

THE DAILY BEE.

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEWS FROM THE AMERICAN.

Friday Morning, July 13, 1855. The Northern Mail comes through today with the usual delay.

ORANGE WATER NEWS. ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC. RAGLAN ASKS RECALL.

THE PACIFIC. RAGLAN ASKS RECALL. THE PACIFIC. RAGLAN ASKS RECALL.

WHAT IT PORTENDS.

The meeting of the American party on Wednesday evening in Lafayette Square established two facts most conclusively first, that this great organization is not a mere party, but a party of principle, and secondly, that it is a party of the future, and not of the present.

THE PACIFIC.

The news by telegraph which reached us this morning from the Pacific, is of a nature to excite the most lively interest in the minds of our countrymen.

THE PACIFIC.

The news by telegraph which reached us this morning from the Pacific, is of a nature to excite the most lively interest in the minds of our countrymen.

COMMERCIAL.

There was a quiet day in the market, and the prices of the various commodities were generally steady.

CANDIDATES.

There were several candidates for the various offices, and the names of the candidates were generally well known.

NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.

There were several advertisements from New York, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

U. S. MAIL.

There were several advertisements from the U. S. Mail, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

PAPER, BOOKS, ETC.

There were several advertisements for paper, books, and other articles, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

THE PACIFIC.

The news by telegraph which reached us this morning from the Pacific, is of a nature to excite the most lively interest in the minds of our countrymen.

THE PACIFIC.

The news by telegraph which reached us this morning from the Pacific, is of a nature to excite the most lively interest in the minds of our countrymen.

THE PACIFIC.

The news by telegraph which reached us this morning from the Pacific, is of a nature to excite the most lively interest in the minds of our countrymen.

COMMERCIAL.

There was a quiet day in the market, and the prices of the various commodities were generally steady.

CANDIDATES.

There were several candidates for the various offices, and the names of the candidates were generally well known.

NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.

There were several advertisements from New York, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

U. S. MAIL.

There were several advertisements from the U. S. Mail, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

PAPER, BOOKS, ETC.

There were several advertisements for paper, books, and other articles, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.

There were several advertisements from New York, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

U. S. MAIL.

There were several advertisements from the U. S. Mail, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.

PAPER, BOOKS, ETC.

There were several advertisements for paper, books, and other articles, and they were generally of a nature to excite interest in the minds of our countrymen.