Che New-Orieans Baily Bee. Tuesday Morning, May 4, 1847. Devices of the Enemy.

Devices of the innemy.

The Locofsco party, ever since the enthusiantic demonstrations in favor of General Taylor, have been in a siste of pinishle alarm and consternation. Their immediate organs, and their induced allies flounder about in great distance of the seeding to their momerc ames nounder about in great me-tress and grasp at every possible expedient to avert the fate that awaits them. They cannot of come, undertake to abuse old Room and RALE, for they have too recen ly made him the subject of their ercomium. Moreover, such a course, by arousing popular indignation, we ald nore effectually defeat their plans and only me more effectually delean their plans and pir,oser. Locodeousian must labor more insidiously, if it would accomplish anything. The it knows suff feels, and accordingly proceeds in ms ungracious task with the nicest discrimination and the most cautious strategy.

One of the prominent objects of the party is to create dissentions in the Whig ranks. A doubte method is adopted to compass this end. Lo-coforour has suddenly manifested a most portain than a doubte method to be sufficient to the compassion of the compassion of the company of tentious and unnatural sympathy for Henry Clay. After honting him down in 1844 by sheer force of calumny; after exhausting the v-nom and the recklessness of partisan malantity in blighting and blackening his great name, the presses of the dominant party, wherever Mr. C. ax's friends seen numerous and devoted, now sound the presses of the life and the presses of the strength of th man, exalt his ability and his consistent attach-ment to whig principles, culogue his patriotism, editors who deliberately faintly their own nivictions, and besite at the name of Henry its with their nauseous adulation, in the solitive hope that they may feel the Whiga into ng him again, and may thus have another and mark presented for their arrows of detrac non. We warn the whigs in due season that the wonderful and unexpected favor which thrus Chay has seemingly found in the sight osem is a sham, and is designed, with

This has been attempted in the South, but has proved a lead believe for the been attempted in the South, but has proved a lead failure, for the simple reason that white ten. Souri's inilitary fame has always been properly appreciated, and his recent exploits nave elicited boundless exultation, politically speaking he has never had any popularity. In he North, however, Gen. Sourz once claimed a host of friends and the Locotocos sagaciously inferring that the capture of Vera Cruz, and the march towards the cuty of Mexico are events outcomed to the capture of Vera Cruz, and the march towards the cuty of Mexico are events outcomed to the capture of the ca ave quite recently perused an elaborate a tempt in a Philadelphia Democratic paper to institute a comparison between Scorr and Tayton, in which the latter is disparaged, and the former applicated to the very echo that shall applicate grain.
