A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the lose of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of age, which causes many to recoil at being unconvinced, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the looks and sneers of their acquaintance; the remainder have lives are consequently rendered miserable. In fact, it is not even the loss of property fills the generous aspiring youth with that hearty sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avoid all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise prevents the eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and from it. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, late the Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of the hair, but certain restorative. WM. THATCHER, sexton

Unchanged, and those who present it wearing wigs, may rest assured, experience its restorative qualities, as it will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above agents are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 20.
