will meet the approbution and ment the support of those parents who feel interested in the cause of aducation.

To combine effectually the benefits of a country and city residence, much care has been taken in selecting a soitable location. To accomplish which the lat object was to obtain a healthy situation, sufficiently near to insure the regular attendance of the masters engaged in the modern languages and accomplishments. It has formed an important part of the system heretofore sedoted at this school, to have none but the beat instructors in the several departments of French Spanish, Drawing, music, dancing and fencing, and as these cannot be induced to devote all their time to one establishment, it is the more desirable to be within such a distance of the city as will enable them to attend punctually and without inconvenience.

With regard, therefore, to the place selected, the two fold advantage, is united in the fallest extent. That of health has already been se well ascertained that it would be superfluous to dwell on the subject, except for the information of strangers, to whom it may be mentioned, the same property was occupied for many years by Mr Bansell, and afterwards by Mr Dominguez, for a similar purpose, during all which time it has maintained the reputation of a most delightful and healthy residence. On the whole island there could not probably have been a place chosen better calculated for a boarding a view of the Hudson, from which it is distant about a mile, 5 miles from the city, and within a mile of the Harten rail road. It was built expressely for a school, and when the additions and improvements at present in progress are completed, the whole will form an establishment unsurpassed in any part of the state for the accumodations and advantages it will afford.

The house stands on an elevated site, commanding a view of the Hudson, from which it is distant about a mile, 5 miles from the city, and within a mile of the Harten rail road. It was built expressely for a school, and when the additi
