

COMMUNICATION FROM THE BUREAU OF STATISTICS.

TO THE HONORABLE CHARLES GAYARR, SECRETARY OF STATE.

I have the honor of acknowledging the receipt of your communication of the 20th inst. containing a list of the documents, and an index of which is annexed, embracing the action of the Board of Statistics since its organization to the present time.

These documents are not complete and duly presented in the form of a printed report, but they are in the course of preparation, and will be presented to the Board of Statistics in a few days.

I shall, therefore, take the liberty of withdrawing the documents, after the Special Committee of the House, in whose hands they are, have examined them, and the volume will be returned to me, and I will be issued forth as usual.

Very respectfully,
J. D. DE BOW.
