DIARRHŒA CORDIAL

THE valuable medicines above named, arrested sympathy, and have appended to them the signatures of real living witnesses, who will testify to the experience of some 97 the most learned and judicious practitioners, and are now so popular that imitation is necessary attendance, and those who use them from fashion and imposition, as the component parts have been false and deleterious, or from time to time, to perhaps

500 PHYSICIANS!!!

In Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia, Ohio, and Louisiana, all of whom, without a single exception, have approved of the formula, and most of them acknowledge that they are the best remedies that they have ever known for the cure of the disease for which they are recommended. In fact, the evidence of their efficacy, added to our desire to avoid the last prejudice of the medical profession against secret and quack nostrums, induced us to adopt this candid course. We append a few of the notices we have received from Physicians, viz:

From Dr. William H. Farrow, of Snow Hill, Md.

Gentlemen:—I have frequently in my practice prescribed your "Stabler's Anodyne Cherry Expectorant" and "Diarrhœa Cordial," with great satisfaction to myself, and to the entire relief of many patients I have my profession cure. I consider them happy combinations of some of the most valuable and safe therapeutical agents, and must be of infinite worth to the afflicted and mankind at large. In combining the medicinal properties with these active and concentrated preparations, so convenient for administration, and of a standard quality, you have rendered them an accurate service, and I consider them earnestly recommend these preparations to practitioners, and especially to the Medical Faculty, and impurity of commercial Drugs is one of the greatest obstacles to the success of the Physician.

Dear W. B. Love writes to us that he has administered
