

THE BEE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JEROME BAYON, DELAWARE & CO. NEW-ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY (MORNING) MARCH 22, 1831.

We have received New-York dates up to the 2d of March, from which we extract the most interesting intelligence. The mails, due Saturday and yesterday, did not arrive.

Flour, in consequence of the news brought by the Silas Richards, had increased 50 cents per barrel in the Baltimore and Philadelphia markets. This intelligence has, we understand, produced a similar effect on our market; a large quantity has been bought on speculation.

We learn from the Washington papers, that Mr. White of Louisiana, on the 2d of March, resumed his remarks on the resolution proposing a reduction of the duty on sugar; "but, says the Journal, the hour expired before the termination of his remarks."

Congress adjourned on the 4th day of March. The last subject, which engaged the attention of the National Council, was a Bill for the relief of Insolvent Debtors of the United States. From this measure, the editor of the Journal surmises, that an increase of funds will be poured into the public Treasury.

Slipstream. A letter from Key West, dated 14th inst., received at Savannah, says: "On the 23th ult., Capt. Munn, of the brig 'Macedon,' from New-Orleans, bound to Greenock, with his crew, and 100 bales Cotton, arrived here; the 1st his brig on the Quicksands, about 200 miles to the North of this place, but has saved all of his cargo, 991 bales. The day before yesterday, I dispatched some vessels, in one of which Capt. M. returned for the balance of the Cotton, and such materials as he can save from the wreck. The brig has five feet water in her hold, and the masts were cut away soon after she struck."

NINE DAYS LATER.

By the packet ship Silas Richards, capt. Hodge, arrived yesterday from Liverpool, the 12th of the Courier and Equiper have received their files of London papers to the 25th, containing Paris dates to the 23d, and Liverpool to the 20th January, inclusive—together with shipping & Lloyd's Lists, which will be of much value to our readers. By the Mary and Harriet, at Boston from Liverpool, they have also received papers to the 20th January.

The manifesto of the Poles, which we published from a Paris paper, cannot be read without heart-stirring emotions; it is at once spirited and moderate, eloquent and just. The Russian Army is length upon its march and a short period will probably bring its accounts of actual operations. The Poles seem ready to meet the Autocrat of Russia with a gallant and noble warfare for their cause, and who will refuse to participate a fervent hope that this happy people may rise victorious from the struggle.

The King of Holland has made an important communication to the States-General in relation to the affairs of Belgium, which we reported in our issue of the 14th inst. He has, in a friendly manner, renounced in his rights and those of his house over that country. Says that he has consented to the opening of the Scheldt. That he will abstain from all measures of aggression. In Belgium the last accounts report the further proceedings of the Congress respecting the election of a King. The Duke de Leuchtenberg, son of Prince Eugene, seems now to be the favorite candidate, and the young Prince has not yet announced his willingness to serve. The dispatches from the Allied Powers, and particularly of France, had not deterred many of the members from expressing their wishes in his favour. Not less than fifteen candidates have already been before them, among others, Viscount Chateaubriand, General Sebastiani and the Pope.

The 28th February is the day fixed on for a definite decision of the question. The Paris dates, which are as late as the 22d, contain nothing important as regards the affairs of France. The country, however, is evidently arming and putting itself in a state to meet the emergencies which the present troubled aspect of affairs indicates will probably speedily arise.

The meetings in England in favour of reform in Parliament seem to excite the whole kingdom, and public opinion is every where enlisted in favor of the measure. The heresies, though frequent, are not of serious character. But in Ireland, and in some parts of the continent, a crisis, and O'Connell and the government are fairly at issue.

ENGLAND.

The Money market has been very steady to day, but it is said, a considerable quantity of Stock has been disposed of. Primes have been maintained, and the various values not amounting to more than an eighth per cent. Consols for the Account opened this morning at 81, afterwards fell to 81, and finally left off at 81. They are quoted at the same price for Money. The heavy Stocks have varied but little. A Half per cent at 90, and the new Three and a Half per cent at 105. Exchange Bills closed at 35, and India Bonds at 115.

