New Tactics.

The Locofoco party, mindful of their repeated failures to injure General TAYLOR, either by insinuation or open disparagement, are seemingly regretting their conduct, and several of their organs have recently advised a totally different policy. For instance, the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times—a very astute and ingenious print—frankly acknowledges that the efforts of its political friends to assail General TAYLOR have only brought the old Hero more prominently before the people. It argues, therefore, that silence would have kept him in the back ground, and that it is now yet too late for Locofocism to retrace its steps, and, peradventure, induce the country to forget its obligations to the warrior of Buena Vista. But let the Spirit of the Times speak for itself:

"It is our firm impression that the furor which succeeded the good fortune that befel General Taylor at Buena Vista, would have expired of itself, long ere this, had his opponents permitted it. It was very natural for the public mind to feel excited by that great event in our nation's history, and to desire at the moment, to express its gratitude. But it is just as natural for the public mind, if permitted to have its own way, to be directed immediately after to some new object, and for some feat of brilliant valor to transfer all its enthusiasm from its former to its new favorite. Gen. Scott's splendid achievements would, ere this, have almost sunk Gen. Taylor into popular oblivion, but for the art of his partizans of the Federal press in defending, and the innocence of the Democratic press in carelessly assailing him."

"However, it is not yet too late; and we trust that our Democratic friends will remember that 'the wisdom of the serpent' is quite as necessary as the more amiable qualities of the dove, in the practice of the art of guiding the popular mind back, to all its aberrations, to sound principles. Whatever may be the ultimate position of the Democratic party, let us not be responsible for the untoward result of premature action. Let us patiently bide our time, and step out with circumspection. Let us not hurry events, until we shall be constrained and restricted in our efforts by manacles and bars of which we have been, ourselves, the unwise artificers. Time will develope for us, the better course; and we may securely trust our success in the hills of a Providence that has, more than once, signally interposed itself for our deliverance from defeat and for the triumph of Democratic principles."

The gist of this ratiocination is, that the people are a capricious, unsteady and childish multitude, "as easily led by the nose as asses are," and that ergo, the Democratic press has only to pretermit all mention of old ROUGH and READY, but shun his name and fame quietly to slumber, and the country will soon forget his existence and direct its attention and admiration to some new luminary. This doctrine is perfectly characteristic of modern democracy. Decried in the learning profession of love, but a strong and secret contempt for the people, and, though generally speaking, it succeeds after a somewhat clumsy fashion, in impressing superficial minds with the belief that its noisy vaporings are its real principles, yet, as in the present illustration, the mask is sometimes thrown aside, or worn so loosely, as no longer to conceal what lies beneath. In accordance with this theory of contempt for the people, the Locofoco press fondly cherishes the belief, that it can divert the enthusiasm of the masses from Gen. TAYLOR, to some one else. How entirely it mistakes the mind and the heart—the intelligence and the gratitude of the country—it will probably never learn until taught by the ballot-box

Locofocoism has been accustomed to make and unmake political idols, not worshipped, to be sure, by the million, but placed upon the altar of Democracy to be adored by the devout and credulous votaries of that faith. Because a VAN BUREN and a POLK were fabricated out of most unpromising materials, and converted for the nonce into heroes and exalted beyond the rest of the nation, it does not thence follow that the converse of the proposition holds good, and that Locofocoism can strip merit of its plumage and hurl genius and patriotism down in the mire of party ribaldry. Though it may raise a mortal to the skies, it cannot draw an angel down. The course pursued by the party ever since the nomination of General TAYLOR, is a notable exemplification of impotent spite. First, dreading the power and the popularity of his name, most of the Locofoco presses endeavored to dissuade the Whigs from his support, by denying the orthodoxy of his political principles. When proof upon proof of his Whiggery was accumulated, the dominant party began to assail him, decrying his qualities and disparaging the part he took in the immortal triumphs achieved by him on the battle-field. The popular sagacity, almost instinctive in its keenness, was not, however, to be baffled; and the attempt to divest GEN. TAYLOR of his claims to the character of a hero was a miserable abortion. Now, a final stratagem is proposed, viz: to let him alone—to try to extinguish the fire of enthusiasm by neglect—to let it die a natural death. This is the weakest of all the schemes yet tried, for it is based upon the capital error of depreciating the judgment and understanding of the people. It will prove an utter failure and cover its authors with scorn and contumely.

