

THE REF.

Subscription—two dollars per annum, payable half-yearly in advance.

The Ref. has this day changed proprietors: the former Editor having formed a new partnership, considers it his duty towards the public to express his gratification for the patronage which has been granted to this paper...

In a commercial city of such importance as New-Orleans, the principal object of the editor of a commercial paper is to render himself as useful as possible to merchants...

Such are the principal changes and improvements intended by the new proprietors of this paper, which has never pretended to enter in competition against its powerful rivals...

CONFILAGRATION OF MOSCOW.

THE Ladies and Gentlemen of N. Orleans and the Public generally, are informed, that for a few weeks on the evenings of Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays, will be offered for their amusement, at Saint Phillip street Theatre an exhibition of ingenious and interesting Automaton, and the sublime spectacle of the Conflagration of Moscow!!!

1st.—The little Bass Fiddler. 2d.—Maelzel's original Automaton Speaking Figures. One of these Automata, (the little French girl) will in the spectators, distinctly articulate the words "Mama, and Papa."

3d.—The Beautiful Automaton Slack Rope Dancers. One of these likewise, while on the rope, utters the French exclamation "Oh la la!" These figures are very celebrated, and their astonishing and graceful feats have received the highest encomiums.

The whole to conclude with the conflagration of Moscow. This magnificent combination of the effects of design, mechanism and music, illustrating the awful grandeur of an immense city wrapt in flame and a prey to the ravages of war.

The invading armies of Napoleon are seen to enter; the inhabitants abandon the capital of the empire; the incendiaries with their torches pass among them—the bells are heard in every quarter, which, with the military French music the volleys of distant musketry, the roar of artillery, the tremendous explosion, the expansion of flames, &c. will present a perfect fac-simile of the rear scene!!!

Admittance.—Boxes and Parterre 31 00. Second tier for free persons of color, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents—Children half price.

AT PRIVATE SALE. A LOT situated in the faubourg La Fayette, on Rousseau street, and fronting the College, measuring 60 feet front by 149 feet deep and designated by No. 85. Said lot is enclosed and the bankruptcy is already made.
