND POLITICAL FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, March 5.—The Committee on Elections have decided that Mr. Lane, of Missouri, is not entitled to the seat he now occupies.

It is known here that General Sherman was not back at Vicksburg in time to start on a new campaign on the 22d, as contemplated and reported. He will soon, however, be heard from again in active operation.

In Banks' movement in military circles, that Admiral Farragut intended to accomplish anything more at Mobile, than to make a demonstration, to draw the attention of the rebels from other points of operations.

There are stories afloat to affect the testimony of Gen. Sickles, touching the battle of Gettysburg. It will make it necessary for General Meade to make his command of the Army of the Potomac, in that case. Either Gen. Hooker or Gen. Smith will be his successor. General Grant, it is said, has recommended Smith.

House.—The day is devoted to making speeches.

Mr. Baldwin, of Massachusetts, spoke of state rights in a doctrinal break down in nationality. It was pandemonium pleasantness.

Boyd, of Missouri, made a speech in reply to Blair. He maintained that the Radical members were the only true representatives of the Union sentiment in the State, and that the President had said that the threats of other Conservatives, Claybanks, or those Radicals had to be safe.

The Ways and Means Committee will report the tariff bill to-day. There will be considerable increase of duty on all articles such as silks, satins, French and English cloths.

LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, March 2.—Judge Pirtle, in the Chancery Court yesterday, decided that assignments from delayed firms for security of their creditors, generally, to be void.

Covington, Ky., March 5.—The noted guerrilla, Captain Jesse Coleman, on route northward, as a prisoner, while attempting to escape, was shot dead by Captain Stone, of the Thirty-seventh Kentucky.

BOSTON.

Boston, March 5.—The extensive drug and medicine establishment of Weeks & Potter, 120 Washington street, was destroyed by fire this morning. The building extended through from Washington to Hawley street. It was valued at $120,000, and was insured for only $80,000. Stock valued at $160,000.

NEW YORK.

Washington, March 5.—The United States Court of Claims, to-day, has decided against the claimants of property destroyed by U. S. Grant.

SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, March 1.—The sudden and unexpected death of Hon. Thomas Starr King, today at once paralyzed and saddened the whole community. Business was nearly suspended; the entire city, public buildings every where, displays every flag and every flag and emblem of mourning; those on every church that ever adorned a flag. It is unanimously conceded that no man has held or could ever be so revered and loved by the whole community. Arrangements are being made for the funeral, which will be a most imposing one. It is unanimously conceded that the services rendered by him during the California flag, while his meeting zeal in forwarding every benevolent enterprise made him generally beloved.

THE BATTLE, 1920.

Terre Haute, 3rd inst., March 4.—General Noble returns to-night from Edgar county, Illinois, to-day, for the purpose of allaying hostilities between the Big Creek buttermilk and the cotdoms.

This has been rendered necessary by the frequent outbreaks and loss of life which have occurred there recently, and for the purpose of avoiding such reoccurrences hereafter.

Two companies of Invalid Corps have been sent to Paris, and will remain there for some days.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, March 4, 1864.—General Sherman is returning to Vicksburg, where Brevet Brigadier General Ransom was ordered to be assigned to the command of the Army of the Tennessee, in that case. Either Gen. Hooker or Gen. Smith will be his successor. General Grant, it is said, has recommended Smith.

House.—The day is devoted to making speeches.

Mr. Baldwin, of Massachusetts, spoke of state rights in a doctrinal break down in nationality. It was pandemonium pleasantness.

Boyd, of Missouri, made a speech in reply to Blair. He maintained that the Radical members were the only true representatives of the Union sentiment in the State, and that the President had said that the threats of other Conservatives, Claybanks, or those Radicals had to be safe.

The Ways and Means Committee will report the tariff bill to-day. There will be considerable increase of duty on all articles such as silks, satins, French and English cloths.

LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, March 2.—Judge Pirtle, in the Chancery Court yesterday, decided that assignments from delayed firms for security of their creditors, generally, to be void.

General Grant arrived this evening en route for Washington.

COVINGTON, KY.

Covington, Ky., March 5.—The noted guerrilla, Captain Jesse Coleman, en
