

VIN TONIQUE et APERITIF

Agent: GEO. J. DUBOIS, 861 Sixth Ave., New York, N. Y.

RECOMMANDÉ AUX FAMILLES

L. VIOLET. - THUIR, FRANCE

BYRRH

BYRRH

ENGLISH SECTION

L'Abeille de la Nouvelle-Orléans Daily Edition.NEW ORLEANS BEE PUBLISHING CO., Limited PUBLISHER.COL. HUGUES J. DE LA VERGNE PRESIDENT AND EDITOR.H. BEGUE, JR.
MANAGER.

Phone Main 3487.

Office, 520 Conti St., between Decatur and Chartres.Entered as second-class mail matter, at the Postoffice at New Orleans, La., under Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Daily Edition.
In the United States—

One year $7.50

Six months 3.75

Three months 1.95

One month65

One week15

For Foreign Countries—

One year $12.15

Six months 6.07

Three months 3.05

One month 1.05

One week45

Weekly Edition

In the United States—

One year $3.00

Six months 1.50

Three months75

For Foreign Countries—

One year $1.00

Six months 2.05

Three months 1.03

Sunday Edition.

In the United States—

One year $2.00

Six months 1.00

For Foreign Countries—

One year $3.00

Six months 1.50

Subscriptions are invariably payable in advance.America's Greatest Religious Author.Pastor Russell's books, which added much to his fame, reached a circulation exceeded only by the Bible. Among these were:"Divine Plan of the Ages," 4,817,000;
"What Say the Scriptures About Hell?", 3,000,000; "Food for Thinking Christians," 1,450,000; "Tabernacle Shadows", 1,000,000; "The Time is at Hand", 1, 657,000; "Thy Kingdom Come", 1,578,000;
"Battle of Armageddon", 161,000; "The Atonement", 145,000; "The New Creation", 423,000.The circulation of Pastor Russell's books seems all the more remarkable when it is known that few books exceed an output of 25,000. Any one of the above books would make a man famous.Pastor Russell was president of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, with its thirteen foreign branches; president of the People's Pulpit Association, of New York, and of the International Bible Students' Association of Great Britain.He was pastor of the New York City Temple, the Brooklyn Tabernacle, the London Tabernacle, and was elected pastor of about twelve hundred congregations, which he served chiefly through his publications, and endeavored to visit at least once annually.He was editor of "The Watch Tower" and publisher of the "Bible Students Monthly", the latter having a yearly circulation of about fifty million copies.Pastor Russell prepared and presented the "Photo-Drama of Creation", which was shown free of charge to more than twelve millions of people in America and abroad, not even a collection being taken. It is still being exhibited at The Temple in New York on Sunday afternoons to interested audiences, after a run of three years there.Pastor Russell built The Temple, and here he launched his "Creation Drama", preaching from its platform when not lecturing. The Temple is one of the finest places for worship in New York.
Prior to its erection, Pastor Russell preached in the Brooklyn Academy of Music once a month, always to crowded houses.He conducted a lecture bureau whose seventy speakers are every day in all parts of America—admission free, no collections ever made—and directed the activities of from four hundred to nine hundred personal representatives who voluntarily hand their various books and publications.New Orleans, Jan. 4, 1917.
To the Editor of The N. O. Bee, City,Dear Sir:
I have been requested by a relative of the founder of Touro Infirmary to correct an article recently published about that noble institution, which stated that it was "organized by Friedrich Loebel with the wealth of Judah Touro". Doctor Loebel, however, did

TO THE PUBLIC.

The New Orleans Bee, No. 520 Conti St., is prepared to publish in the English language in its daily paper all legal and judicial advertisements and notices at the rate of three and a half (3 1/2) cents per agate line, net, instead of seven (7) cents per agate line as heretofore.

Phone Main 3487.

Entered as second-class mail matter, at the Postoffice at New Orleans, La., under Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Daily Edition.
In the United States—

One year $7.50

Six months 3.75

Three months 1.95

One month65

One week15

For Foreign Countries—

One year $12.15

Six months 6.07

Three months 3.05

One month 1.05

One week45

Weekly Edition

In the United States—

One year $3.00

Six months 1.50

Three months75

For Foreign Countries—

One year $1.00

Six months 2.05

Three months 1.03

Sunday Edition.

In the United States—

One year $2.00

Six months 1.00

For Foreign Countries—

One year $3.00

Six months 1.50

Subscriptions are invariably payable in advance.not establish the Infirmary nor did the wealth of Touro contribute thereto. It was established about 1819 by Doctor Joseph Bensaden as a strictly pay institution at the corner of South Peters street, and in 1851 a new corporation was formed with the Hebrew Benevolent Association entitled: "Touro Infirmary and Hebrew Benevolent Association" which took over the Infirmary and from that time on it became a philanthropic institution, and Doctor Loebel, who at that time was not a physician but a pharmacist, became assistant surgeon about 1867; later he became chief surgeon for many years, then for awhile retired and again resumed the position which he held up to the time of his death.The name "Touro" was given in honor of the great Jewish philanthropist through the brother-in-law of Doctor Bensaden, Aron Joseph, who had been a close friend of Touro.Doctor Bensaden served throughout the war between the States on the Southern side as a surgeon and has many descendants in the city of New Orleans. Touro Infirmary was conducted at its original location until the year 1882 when it was removed to its present location on Prytania street, where it has been extended and enlarged from time to time; now it is one of the greatest charitable institutions in the country.

