THE FIRST DISTRICT.

We were one of the serliest to repel the in-mantion that Mr. St. Martin, the Democrat-c sendidate for Congress in the First District, som their suffrages without ample ability to fled. Swiss Pre-ent of America.—From New already of the Confederation of Colfur revolving cavitations are sometimens missisted. We assumed, as an indepentable possible, that candidate must be an orator. We would not credit the idea that any gentleman would have the tementy to claim a seat in the House of Representatives, saless qualified to atter his sentences and maintains those of his constituents. Yet the even so. The Courier has once and cam acknowledged that Mr. Sr. Martin himself, mough he had eviged abundant opportunities. a discon theatings, but he is not ferthcoming. They call for him and echo alone replies. He is muce, he is worceless, he sairs not the soverer agns with ardent and eloquent declamation; he strives not to convince them by assute and plausible arguments. His friends speak for him, but he is allowed as the grave.

Thus does not his adversary act. He, it is true, to began an operations display of operation.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

Moximo to the 27th ult. The intelligence is of minor importance. Every thing about the Government of Mexico appears to be in lamentable confusion. It is nearly impossible to get together a quorem of the deputies; and whence perclained the Constitutional number is present they do nothing but submit projects upon projects, squabble and fight. The Treasury is reduced to its lowest ebb; the resources of the Government are almost annibilisted.

We stated some time since that the Cabinet of President Arists had resigned. Ineflectual efforts have been made to appoint successors—
We learn from the Trait D Union of the 24th, that Mr. Robles had accepted the post of Minister of Public Affairs.

Mr. Letcher arrived at Vera Cruz on the 1st instant, and was to proceed forthwith to the Capitol.

On the 16th the people of Mexico celebrated the anniversary of their National Independence, and on the 27th that of the Union of the States. There were many tomaits and disorderly proceedings in various parts of Mexico on the past occasion, and notably at Alvarado, where Spaniards were insulted and maltrasted.

The albany Register (whig) says, in reference to this case.
