NEW ORLEANS:

SUNDAY MORNING, NOV. 22, 1868.

HAVANA CIGARS.—Mr. L. C. Girault, whose office is at the corner of Carondelet and Union streets, announces that he has just received a large assortment of Havana cigars of favorite brands such as "La Exception," "La Merida," "Cabanas," etc., etc., which he will sell at reasonable prices. See advertisement elsewhere.

Judge John H. Isley, lately a member of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, has resumed the practice of the law and has opened an office at 127 Gravier street. See his card in our advertising columns.

FIRE STORE FOR RENT.—We are requested to call attention to the slightly situated store, No. 11 Baronne street, which is for rent from the 1st of January next, application to be made to Dr. E. Lamm on the premises. See announcement in our advertising columns.

COOPERAGE.—Mr. B. J. Berkery, 31, 32, and 33 Front street, between Conti and Bienville, calls the attention of planters and merchants to his large stock of molasses barrels and half barrels and sugar hogsheads, also hogshead and barrel hoop-poles, which he will dispose of at moderate prices and free of charge for cartage. See advertisement in another column.

THE FRENCH OPERA.—The audience last night was both large and brilliant, as is usual on Saturday, the performance being the favorite opera of "Faust," which was put upon the stage with the taste and completeness characteristic of the management. The orchestral performances on this and the opening night, called out the encomiums of everybody present, and many compliments were paid to the really able leadership of that indefatigable chief—Mr. Calabresi.

Mr. Van Hulflen, in his great character of Mephistopheles, was inimitable. He seems to have made it a deep study, and we must say his conception comes up to the general idea the public have of that visionary, if not real personage. Goethe's creation has few better interpreters than our favorite baso.

Mr. Engel appeared in the role of Faust, which was selected for his introduction to a New Orleans audience. Mr. Engel is an artist of no ordinary talents and we think is destined to make his mark here. His voice is soft and well modulated and his acting impassioned.

Miss Hasselmann, as Marguerite, was charming, and it is a good deal to say that her rendition of the character went far to obliterate our recollection of her predecessor of last season on this stage. Miss Hasselmann confirmed last night the favorable impression derived from her performance of Mathilde on Thursday evening. The same observation may be made respecting the performance of Mr Peront as Valentin, who may consider himself secure in the good opinion of our musical critics. He is possessed of a powerful and well trained voice which he knows how to use to effect. Mr Calabresi is justified in believing "Faust" to be a decided success. It will be repeated on Monday evening with the same distribution.

To-night the drama in 5 acts and 7 tableaux of "La Closerie Des Genets," in which the strength of the Dramatic Company will appear.

Messrs. Morsan, Gravier, Julien, Chamonin Dubois, Mesdames Morsan, Gay-Cave, Alix Farnat, Bonenpet, Kerkel, Chamonin and others.

110 LISPENARD ST.,
NEW YORK, October 13, 1867.

DEAR SIR.—It is with much pleasure that I say to you that I consider the PLANTATION BITTERS of untold value. In the fall of 1867 I was taken with Chills and Fever, with the most severe pains in my chest and head. It was with great difficulty that I could breathe. My lungs were greatly distressed, and there was severe pain in my right side, by spells. I could hardly get up from my bed. I called a Doctor, who attended me all winter without the least benefit. About the first of August I commenced using your PLANTATION BITTERS—a wine-glass full three times a day—and have used it most of the time since, and I am now well and strong, able to do all my own work and the care of a large family.

Yours, &c., SUSAN WILSON.

THE THREE MILLION ORDINANCE—AN ELECTION ORDERED.—The following proclamation has been issued by Mayor Conway:

Proclamation by the Mayor.

MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS, }
City Hall, Nov. 21, 1868. }

WHEREAS, The Common Council of the city of New Orleans, by authority of law, having passed an ordinance for the redemption and absorption of the various issues of city treasury notes and the relief of the finances of said city to be submitted to the approval or disapproval of the qualified voters of said city at a special election, conducted in accordance with existing laws and ordinances; and

Whereas, The said ordinance having been approved by me and promulgated according to the provisions of the city charter;

Now, therefore, I, John R. Conway, Mayor of the city of New Orleans, by virtue of the power vested in me, and conformably to the provisions of said ordinance, a true copy of which is hereby appended, do issue this my proclamation submitting the same to the qualified voters of the city of New Orleans for their approval or disapproval, for which purpose the polls will be opened in the various precincts of the wards established for voters at the late election, said election to be held on SATURDAY, the fifth day of December, A. D. 1868, and said polls to be opened from seven o'clock A. M. until six o'clock P. M. of said day, and the returns made to the Mayor, agreeably to section seven of said ordinance.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the city of New Orleans, this twenty first day of November, A. D. 1868. JOHN R. CONWAY, Mayor.

