Disasters.

BRIG ASHORE.—The brig Indian Queen, Captain Varney, of Calais, Me., from Chagres 30th December, with eighty-five passengers for this port, and made the N. E. Pass on the 8th inst. At 4 o'clock P. M. she stood in, within a half mile of the light until half past five o'clock, saw no pilot or towboat. Then backed ship and stood off, the weather looking very bad, and the wind blowing fresh from the South-East. During the night a heavy fog arose. The next morning, the 9th inst, saw a schooner standing W. N. W., cotton loaded. Between 4 and 5 o'clock P. M saw the sand, went aloft and saw the breakers on the Chandeleurs. Then backed ship and stood to the southward and eastward, set smooth with light winds, and at 10 o'clock P. M. went ashore in Round Island Bay, near the mouth of Pass A La Outre, in three feet water. The brig is owned in Calais, (Me) and is 190 tons burthen. The steamer J T Doswell, Capt. Latour, went to her assistance on the morning of the 12th inst, and took off the captain, crew and passengers, and brought them to this city yesterday.
