New York, Punnsy.vania, Ohio, Illinois, Mici accession from the Democratic ranks, who should there be a closed on his horizon, and why should true and fastistic Whige sutertain the sightest apprehension of his defeat? The rea-son is obvious. They fear not the strength o the Democratic party, but they dread the con-sequences of disaffection, lukawarmosss o

This then is the only dark spot that dime the prospect. The Locolotop party themselves a tow that if Franklin Pirker stood upon his own merits, and relied excharintly no political organizations ascores, he would be hopelessly disconsisted. They look to Whig dissension and whig colliness for their trinuph. But we believe they will be disappointed. We believe that the difficulties that have divided the Whige and to some cattest parallized their efforts, have nearly disappeared—that those who under the sore nees of disappointment held themselves also from their triends, and refused to lend a cordisismenter to the candidate, have taken helter countries. support to the candidate, have taken better cour

These considerations naturally lead us to the main subject of our article. What is the duty of the Whigs? It may be summed up almost in a sentence. The plain and palpable duty of the Whigs is to unite heart and hand, to work seakously and willimpty, to give to SCOTT and URAHAM an efficient and manip support—to vote themselves and then to reduce the aleggin, and indifferent to vote themselves. vote the ancives and then to induce the singgist and indifferent to wote likewise. Much may be accomplished, if every Whig in New Orleans proposes to himself as a solemn duty to see that after despositing hu own vote in the ballot box, some friend who is dissentimed to vote, or will not take the trouble to go to the polls, be foliaced to follow his example. Few of us but know of one or two whom a kind word, or a little previous in will bring to the polls. Let us all such be properly approached, and the fail Whig vote of New Orleans will be cast. Vote for the New Constitution!

It is our forvent hope that, despite the violent effects of the enemies of the New Constitution, that instrument will be ratified by the citizens of Louisiana. But, to secure so desirable an object, the friends of the new organic law must beath themstelves to morrow. Activity and energy are absolutely required. The anti-coostitutionists are working with might and main to defeat it. They must be met and foiled. The insures at stake are unspeakably important, involving the fature welfare of Louisiana, and emphatically the progress and prosperity of New Trees, and the rewards for the means of earning his honest tread, can oppose a constitution, devised, as it were, expressly for the encouragement and protoction of enterprise, is a riddle that can only be solved by the prosumption that those who thus act, sin in ignormace and not in wilfshess. The time is nearly too short to enlighten them, lut this much we can say, and every man can receive it and pouder spon it as a fact of solemn import, that if

FF The following communication has been addressed to us from the parish of Plaquemine In publishing it we take occasion again to remark, that the Whigs of this city contemplate sending a steamboat to Plaquemine, for the purpose of watching the maneaverse of the leaders of the Democracy, and more particularly with a view of ascertaining whether fraud is practical, of marking those who are engaged in t, and of holding them up to public responsibility. We sak for nothing, but fair play, and are resolved to have it:

FREEDENTIAL PROFFECTS.

We are gratified in being able to assure our friends that the prespect for Gen. Scott's election is all that could be reasonably desired.—

Effort and energy are alone required to insure saccess. The elements of victory are all in our own hands. We have the principles which commend themselves to popular favor, and we have a candidate whose past sorvices and whose qualities of head and heart appeal to the popular affection.
