THE DAILY BEE.

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 29 A MONITOR PROM ARROAD.

Another suggestive article on Mexico appears in the columns of the London Times of the 5th instant. That journal takes an exceedingly just view of the progress of demoralization in the beautiful land of Anahuan. In notes and describes the frequent promacticements, the wretched intestine feuds, the highway robberies, the wholesaie plunders, the personal outrages, and the alternate triumphe and overthrows of Liberals and Reactionists, as perspicuously and forebly as if the writer had been an eye-witness of these occurrences. The Times is thoroughly informed respecting Mexican sfairs, and discoursed the second of the HOWITOR PROM ABROAD.

It is humiliating for the United States to on presenting them at his office.

It is homitating for the United States to learn its duties from the exhortations of the limitab press. Yet it is even so. We, who have ten causes of complaint against Mexico where Great Britain has one, are stoically resolved upon a policy of contemptible insertiness, leaving Mexico a helpless and depairing prey to the misguided factions which are tearing her to fragments: while Great Britain, with all her dislike and realousy of merican progress, beholds so clearly that the only hope of redemption for Mexico lies in annexation, that she does not hesitate boldly to recommend it. We shall be told, perhaps, that annexation will benefit England by enabling that power to treat with a stable and solvent government for the payment of the Mexican debt. No doubt of it. The Timer itself admits the impeachment when it declares that any government which could enforce law and order in Mexico would be to Great Britain an advantage—not a loss. What matters it, however, whether the establishment in Mexico of a vigorous and honest government would be apt to put many in the pockets of the British bond holders? Are we to reject a manifest good because clears may device some proof as 8 of the British bond holders? Are we to reject a manifest good secured clears may be true for the manifest good secured clears may be true for the British bond holders? Merico in its abortive efforts to achieve self givernment. Would Great British have generated without interference the gradual decay of every vital prisciple of nationality and civilization in that lightfous country? Above all, would she have suffered Mexico to trample on treaty chargations, to imprison her subjects, to extert from them forced contributions, to maireat some, and murder others, without striking a blow in her own behas?? It brings the America the official organs of our administration homilies on the mildness and the liberality homilies on the minutees and displayed by it towards the besotted and cruel races which inhabit Mexico. Away cruci races which inhabit Mexico. Away with this fake and enervating policy! Let us respect ourselves by enforcing the respect of others. Let us prove that we are neither vanighterous braggarts, nor aneaking politicous. Let us show the world that the assertion of our right has a tangible meaning; that magnaminty does not exclude nutles; that the duty of protecting the citizen is incumbent on all governments, and least of all to be overlocked by a great power; and that in fine, whether the offense proceeds from Mexico or from England—from an imbedie idable one, we shall be equally ready demand and exact atonement.