A meeting had been held in Liverpool in relation to the renewal of the charter of the East India Company, and resolutions adopted in favor of a free trade to China. It is said that Mr. O'Connell proposes holding his agitation meetings in a steamboat, to be moored beyond the jurisdiction of the Irish government, and where, consequently, no proclamation can reach.—London paper.

FRANCE.

The Gazette de Midi announces the failure of the house of Baudin & Co. for 1,800,000 francs. We regret to state, from an authentic source, that M. Lafitte, the President of the French Ministry, has come to the settlement of his affairs, and that he is understood to be barely solvent. A report of this nature has been heard for some weeks past, but it has only just transpired officially, that the fact has been put out as we state it. M. Lafitte's losses have arisen chiefly, if not entirely, from his having been a very large holder of stock in 1825, which he could not sell at a price after the fall, and the late depression of the Revolution in July has completed his misfortune. The report of M. Lafitte having recently died dishonorably, is without the slightest foundation. His conduct, has, we believe, been irreproachable; but, as it would be improper, in the present state of his affairs, for him to remain at the head of the French Government, his resignation may be expected.—Courier.

It is really serious—the preparations for the Emperor will wait for the arrival of the 60,000 men of his Guards before he shall enter the country. The frontiers of Prussia have hitherto been respected; but this is not surprising, since they are lined with 80,000 men. On the 1st Jan. eighty-seven persons were ill of the cholera at Moscow, of whom forty three were expected to recover.

Paris, Jan. 22.—It is affirmed that news from St. Petersburg, brought by express, announces the march of the Russian Army against Poland. It is said that it will be composed of 15,000 men.

Vienna, Jan. 18.—Private letters mention that an Austrian corps, 40,000 strong, under the orders of General Stutterheim, is now concentrating in Galicia for the purpose of protecting the frontiers of that province next to Poland. All the officers belonging to the regiments of that corps who were on leave of absence have received orders to join immediately. The retired officers able to serve are incorporated in battalions of the landwehr.

A letter, dated Hanover, Jan. 11, states, that great disturbances have broken out at the south of Gottingen. Troops are hastening there from all parts, and a battalion of Guards will be sent from hence to-morrow in wagons.

Hamburg, Jan. 18.—The Hamoversche Nachrichten, received this morning, brings us the following account of the peaceful termination of an insurrection in Gottingen: "The satisfactory intelligence has just been received that the inhabitants of the city of Gottingen have recognized their King and Sovereign, and have submitted to his mercy. Not a single shot was fired. The blood of citizens has not been shed. The work of insurrection, commenced by evil disposed persons and infatuated men, has thus happily destroyed, and the King will have no further to agitate the seat of tranquility and order."

London, Jan. 25.—Private letters from Rome, received on Thursday, say that the voices of the Cardinals still continue to favor the election of Cardinal Welf to the Papal chair; but some other and powerful intrigues were at work in favor of the Austrian interest, and it was supposed that the deliberations would be protracted for at least another week.

Madrid, Jan. 13.—The political thermometer of the Government of the 13th ult. is very low. Spain will only be able to participate in the good which the Government has effected with respect to Portugal. The Government here is not at all disposed to favor the independence of that country, and it is not likely that it will ever be able to do so.

Belgium and Holland. London, Jan. 21.—Private accounts by the Dutch mail, convey the Dutch army to be a state of the most efficient preparation. On the 25th ult., the army is now to be sent to the frontiers of the Netherlands, and will be ready to march on the 25th and 26th. The Government here is not at all disposed to favor the independence of that country, and it is not likely that it will ever be able to do so.

London, Jan. 11.—The night before last our royal highness the Duchess of Cambridge received a courier from the West Indies, bringing her son, the Duke of Anguilla, who was then at Antigua. He arrived in the city at 10 o'clock, and it was generally reported that he had been proclaimed King of the Netherlands. The information is not confirmed by the Paris papers, which state that the Duke of Anguilla is a young man of 18 years of age, and is not yet of age to be crowned.