OUR GAINS.—Besides electing Democratic Governors this year in New York and New Jersey, the Democracy of the Union have carried thirty-one members of Congress, as follows:

Alabama	2 New York
Georgia	3 Ohio
Indiana	1 Ohio
Illinois	1 Pennsylvania
Kentucky	1 South Carolina
Missouri	1 Delaware
Maryland	1 Delaware
New Jersey	Total

The probabilities are that the Radicals will have from fifteen to eighteen less than a two third majority in the House.

THE VOTE.—The New York World gives the following figures as representing the votes of the two parties in the recent election:

	Seymour.	Grant.
Northern States voting in '68	2,285,926	2,357,905
Same States voting in '64	417,976	417,976
Southern States not voting in '68	344,876	119,977
Difference	345,281	.....
Total	3,356,083	3,197,416
Majority for Seymour	158,667

In addition to the wholesale disfranchisement of Democrats, the Republican party by Congressional enactment, has enfranchised 1,000,000 negroes in the Southern swamps and cane, and to these votes such majorities as the party has received in the Southern States are chiefly due.

THE COOLIE TRADE OPENED IN TEXAS.—The Galveston Civilian of the 4th instant makes the following remarkable statement:

"Although it may be a matter of surprise to our readers, it is nevertheless true, that Messrs Hildebrandner & Co., of the city, have just received a consignment of coolies, direct from China. They were shipped direct to the port under ordinary bills of lading, and are regarded by the firm as simple merchandize, to be sold for freight and charges. Two-thirds of these persons are females, one of whom is said to be very beautiful. They are to be disposed of at auction. In California and Mexico coolies are quite common, but this invoice, we believe, is the first ever received in Texas. What the result of it will be remains to be seen.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—It is worthy of mention, says the Richmond Dispatch, as one of the signs of the times, that the Richmond Whig, which is controlled now by a distinguished gentleman who was one of its proprietors when John Hampden Pleasants was its chief editor, declares in a recent issue that it believes that the bulk of the people of Virginia would be willing to extend the right of suffrage to negroes if the result unavoidable, and not because it considers the negro fit for the ballot.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Reportorial Repertory.—A well-dressed man, accompanied by a woman of genteel appearance, walked into the new Ecrn Saloon No. 17 St. Charles street, and while the former quietly took a glass of ale, which he duly paid for, the latter complaisantly stood by his side while he drank it. The woman, in the meantime, casually observed the peculiar surroundings of the place, and the twain walked out together, evidently satisfied, and, of course, to the astonishment of a number of parties present.

The beauty which paraded the streets in female attire yesterday was positively charming, especially at a late hour in the forenoon on the north side of Canal street.

As we were passing along Baronne street, late last evening, near Dalord, we were struck with the vaunted independence of a good-looking girl, who was carrying a chair on her head. She did'nt care, she said, and when she got tired she was prepared to sit down where she pleased.

Miss Theresa Cannon, assisted by a number of ladies and gentlemen, is to give a concert Monday evening, Nov. 30, in the new Odd Fellows Hall, for the benefit of the Society of St. Vincent's Poor.

Hon. T. J. Semmes will lecture to-morrow evening in St Alphonse Hall, on St. Andrew street, for the benefit of the Society of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

The Warehouse and Elevator Company will be in operation to-morrow.

Academy of Music—Mlle Turnour had a splendid benefit last night. She reappears to-night and to-morrow night again. The burlesque "White Fawn" is to be repeated on both occasions.

Amati Museum.—Go and see the world of wonders at the Museum, No. 42 St. Charles street, opposite the St. Charles Hotel.

Under the Gas Light."—This play is to be repeated Monday evening at the Varieties.

Rousseau Guards Pic Nic.—There will be a picnic to-day, commencing at 2 o'clock, at the lower Cotton Press, under the auspices of the Rousseau Guards for the relief of about four hundred orphans of the St Mary's Orphan Asylum. Admission for gentlemen 50 cents, ladies and children free.