W. O. Hart.

W. O. Hart.

Pastor Russell's books, which added much to his fame, reached a circulation exceeded only by the Bible. Among these were:

"Divine Plan of the Ages," 4,817,000;

"What Say the Scriptures About Hell?", 3,000,000; "Food for Thinking Christians," 1,450,000; "Tabernacle Shadows", 1,000,000; "The Time is at Hand", 1, 657,000; "Thy Kingdom Come", 1,578,000;"Battle of Armageddon", 161,000; "The Atonement", 145,000; "The New Creation", 423,000.The circulation of Pastor Russell's
books seems all the more remarkable
when it is known that few books exceed an output of 25,000. Any one of the above books would make a man famous.Pastor Russell was president of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, with its thirteen foreign branches;president of the People's Pulpit Association, of New York, and of the
International Bible Students' Association
of Great Britain.He was pastor of the New York City Temple, the Brooklyn Tabernacle, the London Tabernacle, and was elected
pastor of about twelve hundred congregations, which he served chiefly
through his publications, and endeavored to visit at least once annually.He was editor of "The Watch Tower"
and publisher of the "Bible Students Monthly", the latter having a yearly
circulation of about fifty million
copies.Pastor Russell prepared and presented
the "Photo-Drama of Creation",
which was shown free of charge to
more than twelve millions of people in America and abroad, not even a collection being taken. It is still being exhibited at The Temple in New York
on Sunday afternoons to interested audiences,
after a run of three years there.Pastor Russell built The Temple, and
here he launched his "Creation Drama", preaching from its platform when not
lecturing. The Temple is one of the finest places for worship in New York.
Prior to its erection, Pastor Russell
preached in the Brooklyn Academy of Music once a month, always to crowded
houses.He conducted a lecture bureau whose
seventy speakers are every day in all parts of America—admission free, no
collections ever made—and directed the
activities of from four hundred to
nine hundred personal representatives
who voluntarily hand their various books and publications.

New Orleans, Jan. 4, 1917.

To the Editor of The N. O. Bee,
City,

Dear Sir:

I have been requested by a relative
of the founder of Touro Infirmary to
correct an article recently published
about that noble institution, which
stated that it was "organized by Fried-
rich Loebel with the wealth of Judah Touro". Doctor Loebel, however, didnot establish the Infirmary nor did the wealth of Touro contribute thereto. It was established about 1819 by Doctor Joseph Bensaden as a strictly pay institution at the corner of South Peters
street, and in 1851 a new corporation
was formed with the Hebrew Benevolent Association entitled: "Touro Infirmary and Hebrew Benevolent Association" which took over the Infirmary
and from that time on it became a philanthropic institution, and Doctor Loebel, who at that time was not a
physician but a pharmacist, became
assistant surgeon about 1867; later he became chief surgeon for many years,
then for awhile retired and again resumed the position which he held up
to the time of his death.The name "Touro" was given in honor of the great Jewish philanthropist
through the brother-in-law of Doctor Bensaden, Aron Joseph, who
had been a close friend of Touro.Doctor Bensaden served throughout
the war between the States on the Southern side as a surgeon and has
many descendants in the city of New Orleans. Touro Infirmary was conducted at its original location until
the year 1882 when it was removed
to its present location on Prytania
street, where it has been extended and
enlarged from time to time; now it is
one of the greatest charitable institutions in the country.

W. O. Hart.

W. O. Hart.

Pastor Russell's books, which added
much to his fame, reached a circulation exceeded only by the Bible. Among
these were:

"Divine Plan of the Ages," 4,817,000;

"What Say the Scriptures About Hell?", 3,000,000; "Food for Thinking Christians," 1,450,000; "Tabernacle Shadows", 1,000,000; "The Time is at Hand", 1, 657,000; "Thy Kingdom Come", 1,578,000;"Battle of Armageddon", 161,000; "The Atonement", 145,000; "The New Creation", 423,000.The circulation of Pastor Russell's
books seems all the more remarkable
when it is known that few books exceed an output of 25,000. Any one of the above books would make a man famous.Pastor Russell was president of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society,
with its thirteen foreign branches;president of the People's Pulpit Association, of New York, and of the
International Bible Students' Association
of Great Britain.He was pastor of the New York City Temple, the Brooklyn Tabernacle, the London Tabernacle, and was elected
pastor of about twelve hundred congregations, which he served chiefly
through his publications, and endeavored to visit at least once annually.He was editor of "The Watch Tower"
and publisher of the "Bible Students Monthly", the latter having a yearly
circulation of about fifty million
copies.Pastor Russell prepared and presented
the "Photo-Drama of Creation",
which was shown free of charge to
more than twelve millions of people in America and abroad, not even a collection being taken. It is still being exhibited at The Temple in New York
on Sunday afternoons to interested audiences,
after a run of three years there.Pastor Russell built The Temple, and
here he launched his "Creation Drama", preaching from its platform when not
lecturing. The Temple is one of the finest places for worship in New York.
Prior to its erection, Pastor Russell
preached in the Brooklyn Academy of Music once a month, always to crowded
houses.He conducted a lecture bureau whose
seventy speakers are every day in all parts of America—admission free, no
collections ever made—and directed the
activities of from four hundred to
nine hundred personal representatives
who voluntarily hand their various
books and publications.

New Orleans, Jan. 4, 1917.

To the Editor of The N. O. Bee,
City,

Dear Sir:

I have been requested by a relative
of the founder of Touro Infirmary to
correct an article recently published
about that noble institution, which
stated that it was "organized by Fried-
rich Loebel with the wealth of Judah Touro". Doctor Loebel, however, didnot establish the Infirmary nor did the wealth of Touro contribute thereto. It was established about 1819 by Doctor Joseph Bensaden as a strictly pay institution at the corner of South Peters
street, and in 1851 a new corporation
was formed with the Hebrew Benevolent Association entitled: "Touro Infirmary and Hebrew Benevolent Association" which took over the Infirmary
and from that time on it became a philanthropic institution, and Doctor Loebel, who at that time was not a
physician but a pharmacist, became assistant surgeon