NOMINATION OF PRESIDENTIAL CONVENTION FOR PRESIDENT

WILLIAM H. HARRISON,

OF VIRGINIA.

FOR GOVERNOR

JOHN TYLER,

OF VIRGINIA.

FOR GOVERNOR

HENRY JOHNSON,

SUBJECT OF THE WHITE STAR CONVENTION.

LOUISIANA ELECTORAL TICKET.
To District—WILLIAM HARRISON, New Orleans; LEONARD BARKER, Lake Charles; BETH LEWIS, Lake St. Louis.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUG. 13, 1868.

THE SUB-TREASURY BILL.

The administration, after having forced this bill through Congress in May, and after having received the signature of the president, has displayed an unusual degree of activity in putting its various measures into immediate execution. The executive branch of the government has been very busy since the inauguration, and the treasury department has been particularly active in carrying out the provisions of the sub-treasury bill.

The bill provides for the construction of a "treasury building" at New Orleans, and for the purchase of land for the same. It also provides for the construction of a "treasury building" at New Orleans, and for the purchase of land for the same. It also provides for the construction of a "treasury building" at New Orleans, and for the purchase of land for the same.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

NEW ORLEANS, August 13, 1868.

The market for cotton is very active, and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago. The demand for cotton is increasing, and the supply is becoming more limited. The price of cotton is now about 15 cents per pound, and is expected to continue to rise.

The market for sugar is also very active, and prices are generally higher than they were some time ago. The demand for sugar is increasing, and the supply is becoming more limited. The price of sugar is now about 10 cents per pound, and is expected to continue to rise.
