

BOAT TO DIG GOLD.

A Steam Catamaran and Derrick Is Planned by Newark (N. J.) Klondike Party.

A party of Newark (N. J.) men have formed a Klondike mining company. They will go up the Yukon river in a boat built by themselves from their own designs and equipped with dredging machinery of patterns which they have devised.

The boat is a catamaran. It will be 70 feet long, and the total width from the outer gunwale of one boat to the other will be about 25 feet.

On the twin boats of the catamaran will rest a house in which the members of the party will live. Over the deckhouse will be a trough about 70 feet long, and as the buckets on the endless chain rise they will dump the earth they contain into the trough.

AFTER VENEZUELA TRADE.

Indian Manufacturer Thinks a Great Business Can Be Done by American Merchants.

Marland R. Gardner, secretary of the Underwood Manufacturing company, of Wash, Ind., has just returned from a month's trip to South America, whither he went with the purpose of establishing a trade for his line of goods.

His vessel reached Caracas, Venezuela, Sunday evening, March 22, and from that city he went to all parts of the country, making ten different trips.

Mr. Gardner says that from his observation the Venezuelan market affords a fine field for American manufacturers, and the fact that our export trade to that country is now so limited is due wholly to the indifference of Americans and the activity of the French and Germans.

WILL PHOTOGRAPH BATTLES.

Proposes to Make Lifelike Pictures of War Engagements from Balloons.

Extraordinary arrangements are understood to be under way for balloon photography. Within two or three days W. J. Rouse, one of the most expert photographers in the United States, has arrived in Washington with a new apparatus which has created a sensation among military experts.

He exhibited his new telescope-camera in operation, and it brought a set of chimneys at an actual distance of two-thirds of a mile within an ordinary 100-yard photographic range.

THROW DYNAMITE BOMBS.

Pneumatic Gunboat Vesuvius Tests a Successful Practical Test in Narragansett Bay.

The pneumatic gun boat, Vesuvius, successfully fired a loaded shell from her guns in Narragansett bay the other day. She was out all the morning, and after throwing dummy projectiles for line fire and distance adjustment she closed into the lower range of the "Measured Mile Course," and discharged her three guns in close connection.

COWBOYS ANXIOUS TO FIGHT.

Gov. McCord, of Arizona, Asks President Not to Forget Col. Bridge's Regiment of Rough Riders.

Gov. McCord, of Arizona, is deeply interested in the formation of Col. Bridge's regiment of rough riders. He has telegraphed to the president as follows: "I beg you to remember that Arizona was the first to offer to the government a regiment of cavalry recruited from the cowboys of the northwest."

The German government proposes to try to get potatoes in Africa.

ONIONS ARE BARRED.

Cincinnati Street Car Men Are Restricted as to Diet.

Strong, Garlicy Breath Offensive to Dainty Lady Passengers and They Lodge a Successful Protest.

A new order goes into effect with all conductors employed by the Cincinnati (O.) Street Railway company. The order is a sweeping one and was instigated by a number of ladies. Conductors are ordered not to eat onions within 24 hours of going on duty.

If, however, the conductor can eat onions or garlic in such a manner as to prevent any of their fragrance escaping with his breath it is understood that he will be allowed the benefit of the invention.

ADVANTAGES OF BARE FEET.

Are the Children of the Time "Dressed to Death"?

Visitors to Scotland used to be horrified on seeing so many children running about barefooted. Bare feet are less common now than they were a generation ago, and perhaps the change, while showing a growing prosperity in the nation, is not altogether to be recommended.

REPTILE RELEASED FROM A MAIL POUCH.

In Chicago and Scares the Employes.

Foreman William M. Collins, of the bag-inspecting room at the Chicago post office, the other day discovered a large snake in a mail pouch. The reptile rolled on the floor among a number of employes and a scattering followed.

THE COMING MAFF.

Muffs come in the exaggerated sizes this year, but the most popular muffs will be of medium size.

Finally Foreman Collins armed himself with a broom and, after darning the snake with a blow over the head, captured it alive. It was placed in one of the windows of the room and a tag bearing the inscription, "A Spaniard from Havana," was fastened to it.

AN ORIENTAL TABLE CLOTH.

Cut a 36-inch square from an old-fashioned broche shawl.

Cut a 36-inch square from an old-fashioned broche shawl. The wrong side of the shawl will be the right side of your table cover. Line the square with cashmere and crochet around the edge a chain consisting of four single crochet, thread over and fasten, then four more singles. Repeat entirely around the square, and into each division of this heading tie eight strands, each 12 inches long, of the "waste embroidery silk" which is so extensively advertised, and which generally comes in yard lengths.

THE COURT OF APPEALS OF NEW YORK.

Has held that it was no ground for a new trial because the jury in a murder case attended church on Sunday in custody of the sheriff and heard a sermon on the prevalence of crime.

IN CAP AND BELLS.

Without Tack, the Humorous Woman Makes More Enemies Than Friends.

The funny woman, for as it is a pestilence in the land, carelessly and roughly she seeks only to make the world laugh, sends her merry shot and shells here and there, and takes no note of the wounded in the field. It is she who holds up our weaknesses to ridicule, reveals our secret ambitions, and makes puns upon our most solemn observations.

Now, as blessed as humor is and as healthy as laughter is, there are some things in the universe which are not funny. But it seems that there is nothing good enough or sacred enough to escape the confirmed joker.

The funny woman, in spite of her brilliant conversational qualities, is rarely a social success. Unbridled wit and tact are inimical. The wags who are bursting with wit to preserve harmony, now when one wants a dinner party to go off pleasantly and smoothly one does not feel safe in inviting a guest who may, in a moment of exuberant fun, create one of those "unlucky pauses" so dreaded in society, or innocently engage some eminent personage by a telling "home shot."

The funny woman is not usually a winner in the game of hearts, though she may succeed in affording her men friends excellent entertainment. The ideal girl—that paragon of man's fancy—is not usually she who is prone to puns and who is likely to find a funny spot in the most sentimental situation.

CONGRATULATE THE CONDUCTOR.

Men may admire quickness of wit in the abstract, but they are not apt to fall in love with a girl who is always making "smart speeches."

Dear, funny woman, we would not laugh away, nor live perpetually in a shower of mental fireworks. Ever and again we pine to commune with the earnest, grave and jokeless friend with whom we may discuss some profound and solemn theme without being met by a fusillade of feeble puns and witticisms.
