CROSS SLIGHTLY SMALLER.

The production of police reports in a January represents a 24 per cent increase in the number of cases handled during the year, according to the annual report of the police, which was received by the city council on Monday. The total number of cases handled during the year was 41,350, compared with 33,244 in 1916. The average number of cases handled per month was 3,445, compared with 2,770 in 1916. The average number of cases handled per day was 115, compared with 98 in 1916.

ONE SHOPS WITH WEAPONS.

Russian Soldier Shoots Tank From the Back Row.

Yakima, Wash., May 23. (Special) - A Russian soldier, who had been captured by the American army, shot a tank with a pair of revolvers today from the rear of the tank. The soldier, who was a member of the Russian army, was captured by the American army while on a raid in the vicinity of Yakima. The tank was badly damaged by the shots, and the American soldiers were forced to abandon it.

THE BUMBLY IS IN TOWN.

TO BUILD NEW TOWN.

VOLVA ACQUIRES $500,000 TRUNK.

Successor to "Empress" chain plans City Near Chicago.

Chicago, May 23d. - Volva, the successor to the "Empress" chain, announced today that it would acquire $500,000 worth of trunk property for a new city near Chicago. The company, which was formed by the merger of the "Empress" chain with the Chicago Stock Exchange, plans to build a new city near Chicago, which will be known as "Volva City." The company will build a number of new buildings, including a hotel, a theater, and a number of restaurants.

IN AN ALARMED ST.

Marcel Pauchon, the French colonel, who was wounded in the battle of the Marne, has been discharged from the hospital. The colonel, who was injured in the battle of the Marne, was discharged from the hospital today.

RANCHEUR CLAYS.

Nearly Every Child in Dakota Braves' Brownie.

The Brownie, a newspaper published in New York, has been given a new name to every child in Dakota. The newspaper, which was founded by the Brownie, is now published in Dakota, and every child in Dakota has been given a new name to the newspaper. The new name of the newspaper is "Brownie."