THE UNITED STATES AND BRAZIL.—We said yesterday, remarks the National Intelligencer, that we hoped there was no danger of our being involved in war with Brazil, whilst we have already on hand one War more than is either necessary, wise, or likely to add any thing to the national civil repute. On further consideration, indeed, of the rumors referred to by the intelligent correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, (which we quoted yesterday,) we are inclined to think there must be some misunderstanding on the subject. It was generally believed, six mont ago, that the unfortunate difference at Rio Janeiro between our officers and the Government of that country had been satisfactorily adjusted; and we have heard of no new outbreak to constitue the ground of further controversy.

With regard to the rumored intention of the Government of Brazil to recall the Chevalier DE LISBOA, the truly estimable and universally popular Representative of the Government of Brazil at this Government, if there were indeed any solid foundation for such a rumor, we should consider it an unhappy augury as to the disposition of the Brazilian Government to maintain, on its part, the friendly relations with the United States which have hitherto been so happily cultivated during his mission to this country.

Gen. Taylor.

The following is a copy of Gen. Taylor's letter acknowledging the reception of the resolutions adopted by the Legislature of Virginia at its late session:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF OCCUPATION,
Camp near Monterey, Mexico,
May 10th, 1847.

SIR: Your communication of February 22d, transmitting a copy of the resolutions adopted by the General Assembly of Virginia on the 9th of that month, was delivered to me by Col. Hauntramck.

It is with deep sensibility that I receive this evidence of approbation from a State to which I am attached by many ties, and I beg leave to return to the General Assembly, for myself and in behalf of the troops of my command, our heartfelt thanks.

Allow me, Sir, to express to you, personally, my acknowledgments for the flattering terms in which you have communicated the resolutions of the General Assembly.

I have the honor to be,
Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Z. TAYLOR,
Maj. Gen U. S. Army.

Hon. WILLIAM SMITH, Governor of Virginia, Richmond, Va.

SWIFT TRAVELLING.—On the occasion of the opening of the Birkenhead Docks, at Liverpool, a train of seven large cars left London at six o'clock in the morning, and reached Liverpool, a distance of 212 miles, at 12 o'clock, M. There was some delay owing to the heated state of the gearing, but the speed attained for the whole distance was exactly forty miles per hour; including stoppages, thirty-five miles per hour.—One mile was run at the rate of sixty-one miles per hour. The train left Liverpool on its return at twenty-four minutes past six in the afternoon, and arrived at London at eighteen minutes past twelve—thus making the round trip—424 miles —in eleven hours and fifty-four minutes.

RETURNED VOLUNTEERS.—The U. S. steam ship Edith, from Vera Cruz and Sisaos Santiago, brought the following passengers:

From Vera Cruz—Capt. J. R. Selman, Capt. C. V. Elliott, Lieut. H. F. Carthage, and 6 discharged teamsters.

From Sisaos—Capt. Wm. Hill's company, Capt. Gaddis' company, and Ex-Governor Smith.

The Cavalry companies of Capts. Kendall, Monroe, Capt. Vest, Monaghan, Hamilton's Department, and S. T. Taylor.

NORTH CAROLINA.—James M. Begle, Senior, is a candidate for Congress in the Salisbury district, in opposition to Mr. Boyden. They are both Whigs.

We do not know whether Old Zach has any musical taste, but the following from the N. Y. Age proves that bands have already strung their harps to him:

THE FINE OLD SOUTHERN GENTLEMAN.

Air—"Fine old English Gentleman."