Fifth District Court—Judge Lozano.—On the application of Oscar J. Dunn, the colored Lieutenant Governor of Louisiana, who, in that capacity, under the law, acted as claiming the office of President of the Metropolitan Board of Police, as well as Lieutenant Governor of Louisiana, an injunction was yesterday ordered by Judge Lozano restraining and to restrain Mr. Diamond, whom Mayor Conway appointed Chief of Police, from exercising or even attempting to exercise the functions of that office.

Suicide.—A man named Pierre Ferdinand Dietrich, committed suicide about half past 3 o'clock last evening, at his dry goods store, corner of Canal and Toulouse street. Coroner Avilla was notified. The jury gave a verdict accordingly. The cause of the act is not, so far, known. He left a memoranda on his table, written in French, saying he could not stand dishonor. He was but recently married. He was 43 years old, and a native of Nantz, France.

Fire!—According to all accounts there was undoubtedly a heavy frost yesterday morning.

Robbery.—About 9:20 o'clock last night, Mr. Kalberlan, the tailor, who keeps a shop at the corner of Girod and St. Charles streets, reported to the Police that he had been robbed of nearly all the contents of his store, to the amount about $300, all while he was absent but a few minutes taking a drink. The police were put to work. One E. B. Malone, was arrested on suspicion.

Suspected Wife Murder.—Mrs. Annie Wynans, living at 189 St. Joseph street, made complaint yesterday to the Chief of Police, that her sister, Mrs. Moses Baker, who died in the city before, was buried under suspicious circumstances, and that she was beaten by her husband, Baker, in a brutal manner. Coroner Avilla was notified. Coroner was notified about 7 or 8 o'clock last night and Baker arrested. He said he had been beaten by Baker and contended that it was not unusual for men to beat their wives. Baker is a baker.

Fast Play.—The great sensational play of this title is to be given to night at the St. Charles Theatre, Miss Price appearing in her great character in the play.

Run Away.—Yesterday evening a white boy, six years old, was shot and dangerously wounded in the mouth by a colored boy named Joseph Albert, on Port street. The lessons of the day, at which the report was made precluded our getting particulars. Albert was arrested. The ball was extracted by Dr. Lewis.

The Police Charivari.—Judge Cooley, of the Sixth District Court, has ordered that the case of Diamond vs. Cain, be fixed for argument Tuesday, the 24th inst., at 10 o'clock, on the following points:

1. Whether or not amending the act of the Legislature No 81, and commonly known as the Metropolitan Police bill, is constitutional in its various features; that the Legislature had the absolute right to revise, modify, amend or repeal altogether the city charter; that the act in question does not violate the articles of constitution cited by the plaintiff.

Does said act in fact place the city of New Orleans, or any other portion of the district designated therein, under the control of the Metropolitan Police provided for in said act, or does it not leave it discretionary with the said city, or any other portion of said district, to employ the said police or not, as it may deem necessary.

Fire Fancy Chicago Theatre.—Five fellows from Chicago arrived yesterday on the Jackson Railroad, between this city and Kenner Station, on the strength of a telegram from Jackson, Miss. For prudential reasons we refrain from adding to details, but this developments when made will be highly interesting. They fill the description sent.

Attempted Suicide.—Friday Night, a woman named Mary Blanker, living on Union street, between Dryades and Rampart, attempted to commit suicide by taking laudanum. It appears that she had been sometime sick and reduced to great poverty, grew desperate in view of her situation and attempted to take her life. After swallowing the drug, she communicated the fact to a companion, by whose exertions she was kept alive until a physician was sent for and measures to relieve her of its influence. She is a native of Boston, and came here during the Federal occupation of the city. She is considered out of danger and evidences no desire to repeat the experiment. She belongs to the fancy class of women.

Burglary.—Some time during Friday night the residence of Mr. Cardon, on St. Andrew street, was entered by unknown persons and robbed of valuables, consisting of wearing apparel and jewelry, valued at $200. No clue has been obtained to the perpetrators.

Robbery.—About 12 o'clock, Friday night, Mr. P. Murphy, residing on Magazine street, was knocked down and robbed of a gold watch and chain, valued at $150. Two men, named Salas, were arrested, on the charge of doing the deed.

