Eminent Physicians ENDORSE

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

PHYSICIANS are naturally and properly very careful in their recommendations of proprietary remedies. A medicine having such unqualified endorsement as the following is well worthy of trial by sufferers to whose ailments it seems adapted:

DR. J. E. HEARN, 216 East Monument St., Baltimore, Md., says:

"I use Brown's Iron Bitters in my practice. I never saw a medicine act so promptly and give such good results, and I do not know of any preparation that affords so much satisfaction."

DR. J. WM. WELSH, 493 West Fayette St., Baltimore, Md., says:

"I have used Brown's Iron Bitters and its effect was all I could desire. My mother, who is quite an aged lady, also used it for indigestion and dyspepsia and it did her more good than anything she has ever taken. I highly recommend it."

DR. E. HALL RUTLEDGE, 108 Asquith St., Baltimore, Md., says:

"I do not know any better preparation. I use it in my practice and have two patients taking it now, one a young man just recovering from a severe attack of malarial fever, and the other a lady suffering from general debility and nervous prostration."

DR. E. C. WATSON, graduate of the Virginia Medical Institute, residing cor. of Fremont and Lexington Sts., Baltimore, Md., says:

"I have made a personal test of the medicinal qualities of Brown's Iron Bitters, and consider it a genuine and reliable tonic. The iron properties are easy of assimilation, its effect upon the system is strengthening and the medicine would undoubtedly prove beneficial in wasting diseases."

DR. JOHN MORRIS, 5 Franklin St., Baltimore, Md., says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a splendid medicine. Many of my patients are using it for dyspepsia, debility and malarial disorders. When I find they require a good tonic I let them take Brown's Iron Bitters."

DR. J. D. SUTHERLAND, 220 E. Monument St., Baltimore, Md., says:

"Having used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family I take pleasure in recommending it in cases of dyspepsia, indigestion and general debility and as a first-class strengthening tonic."

DR. FRANK H. RUHL, Sharp and Montgomery Sts., Baltimore, Md., says:

"I am pleased to recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as a cure for dyspepsia, nervous debility, constipation, malaria and other attending ills."

DR. IRWIN H. ELDERDICE, of Baltimore, Md., says:

"I would recommend a trial of Brown's Iron Bitters in all cases of anaemic debility or where a tonic or appetizer is needed."

DR. J. L. MYERS, of Fairfield, Iowa, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is the best iron preparation I have ever known in my thirty years of practice. I consider it a most excellent addition to the Materia Medica, and one that should receive the endorsement of the whole medical profession."

DR. J. C. STOREWOOD, Huntsville, Ala., says:

"I highly recommend Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia, rheumatism and general debility."

DR. M. M. CROOM, of Dardanelle, Ark., says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine in the world and is effective in malarious cases."

DR. N. S. REGOLES, of Marion, Mass., says:

"I recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as a valued tonic for enriching the blood and removing all dyspeptic symptoms. It does not hurt the teeth."

DR. G. N. ROBERSON, of Elm Grove, N. C., says:

"I prescribe Brown's Iron Bitters and find it all it is recommended to be."

What Baltimore Druggists Say About Brown's Iron Bitters.

Most Popular Where Best Known.

We ordinarily ask no better commendation of an individual than that he be heartily recommended by those who, having known him from early youth, have had opportunities for familiar acquaintance at home. Judged by this severe standard stands out in bold prominence among proprietary remedies as the one which is MOST POPULAR AT HOME. It originated and has always been prepared a Baltimore. Its proprietors are numbered among Baltimore's oldest and best known citizens. Their reputation was sufficient guaranty of its purity and worth to secure for it an introduction there. Genuine merit has done the rest. Today no preparation is so favorably known in Baltimore as Brown's Iron Bitters. Leading Physicians Popular Clergymen and Prominent Citizens join in endorsing it—their endorsement, too, is hearty and unequivocal.

Below we give the testimony of prominent Baltimoreans. In our next announcement we shall give the opinions of leading Baltimore Druggists.

More Good Words FOR BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

In previous announcements we have given, in their own language, the opinions entertained about Brown's Iron Bitters by leading Physicians, by prominent Clergymen, by well-known citizens, of Baltimore, where this excellent medicine is prepared, and where its popularity is unparalleled, and finally by many of other eminent citizens, who, speaking from their own experience, have told of the very marked benefit which the use of Brown's Iron Bitters has brought to them. To-day we ask you to read still further testimony, all from Southern people who have used the medicine, and all received within the past few weeks. If you are feeling poorly, and are disposed to try Brown's Iron Bitters, you can obtain it from any reputable druggist. There are, however, preparations containing Iron, from the sale of which the Druggist obtains a greater profit than he can make on Brown's Iron Bitters. For this reason some may try to persuade you that something else is just as good. Do not be deceived. Brown's Iron Bitters is the only Iron medicine which does not blacken the teeth, produce headache, or cause constipation. The Price of the genuine Brown's Iron Bitters is $1.00 per bottle. TOLLED BY A DOG.

A Faithful Animal Who Tried To Do His Dead Master's Work.

"A cat can get along without friends if he is an intelligent dog," said a Jackson street bookkeeper, yesterday, as a reporter entered his office. The bookkeeper touched a fur rug at his feet, which got up and showed itself to be a dog.

"Dinner time, old fellow," he said, pointing to a low table standing against the wall. "I shall never forget the cockeroo reminiscence. He had buttoned his coat and was just about to sleep for lunch, when a new life and village where a small stone church stood beside a little weather-stained cottage. A middle-aged man, the sexton, had died. He had cultivated the hopes and fears of his youth, and was particularly fond of the companionship of his darling. It was a familiar sight to see him looking back and forth from his cottage, always accompanied by