Long you an honest lay, made by an honest pair,
Of a fine old Southern gentleman, who owns a fine estate;
And who, in peace or war, or both, has ever been first rate,
And an honor to old KENTUCK, his noble native state—
A fine old Southern gentleman—one of the present time.

He isn't like your "nice young men"—poor dandy Broadway beaux—
With smell of Gouraud's "eau jasmine," and all kinds of rose—
And pluck, in true Parisian bosom, their exercise tend to—
He never "cut a swell"—a friend—or ought but fighting free,
This fine old Southern gentleman—one of the modern times.

When of war would the blood run cold at the sound,
When Bugle's yell,
Or Reveille" sound woke death and blood, and mangled wheels well—
Nor was the voice of clarity o'er driven from his heart,
Which still doth beat, 'mid every scene, fair mercy's counterpart,
Of a fine old Southern gentleman—one of the present time.

He never shrunk, in time of war, the bullets parading
Or heeded all the splendors of some General's of parade:
He fought with guts of soldiers, who of hasty "sogue" were made,
And proved that volunteers, with him, some laurels won
The fighting trade
Of the fine old Southern gentleman—one of the present time.

City Intelligence.

The General Council will meet this evening, at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of appointing inspectors of election to preside at the polls at the next election of Assessors, which will take place on the 12th of July, next.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning last, an individual named Theodore, employed in the planing establishment of Mr. F. Williams, situated in the 3d Municipality, was severely wounded by having his wrist sawed off by the circular saw.

OUTRAGEOUS.—A negro slave named Philip, belonging to Mr. Daubert, was arrested yesterday by the 3d Municipality police for attempting to commit violence on the person of a white woman, named Hannah Johnson.—Recorder Seurreneau will examine the case this morning.

SERIOUS BEATING.—Alex. Terhoff was brought up yesterday before Recorder Genois, charged with having severely beaten and assaulted a poor defenceless woman named Marie Rodger, who is now lying in the hospital from the blows she has received.—Recorder Genois has postponed the investigation of the case.

ARREST OF A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE.—Henry R. Cleff, was arrested on Monday last, by officer Petrie, of the 2d Municipality police, on a charge of having committed some time ago a murder in Alexandria, Louisiana, and of having fled from justice.—Recorder Baldwin committed the prisoner in jail, where the proper authorities may claim him.

RECORDER GENOIS.—A great number of offenders for assault and battery were held yesterday before Recorder Genois, and were of arrest issued against the parties. His Honor was busily engaged in hearing the testimony in all these cases.

RECORDER BALDWIN.—There was but little to do in the police court, examined but one individual when he committed for trial before the first district Court, on a charge of assault and battery.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—John and William Smith, William Burr alias Pat Terry, Juan Pulao and Ramsh Bovee, were put upon their trial on distinct charges of larceny. They were all found guilty.

ARRESTED.—Francis Hannah was yesterday arrested by officer Petrie, of the 2nd Municipality police, on a charge of carrying away from Mr. John Brown the sum of $90. Dominick Reynolds was also arrested for aiding and abetting said Francis Hannah, the prisoner is, moreover, charged with assault and battery on the person of Mr. Robert Brown, the brother of John Brown. Mr. Robert W. Brown was detected for having in his possession a blunderbuss of the largest size, supposed to have been stolen —The prisoners will be examined this morning before Recorder Baldwin.

COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. 2.—The Council met last evening for the transaction of business. Recorder Baldwin in the chair

The weekly report of the treasurer was read as follows:

Balance on hand last report,	$6,021 51
Amount received since,	$12,491 45
	$18,512 96
Disbursed this week,	$12,256 44
Balance on hand,	$6,156 52

A petition numerously signed by several merchants was read, praying that the license be taken from the coffee house situated on the south west corner of Gravier and New Levee streets —said petition was referred to the Recorder with power to act.

A petition from Mr. Bryan Corcoran, the contractor for cleaning the streets of the 3d district, praying for relief, was read and referred to the committee on streets and landings.

