

OFFICE, 83 CHARTRES ST.

THE DAILY BEE.

SUN. DAY MORNING, DEC. 11.

OBYKSE AND REVENGE.

Particulars are certainly more reliable than general sentiment than any other class of people. Like Dr. Brown, and like others who have given us information, public virtue and private vice are the imperfections of the system.
The former are the weaknesses of the masses, while the latter are the most sinful sins of the time and inadequate for the expression of their feelings. If they are in the class of the poor, it is to the poor that they have turned. Thus they are ever in extremes. We speak, of course, of the mass of the people, and not of the few who are and have been the central atmosphere of party, who never dream of an separation beyond the mere name, and then make him a supporter and exponent of certain party principles.

THE UNITED STATES TREASURY.

Washington, December 10.—The balance in the United States Treasury on Monday was $1,000,000.

The receipts into the Treasury last week were $200,000. The amount of drained issued was $1,000,000, which shows a reduction with the previous week.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, December 10.—Senate. The Senate has adjourned.

House Proceedings.—In the House the case of Judge Warriner was the chief topic of discussion. The resolution of the greater portion of the members that the subject was still under discussion was voted down.
