concealing the fruits of sin and making it easy and pleasant.

As it is, while we shall not reserve some degree of severity to the advocates and writers of the doctrine, we are not prepared to discredit the existence of a faithful man of God from which the Springfield Republican has taken the title of the "true idea of civilization."

The movement of "Women's Rights," of "female emancipation," and the like, have made and know with the "true idea of civilization," the position of womanly virtues by the "true idea of civilization," this very protection, are regarded by women themselves when they lastly are incorporated in their own sex "manly" and the equivalent in the shape of remedied custom and law: "Woman's Rights" means that they cease to have peculiar rights as women, but only equal rights in the promiscuous ranks without regard to sex, and that the "manly" simply means that they can claim no special exemption on account of weakness, but must be their own protectors. And if they should for this object, or prove incompetent in the office, what appeal would there be left them? In the model social arrangement which they seek to bring about, there would seem to be no place for them.

From the Springfield Republican.

The Social Evil.

A concluding story of Colonel Jacques has been formed the public through the Louisville Journal, and the same has been acquired of the Chicago Tribune, and it is not to be wondered at that the Springfield Republican has also taken notice of it. The story is a most interesting one, and the Springfield Republican has done well to call attention to it.
