WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

There is a little significance in the day's dispatch which comes from the British Press, announcing that the British Government has decided to send an expedition to Washington to investigate the cause of the late war. It is not a mere diplomatic move, but a serious step towards the settlement of the late war. CITY INTELLIGENCE.

The great cry that preceded the advent of the late war, was that the British Government had decided to send an expedition to Washington to investigate the cause of the late war. It is not a mere diplomatic move, but a serious step towards the settlement of the late war.
