TOTAL.....ten thousand dollars,	$10,000

For the management of the affairs of the said company there shall be seven persons, viz: a President, a Secretary, a Foreman, two Assistants, a Treasurer, a Secretary and a Steward; and a majority of the same shall constitute a quorum sufficient to administer, settle and transact all the business concerning the interest of the company, to sell, to purchase, to accept donations, to settle and to pay or to receive all accounts, to give mortgages and to consent to the same, and to be able to have continual succession and to do all deeds and contracts, and all other powers which may be given to them by the rule and bye-laws, and all deeds and contracts shall be signed by the President and the Secretary.

The members of the said Board shall be elected annually on the eighteenth day of May, and the same may be re-elected and their time of holding shall continue until the members elected be put in their respective places, provided that in case it should happen that an election should not be made to take effect at the fixed day, it shall be lawful at another time to make such election, and for want of election the company shall be never considered as dissolved.

The said holders subscribing these presents, have the right of transfering their shares in the said company, so far as every one be reduced to have one share, and every share shall be indivisible, but the shares are and remain inalienable and cannot be transfered. Every stockholder who shall cease to be a member of the company by death, resignment, long absence, strain or other cause, shall cause his shares, which become the property of the company.

The capital stock of said company may be increased to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars, by additional capital of fifteen thousand dollars, divided into one hundred and *fifty shares of one hundred dol*lars each share, subject to the same rules as provided for in these presents, and proved by one complementary subscription; and when the capital stock shall be so increased it may be joined with the said company divisions or sections of fire companies, or some branches necessary to fire engine as ladders, hooks, hoses, axes; and each of said branches shall have its special officers elected as well as those of the fire engine by the general meeting of the stockholders duly called, provided that each stockholders is entitled to one vote only.

This association is made for the term of five years from the date of these presents, and at the time when it is to expire it shall be liquidated by the officers then acting as such, and whose services shall continue until the final liquidation, with all the necessary powers to the said liquidation and no others.

And whereas the said company is formed for the good of the public weal only, no dividend shall be paid to the stockholders, and all the sums paid to the Treasurer for whatever cause may be, shall be after payment of the expenses, exclusively employed to deeds of charity, and for any reason cannot be employed otherwise.

Every three months the President shall call a general meeting of the stockholders, to which it shall be presented a general statement of the company affairs.

Thus done and passed at New Orleans, in the office on the day and year first above written, in presence of Charles Victor Foulon and Edmond Fauchet, both witnesses hereto required and residing in this city, who have signed together with the said Notary and the appearers, after having read the whole.
