TO DR. MAGNIN, inventor of the 'Lucina cordial, or Elixir of Love'

"Respected and honored sir—We have all, in a variety of cases, tested the remarkable effect of your great discovery, and have assembled for the purpose of bearing evidence to the facts, and tendering you the honor which is your due. The "Lucina cordial" is, in our opinion, an infallible remedy for the prostration of the procreant functions, and artificial barrenness, and therefore must prove a blessing to the human race. We can also bear evidence that there is nothing in it of a mercurial or deleterious nature; and, in short, that it is one of the noblest medicinal discoveries of any age.

"With feelings of admiration and respect, we remain, dear sir, your obedient servants,

JOSSELIN BOSSUIT,
SIGISMOND DE LA MARTINE,
ADRIEN DECRAND,
OCTAVE NICOLS,

"LE CORDIAL DE LUCINE," or, in English, "the Lucina cordial," is a general invigorator of the human frame. In all the various cases of languor, lassitude, and debilitation, it is an unfailing remedy: as it is equally its province to impart cheerfulness and decision to the mind, as health and vigour to the body. Hut the peculiar virtue on which its celebrity is based, is the facility and certainty with which it restores the virile powers, when they have been destroyed by diseases, time, recklessness, or any of the numerous causes which terminate in the prostration of those functions.

In common with the generality of really good medicines, this cordial contains nothing of a mercurial or deleterious nature, among the many ingredients which compose it; but is, at the same time, as simple, yet as efficacious, that while it can renovate the prostrated energies of a giant, an infant may use it, not only with safety, but with advantage.

The usages of society are unfortunately such, that, notwithstanding the benefits which would be sure to result from it, we cannot enter into an analysis of this inestimable cordial here, or publish many of the documents which have been received as vouchers of the blessings it has conferred on numbers of despairing individuals. But this we cannot forbear remarking—that it has been demonstrated that there is scarcely ever, if ever, any such thing at all, as natural barrenness, as natural imbecility of the procreant functions, in either sex; and therefore, that those evils are the effects of artificial causes, and may be speedily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucine."

The Lucina cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the floor albus, obstructed, difficult, or painful menstruation, also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of chronic eruptions of the skin, and in the dropsical affections of the lungs.

For sale wholesale or retail, at 65 Poydras street. Price $4 per bottle.

COUNTERFEIT.—The public is respectfully informed that one of the basest and most despicable counterfeits ever attempted has lately been brought to light in the city of New York, by the manufacturers of that most deservedly popular medicine known "Brandreth's Tonic Mixture," for fever and ague.

We have but just put down an imitation called "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," by L. S. Comstock & Co., when another, still more dangerous, makes its appearance from the store of "Seaman & Brothers," No. 105 Water street, N. Y., in which the fac simile of the long established wrapper, and the name of the real article infringed upon—his certificates copied—and, in fact, imitated in such a manner, that from its outward appearance, it can scarcely be detected. We would also say, that we have commenced a suit, in the United States court, for damages for this "piracy," upon our rights, and request dealers to be very careful of whom they purchase the article, unless its source can be directly traced to the proprietor, or some one of his general agents, as this counterfeit is calculated to deceive the unwary public on the 30 day, 1839, and the properties transferred unincumbered to the just named gentlemen as trustees for the security of the fortunate prize holders.

In New York the monies will be deposited in the Phœnix Bank to be credit at the above named five City Banks of New Orleans.

The public are referred to the sale of sale before A. Maurureau, Esq. notary public, in relation to the properties which embraces the respective prizes in this lottery.