Mr. Renshaw, from the committee on streets and landings, reported in favor of the prayer of Mr. Fergus Gardere, for furnishing lumber to the Municipality. A resolution to that effect was presented and adopted.

Mr. Rodgers, from the police committee, to whom had been referred a petition of a certain free woman of color, praying to remain in this Municipality, reported against it—adopted.

The same member, on behalf of the same committee, reported a resolution granting permission to an individual to erect a steam engine in some part of Magazine street—adopted.

The resolution to which was then had been referred the petition of John Crow, a cab driver, praying that the fines imposed upon him by several judgments rendered against him by Justice Bright, be remitted, was taken favorably to the prayer of the petition; provided that the said John Crow pay the costs of Court. This report was adopted.

Mr. Gleason's resolution repealing that part of the Ordinance which imposes a fine of $100 on all persons who shall have encumbered the Levee, was, on motion of Mr. Peters, referred to the committee on streets and landings.

The Council then adjourned after passing a resolution granting leave of absence to Alderman Howard for one month.

NEW WORKS.—We are indebted to J. B. Steel, No. 14 Camp street, for a copy of "Picciola," the prisoner of Fenestrelle; or Captivity Captive. It is published by Lea & Blanchard in a remarkably neat and attractive style. "Picciola" is an exquisite little tale written by M. Saintine, and is distinguished by the purest morality, a refined and delicate taste, a tender and chastened fancy, and a fervor of religious devotion that tinges every thought with piety. It has assumed the position of a classic, has been translated into the language of almost every civilized nation, and has passed through numberless editions. It is a story in which poetry sheds its softest and mildest tints over calamity, and the inspirations of piety hallow sufferings with a regard that extracts happiness out of misfortune.

From J. C. Morgan, of the Literary Depot, we acknowledge the receipt of Part 3d of that comical story, "The Greatest Plague of my Life," and a new novel entitled, "Dombey and Daughter." Also, No. 28 of that admirable publication, "The Pictorial History of England."

MANDEVILLE COLLEGE.—This establishment, was entirely consumed by fire, the night before last. All the pupils were saved, without the smallest accident, though the fire originated in one of the dormitories. Mr. R. Constant, a professor in the College, brought all the pupils back to their parents in the city.

It is said that the buildings, &c., were insured for about $10,000.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—One of our worthy physicians, while engaged in writing at his dwelling a few evenings since, was aroused by a low noise very near him, like the report of a musket. On looking up he perceived that a valuable looking-glass plate, very large and thick, was split across, a foot or more from the bottom. It was soon after discovered that the plate was broken by the heat of a solar lamp, which stood near it in front.—Boston Advertiser.

HOGS IN THE UNITED STATES.—The Tennessee Farmer says that "the hog crop in the United States, this past year, is three times the worth of the cotton crop. The 'standing army' of swine consumes annually two hundred millions of bushels of corn."

Prenticiana.

☞ Has Wick the Locofoco candidate for Congress in the Indianapolis (In) district, yet proposed to our Government the terms on which he is willing to whip Mexico? He promised to whip her by contract, and we hope, as Mr. Polk has failed thus far to bring her to terms, that Wick will now take the job off the hands of the Administration. After he shall have performed his part of the contract successfully, his prospect of a seat in Congress will be much brighter than it now is.

We do not know whether Wick's plan is or is not identical with that of Henley, who said, that at the head of half a dozen old women with rolling pins, he could whip all Mexico—make a clean sweep, we suppose.

☞ A few days ago, a Locofoco candidate for Congress in Alabama denounced Mr. Benton in a public speech as "a feculent mass of corruption." Well, if Benton is "a feculent mass of corruption," what sort of it "mass" must Mr. Polk be, who tried to make the greatest Locofoco of the present day subject to the command over Taylor and Scott, and to entrust to him, so far as Mexico is concerned, the whole management of all the military and diplomatic operations of the United States!!!

☞ The editor of the Vermont Democrat describes Democracy as having "one foot on the Alleghanies and the other on the Rocky mountains." This beats Santa Anna himself, who just at present, has one foot in New Orleans and the other somewhere near the city of Mexico.