Dangerous Character.—A man, who gave his name as Edward Wilson, was arrested by officer Hill man, charged with throwing stones and other missiles at the residents of citizens on Rochebleve street. He seemed to be actuated by a pure spirit of mischief. A few days since a little girl, named Hettie Wessel, was struck by a rock, supposed to have been thrown by this man, and dangerously injured.

Larceny of Jewelry.—A young girl, named Mary Miller, was arrested yesterday, on a warrant from the Recorder's Court, charged by Mme Warren with the larceny of a set of diamond jewelry, valued at $300.

Academy of Music.—Mlle Turnour had a splendid benefit last night. She reappears to-night and to-morrow night again. The burlesque "White Fawn" is to be repeated on both occasions.

Amati Museum.—Go and see the world of wonders at the Museum, No. 42 St. Charles street, opposite the St. Charles Hotel.

"Under the Gas Light."—This play is to be repeated Monday evening at the Varieties.

Rousseau Guards Pic Nic.—There will be a picnic to-day, commencing at 2 o'clock, at the lower Cotton Press, under the auspices of the Rousseau Guards for the relief of about four hundred orphans of the St Mary's Orphan Asylum. Admission for gentlemen 50 cents, ladies and children free.

REV. DR. GUTHEIM.—We find in the New York Tribune the following notice of Dr. Gutheim's installation as English minister of the Jewish Temple Emanuel in New York city, on Saturday, the 4th inst:

The Rev. Dr. James K Gutheim was on Saturday, with imposing ceremonies, installed as English minister of the magnificent new Jewish Temple Emanuel, corner of Fifth avenue and Forty third street. The usual services having been conducted by the Rev. Dr. Robin, the minister was introduced by the Rev. Dr. Adler, the German minister. The latter then delivered the installation address in which he referred to Dr. Gutheim's fifteen years' service in New Orleans, and expressed his confidence that his colleague would prove but little to the high reputation he had obtained in the South. After the singing of a hymn by the choir, the newly-installed minister delivered an impressive discourse, taking for his text:

The reason belongs to the realm of the heart and from the heart it must reach the realm of the religious. Proverbs, chap. xxvi, verse 9.

A specimen of cannel coal, from Alaska, has been received by the President. It is pronounced by competent judges to be the finest quality of coal. The vein from which this specimen was obtained is represented as being forty miles long and of average width.

New York, Nov. 21.—The steamship Arizona arrived from Aspinwall to-day, with $650,000 in treasure. Her news is unimportant.

New York, Nov. 20.—The Bank statement shows: Loans increased $2 971,000, specie increased $1,178,000, deposits increased $6,959,000; legal tenders increased $12,133,000, circulation decreased $54,000. Sub-Treasury balances $86,500,000.

Port Lake City, Nov. 21.—Three roughs were hung at Lake City, on the 11th inst., creating great excitement. A mob of 200 attacked the town and burned the Index office and jail. The roughs fought them off, killing and wounding 35. The mob collected in the morning and sent word to the women to leave town, that four hundred of them intended to attack and burn it. The Mayor telegraphed for troops.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

London, Nov. 21.—Returns thus far show 310 Liberals and 168 Conservatives. Serious riots occurred in various places. At Sligo, Ireland, ten houses were sacked. Scheneck—The Albany Argus says:

The fourth of the city of Little Rock, Ark., stands in the light of Scheneck's name, he having bought it up at a tax or confiscation sale, and drawn the rent ($100 000 annually) and leaves that point as one who contest his title to pay the taxes. He has never been near the chase money, and so has a safe and good thing any way.

Oh, these patriotic Radicals! Honest Ben Butler and honest Bob Schenck should be yoked together. They appropriate other people's property to their own use without any compunction of conscience. They are loyal! loyalists. Why is not this called "stealing," as should like to know? Wherein is the horse-thief worse than such men?

SEWARD.—To Seward and his disciples, on certain speech, the Rochester Chronicle irreverently applies the language with which a boy described his grandfather's gun: "It has a splendid piece: I can cover the whole side of the barn with that from that gun, she scatters so beautifully. I wish to God I had anything with her, however, she won't do. She's powerful as to territory, but confine her to a pigeon, or a flock of them, for that matter, and she couldn't ruffle a feather."

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 21, 1868.

We have still to report the absence of any change in the money market proper, which continues to exhibit a moderate demand for discounts and an ample supply of banking capital available for the negotiation of all A 1 paper.
