PART 1.—THE DEFALCATIONS OF MR.
SWARTWOUT.

1. THE FXTEST OF MR. SWARTWOUT'S DEFALCATIONS.
Conclusions of the Committee.
1st. That Mr. Swartwoot is a defaulter to governthe committee of the Committee.

Let and present incumbents of that office.

PART III. THE CORRECTNESS OF THE RETURNS WHICH HAVE BEEN MADE BY THE PRESENT COLLECTOR AND NA. VAI. OFFICER OF THE PORT OF NEW YORK, RESPECTIVELY.

Conclusions of the collector of customs at the port of New York, have not been correct, as they have not at all times embraced, as paid into the public to assay, the noncys received by him for unascertain years and at no time for duties paid under protect. 2d. That said collector, in his returns, has violated in instructions of the treasury department, has put at defiance the duties assigned him by the secretary in the treasury, has repudiated the official decision of the resourts, has reput at defiance the duties assigned him by the secretary in the treasury, has repudiated the official decision of the resourtive department, and is guilty of an itlegal retention and use of the public momey, in the amount then held by him for protections.