Hasn't Democracy got one wooden leg?

☞ Chapman of the Indiana Sentinel says he is "not afraid to tell the truth." He had better not venture too rashly upon such an untried experiment. It might be the death of him.

☞ For what warlike exploit was Mr. Marcy appointed Secretary of War?—Alb. Jour.

Some think that it was for his unprecedented charge upon the State of New York.

A LARGE FEE.—A judgement of $15,000 was awarded, a few days since, in Philadelphia, against the Bank of Kentucky, in favor of Gen. Leslie Combs of that State. The facts of the case are as those mentioned by the New York Commercial Advertiser:

"It may be remembered that shares of Kentucky Bank stock, to an immense amount, were fraudulently sold by one Hoses J. Levis, then cashier of the Schuylkill Bank, at Philadelphia, and kept there by the Kentucky Bank. When the fraud was discovered, Levis fled to Texas. The Kentucky Bank brought action against the Schuylkill Bank for restitution of the shares, alleging that the Schuylkill Bank was responsible for the acts of its officers. Whatever may be the opinion in regard to this matter, the jury, after a long investigation, gave a verdict under the instructions of the court of inquiry. All the parties are merchants of Philadelphia, and of the highest respectability.—Philadelphia Courier and Gazette.

The Union calls General SANTA ANNA the ally of the Whigs; but the Union must not expect to pass off its damaged goods on its subscribers. It was Bonaparte, and not Santa Anna, that sent Santa Anna to Mexico to head her armies and with the intention that he should do so. If that stroke of policy has turned out a bad speculation, the Government must not hope to evade its responsibility by so transparent a trick as the organ attempts to play off. What the Executive could promise itself in gifting Santa Anna to get back to Mexico to fight her battles, we have never been able to conjecture. It is a riddle which the Government has not designed to solve, and which we suspect it cannot solve. Whatever the motive, the friends of the Administration admit that it was a blunder—a well meant one, they say, yet still a blunder. But they go further; they do not say what was hoped or expected from it. Now, we do not choose to bear the responsibility of the blunders of the Administration, whether well or ill meant, and so the Administration and its worthy organ must fain keep Santa Anna to themselves.—National Intelligencer.

ANOTHER DISASTER.—On Monday night, the 7th inst., about six miles below Contreau, the steamer Constellation bound up, came in collision with the snow schooner Rough and Ready, bound down, with a cargo of flour, corn and seed, and the latter was sunk. The crew of the schooner, on discovering the sinking condition of the vessel, succeeded in getting aboard the steamer and were taken to Contreau. The property on board the schooner was consigned to R. H. Heywood, and we believe was not insured.—Buff Com Adv.

HAIL STORM.—A dreadful hail storm passed over a part of the county and the country of Davidson, on last Sabbath evening, destroying all kinds of crops that happened in its immediate track, corn excepted, which it is thought will recover from the injuries it sustained. The cotton crops of Mr. D. L. Torrence and Rev. Finis McDonald, were so completely destroyed, that they are now planting their fields in corn. We have heard of one dwelling in this county, which was partly torn to pieces by the storm, and one barn that was utterly destroyed. Hail stones in the track of this storm, were completely blocked up by fallen trees, and broken fence.—Salisbury (N. C.) Watchman 11th inst.

NEW YORK, June 21, 6, P. M.

The Flour market has been quiet this morning, and as the time approaches for the receipt of later European news, there is an upward tendency, with some demand for both shipping and speculation. The sales to-day amount to about 10,000 barrels at $6 75 for Genesee brands.

There has been a fair enquiry for Wheat, the demand being principal for mixed. The sales to-day amount to 10,000 bushels at $1 90@$1, according to quality.

Corn continues without change and in good enquiry. The sales to day amount to 40,000 bushels, at $1 15 for mixed, and at 1s6d@1 20 for yellow.

The market for Rye is dull, with sales of small lots at 112@120 cts.