London, Jan. 25.—The committee of the League, received from Rotterdam, state that though the League has consented to the breaking up of the assembly of the Scheldt, he has done so with a protest against the right of the five powers to interfere. It is added that his Majesty has solemnly refused to be crowned at the city of Antwerp, and that he has refused to be crowned at the city of Antwerp, and that he has refused to be crowned at the city of Antwerp.

Poland. Among the many signs of public enthusiasm for liberty in Warsaw, we notice one which is of a very extraordinary character. The Jews are not only excluded with great liberality to the land, but they are also excluded from the city. The cause of this is, we are told, that the Jews are not only excluded from the city, but they are also excluded from the city.

The Senate of Illinois, censured Mr. William H. Brown, and directed to deprive him of the privilege of having access to their journals, because in preparing reports of their proceedings for the press, he had inserted in a column of his weekly paper, a copy of the records of the Senate, and it was said, that he had done so in a manner which was highly disrespectful to the Senate.

The National Council is reported to be preparing for the opening of the coming year will be shortly had before the Council. The expenses of the war are estimated at one hundred millions of francs.

Warsaw, Jan. 12.—The Dictator was this day warned of a conspiracy to overthrow the existing government; the persons accused were immediately placed under arrest.

Russia. Accounts have been received from the Russian capital this morning to the 10th January, which communicate the news of the breaking out of the cholera morbus in that city. The Government was actively engaged in a laudable precautionary measure to stop the progress of the disease. Ten temporary hospitals had been established with one hundred and fifty beds, but it was stated that 780 cases of cholera existed. The board of commerce had taken precautionary measures to prevent the increase of the disease by contagion, through the means of merchandise.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 18.—A dispatch by letters received from St. Petersburg, that the Emperor intends to accompany us to the capital, on the 10th, the entire of the Grand, which will march heady for Lithuania. His Majesty will then afterwards leave town for Wilna, where he is expected to arrive on the 17th. An army of 150,000 men will extend from that town to the frontiers of Poland, and it is generally supposed that the Emperor will wait for the arrival of the 60,000 men of his Guards before he shall enter the country.

COMMERCIAL.

Extract of a letter, from the house of Carns, Cray & Co. Throughout the past week a good demand prevailed for cotton, leading to extensive transactions, especially in American descriptions. On the 10th inst. indeed, the business was so lively as to lead to a partial advance of 1-8d per lb on the current prices of the 15th inst.; but the freedom with which importers have on each subsequent day, met the demand, has had the effect of lessening the firmness of the market, and the sales of the latter part of the week may be considered as a port with our last general quotations. The import has continued to be small, and since the 1st inst. the stock in this port is reduced 45,000 bags. A change of wind will probably bring in a considerable number of vessels, which have been kept by the prevalence of easterly winds for some time. The trade here has been the sole operators of late, excepting about 1000 bags of Antwerp, which have been imported on speculation. The accounts from Manchester, with regard to the adjustment of the existing disputes between the spinners, who have been off work for higher wages, and their employers differ as to the probability of an early settlement of their difficulties; but our private information leads us to the conclusion, that the workmen will resume their employments within a very short period—probably by the end of this month—which circumstances may be expected to have a rather favorable influence upon the market. Meanwhile the demand for goods is continued upon an extensive scale, and some difficulty is experienced in obtaining many descriptions of manufactures without considerable delay. For yarns, the business is less brisk, but is far in extent, and an increase of orders is looked for with some confidence in a short time hence.

London, Jan. 25.—Private letters from Rome, received on Thursday, say that the voices of the Cardinals still continue to favor the election of Cardinal Welf to the Papal chair; but some other and powerful intrigues were at work in favor of the Austrian interest, and it was supposed that the deliberations would be protracted for at least another week.
