SAIL RIGGED FOR BICYCLE.
Invention of an Evanston Editor Said to Be of Value to Knights of the Wheel.

R. O. Vandercook, editor of the Evanston (Ill.) Press, has perfected a bicycle sail rigging which was tested recently with satisfactory results.

Now and then persons file claims against the United States for service in the confederate army.

Unquestionably many claims against the government are on just such lines,

Many of these claims are handed down from generation to generation,

Joseph H. Choate, the United States ambassador, and Baron Russell, of Kilowen, lord chief justice of England,

Lord Russell, toasting "The American Bench and Bar," devoted his speech to the merits and demerits of the American judicial system,

Mr. Choate said that justice was administered in the United States to the satisfaction of the people, while litigation was much cheaper there than in England and people who had grievances were, therefore, encouraged to seek their remedies in the courts.

ODD CLAIMS FILED.
FROM NEWSBOY TO CAPITALIST.
Princeton University's Pet Paper Seller Comes into a $50,000 Fortune.

Johnnie Hamilton, for five years the accredited newsboy of Princeton (N.
J.) university, was born under a lucky star. A week ago he was a poor lad,

Two days ago Johnny was walking down Nassau street, the main thoroughfare of Princeton, selling newspapers at a lively rate, as it was nine o'clock, and consequently his busiest hour,

The money was left to Johnnie by a paternal uncle, Samuel Hamilton, who years ago went west and made a fortune in silver mining in Colorado.

Even if favorably acted upon by committees the chances are against favorable consideration in the house, and even if successful there a miracle must interpose to secure its approval by the senate and to obtain the president's signature.

Reprimand, intrigue and charges of a sensational nature centering about the Gratiot school have caused much feeling in Clifton Heights, St. Louis, and an indignation meeting has been called.

These statements," said Prof. Fertig, "are prompted by the jealousy of one woman. She has poisoned the popular sentiment against me. Why? Because she will not marry her. I'll bath no fool like a woman scorned."

Italian Physician Said to Have Made Successful Experiments with Tuberculosis Remedy.

Nearly all the Italian newspapers are devoting much space to the alleged cousumption cure which Prof. Vincent Cervello, of the Palermo university, claims to have discovered.

Prof. Cervello presented the ten-cured patients to the academy of medicine for examination. The most careful diagnosis did not reveal a single remaining trace of tuberculosis.
